

BEING INFOSYS. BEING MORE.

ANNUAL REPORT 2015-16

BEING INFOSYS. BEING MORE.

We inhabit a universe where time and space bend and stretch continuously. For us, the year in which we celebrated the 100th anniversary of the Theory of General Relativity itself appeared to warp, and passed by much too quickly. It was a year during which we focused on our strategy execution, and we saw four quarters of healthy growth. Beyond the financial results, we saw unprecedented achievements by our teams in every aspect of the business. It was a year in which everyone brought home the vision of Renew and New built on a solid foundation of innovation, learning and purpose.

In this environment, it is easy to focus on the big picture, and miss seeing the multi-dimensional manner in which true transformation takes hold. In order to return to market leadership in a sustained manner, we need to re-imagine our business in every facet and every detail. From delivery, to sales, consulting, operations, and each and every business enabling function – from people, to processes, infrastructure and systems – we have to bring about change that addresses the new reality of a pervasively digital and inter-connected world.

This issue of our annual report celebrates the multiple facets of our transformation. The theme is about transcendence from the ordinary. It is about how innovation and continuous improvement have permeated every corner of our business, and about how we are honing excellence to a fine art form. At Infosys, it is no longer adequate to simply meet expectations – we have to exceed it every time, and in every way.

Today, being Infosys means being more.

MORE THAN SEEING AND HEARING.
LISTENING, MAKING AND IMPROVING.

80,000+ employees and several clients have been trained in Design Thinking, which inculcates a culture of empathy and problem finding. It fosters rapid learning by making and by iterative solution development.

A large, brightly lit conference room with a high ceiling and recessed lighting. Numerous people are seated at round tables covered with white cloths, each with a laptop open in front of them. The room has wood-paneled walls and a large whiteboard in the background. A projector is visible on the ceiling.

MORE THAN CODING.
HACKING AS A WAY OF LEARNING.

The second edition of the Infosys Global Hackathon, Bangalore campus. Engineers across 18 global locations participated, resulting in 600+ ideas and 400+ prototypes. These included ideas and solutions across technologies such as mobile, analytics, machine learning, image recognition, IoT sensors and blockchain.

MORE THAN JUST IDEAS.
REAL, PERVASIVE INNOVATION.

One of 7,000+ Zero Distance projects, which focuses on a capability that is crucial for the retail industry. Grassroots innovation to gain consumer insights for new product launches and continuous product improvement. Sentiment analysis of consumers using social media enabled the mining of reactions, preferences and intent, which in turn helped the retailer design an effective product launch strategy.

MORE THAN GAME STATISTICS.
INSIGHTS WHICH CAN CHANGE THE GAME.

Three decades of match data and 12 million data points analyzed by the Infosys Information Platform (IIP) for the ATP World Tour, which hosts 62 tournaments in 31 countries. Transforming the experience of the game for players and followers by re-imagining player performance, ratings and insights like never before.

MORE THAN SAVING LIVES.
LAYING A FOUNDATION FOR GLOBAL HEALTH AND WELL-BEING.

We developed a comprehensive 3-D human heart model using CT-scan imaging. The model captures biomechanics of the heart in the most realistic manner. Combined with modern industrial technologies such as Computer Aided Design (CAD), Finite Element Analysis (FEA), and Computational Fluid Dynamics (CFD), this model enables surgeons to develop complex and customized treatments. It also helps medical equipment manufacturers and regulatory agencies to optimize design, enhance quality, and shorten time-to-market for their products, leading to improved and affordable healthcare for all.

MORE THAN DIGITAL MODELING.
CAPTURING THE ENTIRE DIGITAL FOOTPRINT.

Infosys partnered with GE Digital to deliver Industrial IoT solutions with advanced implementations in manufacturing, aviation, transportation and healthcare industries. These IoT solutions, based on GE's Predix platform and Infosys' Aikidō services, will help enterprises simplify, automate and transform their business. Re-creating the entire lifecycle of products digitally, from conceptualization to development and maintenance, helps to visualize the underlying design, structural and functional issues.

MORE THAN GOOD RESEARCH.
RESEARCH THAT RESULTS IN COMMON GOOD.

Across continents, in partnership with the world's top universities, global consortia, and most influential researchers, Infosys nurtures a robust research and innovation ecosystem to address emerging challenges on the frontiers of data science, artificial intelligence, robotics, software engineering, and ICT, for socio-economic development.

MORE THAN JUST US.
LEVERAGING THE POWER OF A THRIVING ECOSYSTEM.

We are funding early-stage start-ups to amplify their reach, bring them to market, and help them scale. This year, we have invested in six start-ups, working in areas such as air quality monitoring, wearable technology, data wrangling, and 3-D imaging. The Infosys Innovation Fund has a corpus of US $500 million to boost the global innovation ecosystem.

MORE THAN DOING THE RIGHT THING.
MAXIMIZING THE BUSINESS VALUE.

#Sitwithme campaign, launched on International Women's Day, March 8, 2016, to foster a more balanced, diverse leadership at Infosys. From Bangalore to Palo Alto, London to Lodz, Melbourne to Belo Horizonte, Infosys leaders, including independent board members, have taken the pledge across 15 locations worldwide to work towards a balanced leadership.

MORE THAN CONSERVATION OF RESOURCES.
RESPECTING THE MIRACLE OF LIFE ON EARTH.

With a total capacity of 6.6 MW, generating 12 million kWh of electricity every year, and avoiding 9,800 tons of CO2 emissions, the new solar plant at our Hyderabad campus helps us meet 100% of our electricity needs with renewable energy. This takes us a step closer to our goal of becoming carbon-neutral.

MORE THAN PASSIVE CONSUMERS.
CREATING A WORLD FULL OF CREATORS.

New York-based OHorizons was one of the winners of the Infy Maker Awards (sponsored by Infosys Foundation USA). 5,000 people in underdeveloped villages in Bangladesh will get clean water in 2016, and 1,000,000 by 2021, thanks to the innovative, low-budget wood mold bio-sand filters designed by OHorizons. The group is currently running pilot projects in Mali, Ecuador and Bangladesh.

LETTER TO THE STAKEHOLDER

Dear Stakeholder,

We live in extraordinary times. Technology is reshaping our world in a fundamental way: new CPUs from Intel built on 14 nanometer processor technology deliver unprecedented performance and analysts recently reported that hardware unit sales for cloud are approaching those for enterprise. Technology companies are making cars and watches, and creating new kinds of transportation, hospitality, retail, insurance, and other services, disrupting entire industries. And recently, a fleet of driverless trucks made by various vendors, drove thousands of miles across Europe, demonstrating vividly that the end of a key job category is upon us. The world of our future looks vastly different from what we see today – an increasingly digital world, a deeply connected world, a collaborative world.

It was clear nearly two years ago, and today it is starkly clear, that given this digital transformation of our world, the traditional services industry of the past, in which we compete to do the same work cheaper but with world-class quality, must also transform. A services company must be more, and we, Infosys, as individuals and as a company, must be more. We must instead become a company that delivers value and innovation. Our context has fundamentally, and irreversibly, changed, and we cannot go back to the approaches and methods of the past. The imperatives, and the opportunities, are clear.

It is with this new reality in mind that we embraced three simple ideas in our strategy: renew ourselves and help our clients renew their businesses; drive innovation and new opportunities in our business and with our clients; and do all of this based on a culture of education and collaboration. Indeed, when we think about it, this blueprint applies to all businesses.

Renew is about being better. Better than we have been. Automation is a key part of this. It is how we improve solutions to the known, well-defined problems and improve the businesses we are already in. It is about driving grassroots innovation in every project and in every service. The repetitive tasks can be automated by bringing Artificial Intelligence to our existing services and existing customer landscapes, so that we fundamentally transform cost and productivity. And we set a lofty benchmark for this: if we have done something once, we should not do it again. It can be automated.

New is about being different. This is the breakthrough innovation. It is about finding problems that we don't easily have words to describe, that no one has defined. It is the unknown problems. It is about leveraging automation to digitize our physical world, and using Design Thinking to focus on the empathy, the problem-finding, which uncovers new markets, for us and for our clients.

And our Culture is all about education. It is staying true to who we are. It is the idea of 'being improving', where we constantly build upon what we already know. Education is how we drive our strategy – it helps us learn new techniques to automate the things we understand, and it gives us the mindset to discover the things that we do not yet know. It is how we work. It is not the innovation lab that drives all the big ideas, it is to enable and empower every Infosys to be an innovator. This bedrock of our culture, this learnability – as Mr. Murthy always said, to me, and to all of us – an ability to learn, is as true and critical for our future as it has ever been.

On AI specifically, people often ask me if all this automation, this AI, will lead to human obsolescence, and the elimination of jobs. It is my emphatic view, having studied AI at the feet of some of its great pioneers, that this is not the case. AI, like all great technologies and tools that have come before it, can and should amplify people – enabling us to focus on the creative work, the imaginative work. The driverless trucks that I mentioned did things we humans simply cannot do, e.g. 'platooning'; we don't have the mechanical precision or the reflexes for it; we do, however, have the imagination and the knowledge to build the software and systems for driverless trucks, and to govern their safe operation. Technology can and must be the great amplifier of our human potential, our humanity. It is why we focus on education and learning; it is why we participate in OpenAI and other initiatives to develop and advance AI openly, to help bring its benefits to all of us.

It has been more than one year since we outlined this Renew and New strategy for consistent and profitable growth of the company. I am happy to share with you the progress we have made so far on the execution of our strategy.

In the financial year 2016, our revenues grew in rupee terms by 17.1% to ₹62,441 crore. In dollar terms, our revenues grew during the year by 9.1% to US$9,501 million and in constant currency terms, revenues grew by 13.3%. For the financial year 2016, our operating profit margin was 25.0% and net profit margin was 21.6%. During the year, earnings per share grew by 9.4% in rupee terms and 1.9% in dollar terms. Our operating cash flows were healthy during the year and we ended the year with liquid assets of US$5,202 million (₹34,468 crore).

We focused on effective strategy execution during the year, and I am happy to report that several indicators of strategy execution have improved. For example, our large deal wins have improved significantly during the year, demonstrating, I believe, that the renewal of our existing core services, together with all the new things we can bring, are helping us to differentiate on value, not cost. The total contract value of large deals won during the year increased by 45% to US$2.8 billion this year. Similarly, due to our focused client engagement and value creation, the revenue from top clients improved during the year. Top 10 clients grew by 12.3% in constant currency and top 25 clients grew by 9.3% in constant currency for the year. The measures that we deployed to deepen employee engagement have begun to show results, with attrition coming down to 13.6% this year from 18.9% last year.

Our efforts towards increase in per capita revenue improvement through productivity improvement and automation are in early stages. During the year, we released nearly 4,000 full-time employees from projects as a result of automation of underlying services. We will continue to focus on this crucial front. We have several additional levers to further enhance operational efficiency, such as utilization, onsite effort mix, onsite employee cost and sub-contractor expenses, which we plan to optimize.

Behind these numbers is the work of several transformational initiatives that Pravin and I started over the last 21 months. We set out to renew and bring entirely new ideas to everything – from our processes, to training and curriculum, to marketing, to onboarding, to large deals, to the bench, to our ecosystem, and more. And the results we see are many of these initiatives beginning to take hold and flourish.

We see this in the renewal of ourselves internally, to drive innovation and create value. I am most proud of initiatives such as Zero Distance, in which the teams working in more than 7,000 master projects at Infosys have found and continue to find incremental innovation – looking beyond the SOW, to add value. With this initiative, under the passionate leadership of Ravi, our delivery teams learn and live being innovators rather than order-takers. Our work on this is not done, and in the coming year, I look forward to taking our grassroots innovation to new levels. From BPO to Product Engineering, from Business Intelligence to Digital, from Application Development and Maintenance to Cloud Infrastructure Services, we have embarked on a great renewal of all of our services with automation and pervasive grassroots innovation, founded on a culture of collaboration and openness.

We have trained over 80,000 employees in Design Thinking, in what is surely the largest ever corporate training program for Design Thinking. It is about building creative confidence, as David Kelley describes it, in every Infoscion. About learning to ask questions, to challenge the status quo, to look inside the work we are doing and find new problems to solve. Going forward, we will bring Design Thinking to every facet of our work; it will help us deploy our bandwidth that automation helps us save towards innovation and value-creation for clients and for us; and it will help us engage our clients in their most strategic areas – areas we have rarely worked in.

We introduced Zero Bench in July 2015, an initiative to eradicate the bench – a construct of our industry that, 21 months later, I still cannot accept – from our company and our industry, creating a marketplace inside Infosys so that people awaiting longer-term assignments continue to add value to Infosys and our clients. In just nine months, by the end of the financial year 2016, more than 12,000 jobs had been created on our Zero Bench marketplace, and more than 67% of folks on the bench had completed at least one of these!

We improved employee engagement, creating a new performance management system in which managers provide continuous feedback and an ongoing dialog about performance. We are improving our processes, slowly but surely to ease the way employees work. We ourselves are one of the first users of Infosys Mana, to automate and simplify our mission-critical travel process. And we are investing in employees, not just in training, skills development and the overall employee experience, but investing to drive retention and attract the best leaders through the new stock incentive plan for employees. We are also investing in the Virtual Global Delivery Model, and in our workspaces, to help further our teams' ability to collaborate and to deliver value to clients across boundaries.

In all of these things, I want to point out our efforts in developing a culture of collaboration, with Zero Distance as a great example of many, such as the tremendous work of our finance team under the leadership of my colleague and friend Ranga – the leader of a world-class finance organization which is both improving our processes and our collaboration, while upholding the utmost standards of governance and compliance set by our founders. Collaboration makes us exponentially more powerful and faster. Competition, on the other hand, a very human tendency of ours, is best when aimed at competing with our past selves, the way we used to be, rather than looking backwards towards others. I believe this leverage of collaboration and competition can best help us create the company we aspire to be, even while competitors increasingly emulate us.

I believe these internal efforts to renew and bring innovation have led to the steep decline in attrition compared to where we were two years ago. While our work to build an extraordinary workplace for Infoscions as innovators is far from done, these are good signs. When I walk around our beautiful campuses, and feel the energy of many reinvigorated Infoscions, when I listen to the passion in the voice, and the glint in the eyes of a 31-year-old project manager beaming with a Zero Distance idea, more than any of the numbers, I feel reassured that we are on the right path.

Turning to what and how we deliver to our clients – we took big steps in the financial year 2016 by bringing a combination of automation and innovation, powered by education, to clients, and are now building on this work.

We launched our Aikidō service offerings, renewing our existing service lines and introducing new types of services. In Aikidō, we are helping our clients capture the knowledge and know-how and renew their organizations (Ki); leverage open, intelligent platforms to drive new opportunities through new kinds of applications (Ai); and bring design-led services that help clients find their most important problems to solve with Design Thinking (Dō).

And now bringing these services together with our Infosys Mana platform, our purposeful approach to AI, we can help our clients reinvent the continual reinvention of their system landscapes. We can lower the cost of maintenance for both physical and digital systems; capture the know-how of people and fragmented and complex systems across generations; simplify the continuous renovation of core business processes; and enable businesses to bring new and delightful experiences to their customers and end-users.

We refocused consulting to be the tip of our spear, and as part of this charter, I am pleased to see Design Thinking as a key fabric of our work, making its way into each and every client engagement.

We brought the Infosys Information Platform (IIP) to clients in a big way, and created entirely new opportunities resulting in discussions or implementations for more than 200 clients using our open, intelligent cloud-based analytics platform, to define breakthrough solutions from their diverse data sources. Both IIP and IAP are now a part of the broader Mana platform. Our EdgeVerve subsidiary continues to lead our all-important software front.

Panaya, Skava and EdgeVerve continued to add value for our clients and for us. Our philosophy of organic first, then external hiring, then investments, and then mergers and acquisitions is, I believe, the right balance for Infosys. Under Ritika's leadership, we made several investments, and three acquisitions. On investments, we will continue to carefully deploy our capital on innovative companies that are inventing the future. On acquisitions, we will continue to consider companies that help us advance our cause, and where there is a matching of purpose and passion; we will not buy revenue or 'market share' in markets of yesterday.

And as importantly as the work we do with clients and internally, we continued to have a deep focus on contributing to the world around us, in our communities, in the proud and yet humble work we do through our foundations. Our Infosys Foundation, led by the exemplary Mrs. Murty, continued to set new standards in bringing help to those in need across a wide spectrum of needs and regions in India. The Infosys Science Foundation, a purposeful support of the advances in basic sciences that our founders have so passionately believed in and led, has continued its great work. And our young Infosys Foundation USA, which under Vandana's leadership emerged, in the words of the White House Office of Science and Technology Policy's senior advisor, is already becoming a force, reaching out to as many people as possible in the all-important frontiers of bringing computer science education and making to all. And on a larger scale, our amazing facilities team led by the incomparable Ramadas Kamath broke new grounds and new frontiers in sustainability and innovation – including moving our Hyderabad campus completely off the grid, a solar powered campus serving 15,000+ Infoscons!

And yet, as we look ahead, we can clearly see that we are barely at the start of where we need to go. Like any large-scale transformation, metamorphosis – as our Chairman Sesh, who took over this year from my mentor and the quintessential leader-entrepreneur Mr. Kamath, calls it – will take time. We have started to implement the changes that will drive our transformation. But it cannot be the valiant efforts of a few warriors within Infosys. The world as we knew it has been transformed. Add to this the extreme cost pressure on our clients due to the disruptions they face, including entirely new types of competitors, and in turn, the pricing pressure this brings to the services industry. We must massively scale our innovation and drive our strategy in every aspect in our company. All of you, our stakeholders, some of whom have been with us for many years, are an integral part of our journey, in empowering our people and our company to be more.

If we can execute our strategy, and do the things we must learn to do, the year, and the years, ahead of us could be deeply rewarding, and I look forward to a great journey ahead, together.

SO WE MAY BE MORE

These times of being digital that we live in are also times when all things around us are becoming services. As a services company, we are particularly well-suited to thrive by creating amazing experiences. And it only stands to reason that we use this advantage to improve the way we serve, not just our clients, but also ourselves – by enhancing our experience at work.

About a year ago, we started on a journey of renewal to simplify our key processes, systems and policies. We wanted the employee experience at Infosys to be not only empowering but truly delightful. We approached this transformation guided by the tenets of Design Thinking, which teaches us that any service has three underlying components: desirability – how well it addresses the most pressing needs of end-users; feasibility – how well the service is orchestrated; and finally, viability – the economic benefits of delivering the service. A highly motivated team of our employee volunteers, governed by a central project management office, took up the task of driving this service metamorphosis.

The annual employee satisfaction survey pointed out where the biggest opportunities for change lay. Needless process complexity, lack of end-to-end process ownership, undue delays in cross-functional processes, poor application user interface, manual interventions that could easily be automated, were the challenges at hand. The team catalyzed more than 200 changes in over 15 processes – including those related to travel, claims and reimbursement, and project management. The Bell Curve-inspired Comparative Relative Ranking (CRR) was eased out of the performance evaluation process. The company dress-code was made more employee-friendly too.

Not surprisingly, these improvements reflected in surging satisfaction scores in employee surveys and a drop in our attrition numbers from 18.9% to 13.6% through the past year.

The journey of getting better at being better did not stop there. Not satisfied with merely improving the existing environment, we set out to simultaneously re-imagine the policy and process landscape and create fundamental simplification at Infosys. Code-named Process++, a program was launched in late 2015 to rethink our systems and achieve radical optimization and efficiencies, reduction in cycle time, increased data flow and improved user experience by leveraging smart technology and next-generation analytics, while remaining uncompromising on governance and compliance. Global Mobility, Order to Remittance, Procure to Pay, and Claims Management were some of the enterprise processes targeted for deep simplification.

In early 2016, we launched Optiwise, a grounds-up movement to involve employees in bringing positive change within Infosys. Optiwise invites employees to share ideas to (a) save cost and / or effort, (b) reduce waste, and (c) increase productivity. Over 2,000 ideas have come in from all over the globe, and over 250 have been identified for implementation on priority.

This journey embodies the spirit of our strategy of continuous renewal to remain relevant through changing times. But renewal by itself is not enough, we must also do completely new things so that we may thrive in disruptive times. We are becoming better at solving fundamental problems and, in doing so, we are creating more exciting, and richer, experiences for our own people, and for our clients.

BEING MORE. MAKING IT REAL.

Mohit Joshi
President and Global Head – Financial Services

Adding the Infosys touch to shape the future

This is my 16th year in Infosys and it has been extraordinary! We have worked on a spectrum of initiatives to sharpen and strengthen our traditional service lines while curating brand new ones. We have onboarded top talent and done all this while being focused on execution and innovation for our clients.

The role of technology in the financial services industry has never been more important, and the threat of disruption by new entrants has never been more real. Our clients are focused on digital transformation, on greater efficiency through industrialization, and on meeting the regulatory and compliance agenda. We have historically built a superb execution engine and tied it to deep domain and consulting capabilities in the sector. In the past 18 months, we have built and acquired tremendous capabilities in automation and artificial intelligence with Mana, in data management with IIP, and we now offer comprehensive digital platforms through EdgeVerve and Skava. We have worked with the fintech community to build a deep ecosystem to lead the innovation agenda for our clients and have helped our clients imagine the future with Design Thinking. All these together offer our clients an opportunity to shape the future of the financial services industry through technology.

Throughout the history of this company, our leaders have spoken about purpose – it is the glue that binds all our stakeholders and connects us to the broader community. It has given the company a sense of self and a touchstone when vital decisions have to be made. Our strategy of Renew and New, with a strong underpinning of an empowering culture, has revitalized this purposefulness. This is reflected in an enormous upsurge in client and employee engagement and enthusiasm. I have no doubt that it has also helped us deliver better financial performance.

More innovations from More for More

Our vision is to be able to deliver the most extraordinary and path-breaking software projects of our times as we help our clients formulate and execute against a strategy for the digital age. Whether it is capturing the know-how of retiring talent into a knowledge-based AI system to maintain what we engineer through generations of making, or creating digital twins of physical things and environments so we might improve them, we want to be able to create a new future. A future that puts an end to a past of more of the same, manual, increasingly cheaper and temporarily more cost-efficient services. A future where businesses can leverage machine-generated insights, a knowledge-enabled enterprise to straight-through and touchless processing of everything they do in an agile, automated, seamlessly connected landscape designed to amplify human potential.

Ravi Kumar S.
President and Chief Delivery Officer

At Infosys, we've been innovating from the grassroots up, to create a future such as this. For us, innovation is a quest for a client problem that is unknown or unarticulated. It is also about finding surprisingly smart ways to solve a known problem. We employ a simple framework – Zero Distance – to first spot and then resolve these problems. The framework encourages our people to look and learn from others. To find opportunities to improve efficiencies or create new value. To articulate the value of these ideas in clear business terms. And, most importantly, to then share the knowledge with others. Because it is only through collaboration that we will achieve our aspirations while also nurturing a culture of lifelong learning. It is the only way forward – with us looking around to understand the best thinking, applying that knowledge to improve our work, and everyone around helping us do this. Only then might we do more, be more, and reap its rewards, in the year ahead and beyond.

More relevance, more respect

“Productivity, Top-line Growth and Reinvention are my priorities,” quipped the CEO of a large CPG client of Infosys, talking about his agenda for the year as he went on to explain his key challenges.

Productivity: I told this client CEO that our newly launched knowledge-based AI platform, ‘Mana’, brings machine learning together with the deep knowledge of an organization to drive automation and innovation – in other words, this places us in a perfect position to reinvent systems and process landscapes and bring extreme productivity to their enterprise.

Top-line Growth: The Infosys Information Platform, I informed him, had the power to generate deep insights – for example, the capability to predict ‘out of stocks’ at select retail stores every Thursday where he wouldn’t ordinarily replenish the inventory until Monday, empowering him to act quickly on the insights.

Business Model Reinvention: ‘Skava’ is a terrific platform for its ability to create differentiated immersive digital experiences online, on mobile, with virtual reality and in-store, driving completely new business models for this client.

N. R. Narayana Murthy once said, “Strategy is differentiation”. Infosys has in recent times found new offerings organically and inorganically to differentiate itself by addressing all the strategic objectives of our client CXOs. Most importantly, Infosys is willing to partner with this client on the business outcomes.

I have been with Infosys now for over 15 years. We have always prided ourselves on differentiation and earning respect from all stakeholders – respect for our strategy and recommendations, respect for our values, and respect for the relevance of our offerings. This is the Infosys I am proud of. An Infosys that is powered by intellect, and driven by values.

A TRIBUTE TO K. V. KAMATH

In June last year, we had a change of guard in the Board leadership. We bid farewell to K. V. Kamath, a long-standing member of the Infosys Board, who had steered the company through key leadership transitions. Mr. Kamath stepped down as Chairman of the Board on June 5, 2015, to be succeeded by R. Seshasayee, a highly regarded personality in the Indian industry.

K. V. Kamath's innovative ideas, right from technology adoption and universal banking to ATM services, have revolutionized the banking industry in India. He was appointed Chairman of Infosys Limited in 2011. As Chairman, Mr. Kamath was instrumental in sharpening the governance processes at a time when the company was embarking on a new strategic direction. In 2013, he played a key role in bringing back N. R. Narayana Murthy to steer Infosys through a period of leadership transition and stabilization.

During his tenure at Infosys, Mr. Kamath had been a member of several committees, including the audit committee and the corporate social responsibility committee. As a key member of the nomination and remuneration committee, he ensured that the leadership transition at Infosys was seamless. Beyond his formal responsibilities, Mr. Kamath has been extraordinarily helpful in mentoring several leaders – including our CEO, Dr. Vishal Sikka.

As a member of various industry bodies including the National Council of the Confederation of Indian Industry, Mr. Kamath's accomplishments have earned him several awards. In 2008, he received the Padma Bhushan for his contribution to the growth of the banking sector.

After an illustrious career, Mr. Kamath has embarked on a new journey as the President of the New Development Bank, promoted by BRICS nations. On behalf of our employees and shareholders, we wish him success and thank him for his invaluable contributions to Infosys.

These translate to the following strategic focus areas:

Build expansive, lasting relationships with our clients by delivering differentiated market offerings: Our strategy is to engage with clients on their large transformative programs, both in traditional IT areas as well as for their new digital business initiatives. We expand existing client relationships by providing them with a broad set of end-to-end service offerings and increase the size, nature and number of projects we do with them. Our specific industry, domain, process, and technology expertise allows us to enable clients to transform their businesses with innovative strategies and solutions. Through our transformation service offering, which we call 'Aikidō', we help our clients address key aspects of their business. Our 'Ai' offering, a result of our investments in building intellectual property, helps clients leverage software-based platforms to dramatically boost productivity and to deliver next-generation experiences to their customers. Our 'Ki' offering captures the know-how of existing client technology landscapes, which we then leverage for process improvements and transformation. With our 'Dō' offering, which incorporates Design Thinking concepts, we help clients identify and prioritize their most significant problems and solve them in rapid, iterative and innovative ways. We offer an end-to-end suite of high-quality, highly-responsive and innovation-led services spanning business consulting, IT services, software platform-based services and business process management. This enables us to partner with our clients on large, multi-year engagements.

Through our Zero Distance program, we help our clients innovate and derive more value from their projects. Zero Distance is the process of everyday innovation at Infosys whereby all employees are expected to innovate in their individual capacities and through their individual jobs. Zero Distance has a three-fold emphasis: to reduce the gap between us and the code we write, the gap between us and our clients, and the gap between us and the ultimate end-user.

We also plan to acquire new clients and increase our presence in new geographies and market segments by investing in targeted business development and marketing. We will position our brand as differentiated, global and respected.

Deliver solutions and services leveraging highly cost-effective models: Our strategy is to leverage software-based automation and our Global Delivery Model to deliver solutions and services to our clients in the most cost-effective manner, while at the same time optimizing our cost structure to remain competitive. We are embracing artificial intelligence-based automation techniques and software automation platforms to boost productivity of our projects. We are leveraging software process engineering and collaboration technologies to improve process productivity.

Our Global Delivery Model provides scale, quality, expertise, cost and time-to-market advantages to our client projects. The model enables us to work at the location where the best talent is available and where it makes the best economic sense with the least amount of acceptable risk. Over the last 30 years, we have developed our distributed execution capabilities to deliver high-quality and scalable services. This scalable infrastructure complements our ability to deliver project components that are executed round the clock and across time zones, enabling us to reduce project delivery times.

Enhance our operational processes for agility and optimal cost: We periodically assess the effectiveness of our organization structure and processes to optimize it for alignment with our strategic objectives and agility. We continually evaluate critical cross-functional processes and benchmark them with best-in-class practices to optimize costs and enable swift and effective response to our clients. We constantly monitor and optimize various operational parameters such as the cost and utilization of resources, distribution of employees around the world, cost of operating our campuses and whether we are optimally realizing the efficiencies of scale.

Last year, we launched our Zero Bench program. This program allows us to effectively deploy our un-utilized resources into internal projects. Zero Bench enables employees to fulfill their professional aspirations while at the same time helping us to improve our employee engagement and our operational efficiency.

Attract and retain a global, diverse, motivated and high-performing employee base: Our employees are our biggest assets. To meet the evolving needs of our clients, our priority is to attract and engage the best talent in the right locations with the right skills. We offer our employees challenging work assignments, benchmarked compensation and a collaborative, productive work environment. Our performance management system is objective and rewards performance. We invest substantially in employee engagement to motivate employees and encourage social communication and collaboration.

Teaching and learning are central to the Infosys culture. Our investments in our Global Education Center and in creating various learning opportunities for our employees help them stay abreast of new developments in software technologies, spur innovation and build a lifelong career at Infosys.

We are guided by our value system which motivates our attitudes and actions. Our core values are Client value, Leadership by example, Integrity and transparency, Fairness and Excellence (C-LIFE).

Pursue strategic alliances and acquisitions: We leverage alliances that complement our core competencies. We partner with leading technology software and hardware providers in creating, deploying, integrating and operating business solutions for our clients. We have also expanded the scope of our collaborations to encompass universities and research organizations.

We will deploy our capital in making selective business acquisitions that augment our expertise, complement our presence in certain market segments and accelerate the execution of our strategies.

We have an innovation fund with an outlay of US$500 million to tap into innovation networks of early-stage companies and universities to gain access to new thinking and business models.

Branding

The Infosys brand is a key intangible asset of the Company. It positions Infosys as the next-generation services company that would help enterprises renew themselves while also creating new avenues to generate value. Brand Infosys is being built around the premise that software, in a very fundamental way, is reshaping the world around us. And because of this, there is a duality that every business faces – on the one hand, the need to renew existing systems, to improve their effectiveness with new technologies and innovation, and on the other hand, the need to deliver completely new kinds of services and new solutions in new ways using next-generation technologies. Infosys helps its clients achieve this dual agenda in a culture of learning and innovation at the grassroots level. The way Infosys connects with its clients, builds out great ideas and creates value from innovations is called Zero Distance – describing its approach to operating at the intersection of desirability, feasibility and viability.

Our marketing reach extends globally through advertisements, public relations and digital marketing initiatives. We participate in premier business and industry events around the world. We also organize signature events and roundtables across geographies. 'Confluence', our flagship client event, is consistently well-attended and rated highly by our clients and industry partners.

3. Human resources management

We have set up a scalable recruitment and human resources management process. Over the last year, on a standalone basis, we received 11,15,745 applications from prospective employees. The Infosys Group added 17,857 (net) and 52,545 (gross) employees this year, taking the total strength to 1,94,044 from 1,76,187 at the end of the previous year.

On a standalone basis, the attrition rate for fiscal 2016 stands at 13.6%, compared to 18.9% for the previous year.

Human resources management at Infosys goes beyond the set boundaries of compensation, performance reviews and development. We look at the employee's entire lifecycle, to ensure timely interventions that help build a long-lasting and fruitful career. With this in mind, we initiated several positive changes in our HR practice this year.

A large part of our focus in fiscal 2015 was on listening to employee feedback to make the right changes. Zero Distance, a movement to bring innovation to every project at Infosys, facilitated by a five-point framework of innovation was an example of employee engagement built through ground-up involvement in organizational growth and strategy. Through the year, we gathered feedback from employees across all our communication channels and platforms, including our annual employee engagement survey (LITMUS 2016). From LITMUS, we identified a number of tracks to be actionized, and invited employees to be a part of these. We also worked on an exercise to identify influencer groups within the organization, whose networks could be leveraged to spread ideas of innovation and collaboration. To ensure that employees are able to be their productive best, we worked on simplifying internal processes through a collaborative effort with various teams. Rewards and recognition in terms of the annual awards for excellence, quarterly promotions, and unit awards continued.

As part of the focus on human resources development during fiscal 2016, we introduced iCount, the renewed performance management system. We moved away from the bell curve, to focus on individual employee contribution and continuous feedback, and built a self-serviced platform to empower employees to design their own journey within the organization.

To foster a positive workplace environment, free from harassment of any nature, we have institutionalized the Anti-Sexual Harassment Initiative (ASHI) framework, through which we address complaints of sexual harassment at the workplace. Our global policy assures discretion and guarantees non-retaliation to complainants. We follow a gender-neutral approach in handling complaints of sexual harassment and we are compliant with the law of the land wherever we operate. We have also constituted an Internal Complaints Committee (ICC) in all locations across India to consider and address sexual harassment complaints in accordance with the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013.

The details of issues raised and resolved regarding sexual harassment of women at the workplace are available in the Enhancing employee value section in the Business Responsibility Report which forms part of this Annual Report.

Talent fulfillment

We continue to improve our talent supply chain processes to maintain a consistent high utilization throughout the year and effectively support our higher growth.

In fiscal 2016, we launched an innovative program named 'Zero Bench' to productively engage employees who are on bench (between client engagements) to create valuable outcomes for the organization. Our employees can now leverage our training infrastructure to upgrade their skills during their bench period and also work on short, internal projects of their choice, to gain exposure, hone their skills, extend networks, while delivering value.

To foster a culture of innovation and rapid problem-solving using technology, we launched the second season of the Infosys Global Hackathon. During this fiscal, we also launched Compass, a digital platform to mobilize opportunities in careers, learning and networks within the organization.

Education, training and assessment

Learning and education are at the foundation of Infosys. Competency development continues to be a key area of strategic focus for us. During fiscal 2016, the total training provided for Infosys was over 2.12 million person days. Many of our employees also took external certifications, creating a large pool of certified people.

To enhance the innovation quotient among the workforce, we conducted the Design Thinking program, which trains individuals in an empathetic, customer-centric mode of problem-finding and problem-solving. The total number of participants benefiting from the Design Thinking training crossed 80,000 as of March 31, 2016. The Design Thinking training has been imparted to client teams, leadership teams, Infosys and fresh recruits.

Our industry-academia partnership program, Campus Connect, made progress through the launch of electives to help engineering colleges run new programs within their curricula. During fiscal 2016, we engaged with 1,225 faculty members who in turn trained 40,996 students. With this, the total number of beneficiaries covered has reached 13,111 faculty members and 3,71,639 students from 317 engineering institutions.

Our knowledge management system set a new record by winning the Global Most Admired Knowledge Enterprise (MAKE) award for the 11th time, Asian MAKE award for the 13th time and Indian MAKE award for the 11th time.

Infosys Leadership Institute

The vision of the Infosys Leadership Institute (ILI) is to be recognized as a globally respected institution that is committed to developing leaders within Infosys. The primary purpose of the institute is to develop and prepare senior leaders of the organization for current and future executive leadership roles. ILI employs a wide range of developmental approaches including classroom training, coaching, 'leaders teach' and experience-sharing sessions. Senior leaders from across Infosys and its subsidiaries are the beneficiaries of ILI's programs.

Employees' stock options / Restricted stock units

2015 Stock Incentive Compensation Plan

The shareholders approved the issuance of stock incentives to the employees of the Company and its subsidiaries under the 2015 Stock Incentive Compensation Plan ('the 2015 Plan') in the recently concluded postal ballot on March 31, 2016. The 2015 plan is in compliance with the SEBI (Share Based Employee Benefits) Regulations, 2014 and the details are also available on our website (<https://www.infosys.com/investors/corporate-governance>). The purpose of the 2015 Plan is to:

- Attract, retain and motivate talented and critical employees;
- Encourage employees to align individual performance with Company objectives; and
- Reward employee performance with ownership.

The 2015 Plan provides for stock incentives to eligible employees such as Restricted Stock Units (RSU) and stock options (together 'Stock Incentives'). Subject to applicable law and conditions for exercise, eligible employees are entitled to receive equity shares, American Depositary Receipts (ADRs) or cash on exercise of the Stock Incentives. The Stock Incentives vest over a period of four years from the date of the grant, or such other period as decided in the sole discretion by the Administrator. The 2015 Plan shall be administered by the nomination and remuneration committee of the Board constituted by the Company pursuant to the provisions of Section 178 of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Administrator'). The Administrator's decisions, determinations, and interpretations will be final and binding on all eligible employees and participants under the 2015 Plan. Each Stock Incentive shall be evidenced by an award agreement that will specify such terms and conditions as the Administrator will determine, including whether the eligible employees will get equity shares of the Company, ADRs of the Company or cash on exercise of the Stock Incentives.

The Board had, in October 2015, recommended that the Company create a pool of up to 2% of the shares outstanding towards the 2015 Plan for employees of the Company. The Management has recommended to the Board that a budget of 1% of the shares outstanding be allocated at this time to the needs of the Plan, amounting to approximately 2,40,38,883 equity shares. This 1% pool includes 1,12,23,576 treasury shares of the Company that are currently held in trust towards the 2011 RSU Plan. Consequently, an additional 1,28,15,307 equity shares, amounting to 0.56% of the shares outstanding, will be required to be set aside for the 2015 Plan. We expect the pool of 2,40,38,883 shares to be granted over a period of four to seven years.

To calculate the employee compensation cost, the Company uses the Fair Value Method for the valuation of the Stock Incentives granted.

The exercise price for the restricted stock units will be equal to the par value of the shares and the exercise price of stock options would be market price as on the date of the grant.

The total number of equity shares and ADRs to be allotted pursuant to the exercise of the Stock Incentives under the 2015 Plan to the employees of the Company and its subsidiaries shall not cumulatively exceed 2,40,38,883 equity shares (approximately 1% of the issued capital) of which 1,70,38,883 shares will be issued as RSUs at par value (including shares currently held under the RSU 2011 Plan amounting to 1,12,23,576 equity shares) and 70,00,000 will be issued as stock options at market price. The mix of RSUs, options or other equity rights under the Plan may be adjusted in the sole determination of the Administrator from time to time.

In June 2015, the Company, based on the recommendation of the nomination and remuneration committee, made a grant of 1,24,061 RSUs to Dr. Vishal Sikka. The grant price was ₹5 per RSU and the RSUs would vest subject to the achievement of certain key performance indicators as set forth in the award agreement for each applicable year of the vesting tranche and continued employment through each vesting date. Further, the award granted to Dr. Vishal Sikka on June 22, 2015 was modified by the nomination and remuneration committee on April 14, 2016. There is no modification or change in the total number of RSUs granted or the vesting period (which is four years). The modifications relate to the criteria of vesting for each of the years. Based on the modification, the first tranche of the RSUs will vest subject to achievement of certain key performance indicators for the year ended March 31, 2016.

During fiscal 2016, Dr. Vishal Sikka exercised 10,824 options and held 2,21,505 options outstanding as on March 31, 2016.

The details of the employee stock options / RSU plan form part of the Notes to accounts of the financial statements in this Annual Report.

6. Corporate social responsibility

Infosys has been an early adopter of corporate social responsibility (CSR) initiatives. The Company works primarily through its CSR trust, the Infosys Foundation, towards supporting projects in eradication of hunger and malnutrition, promoting education, art and culture, healthcare, destitute care and rehabilitation, environmental sustainability, disaster relief and rural development projects.

As per the Companies Act, 2013, all companies having a net worth of ₹500 crore or more, or a turnover of ₹1,000 crore or more or a net profit of ₹5 crore or more during any financial year are required to constitute a CSR committee of the Board of Directors comprising three or more directors, at least one of whom should be an independent director. All such companies are required to spend at least 2% of the average net profits of their three immediately preceding financial years on CSR-related activities. Accordingly, the Company was required to spend ₹256 crore towards CSR activities, out of which ₹202 crore was utilized on activities specified in Schedule VII of the Companies Act, 2013. A few of the projects undertaken are multi-year projects. In addition, as part of its ongoing CSR programs, the Company has spent ₹10 crore on Chennai flood relief and rehabilitation activities and ₹76 crore on multiple CSR initiatives – including environmental sustainability and conservation of natural resources aimed at long-term sustainability of the ecosystem – which were not covered under Schedule VII of the Companies Act, 2013. Infosys Foundation

Established in 1996 as a not-for-profit trust for social welfare activities, the Infosys Foundation has grown as a pioneer and guide in implementing programs in the areas of healthcare, education, hunger eradication, rural development, disaster relief, arts and culture, and destitute care across India.

The highlights of the Foundation's work in fiscal 2016 included setting up of a center for artificial intelligence at the Indraprastha Institute of Information Technology, Delhi, help in rebuilding communities in calamity-hit Visakhapatnam and flood-affected Chennai, aid in building toilets in schools in Odisha, conservation of the endangered Olive Ridley turtles and partnership with Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan in 11 states to promote underprivileged artists. The Foundation also supported the construction of water facility and enclosures for animals at the Bannerghatta National Park in Bangalore, and efforts to conserve India's vast medical heritage.

The Foundation has also been relentlessly continuing its pursuits to improve healthcare and education in rural India. For more details on the Foundation's activities, refer to the website, <https://www.infosys.com/infosys-foundation>.

It is with deep gratitude that we acknowledge the efforts of our employee volunteers. We also thank the trustees of the Foundation, who continue to devote their time and effort in planning, guiding and monitoring its activities.

Infosys Foundation USA

Infosys Foundation USA took on a leadership role in supporting and expanding access to Computer Science (CS) and Maker education across the U.S., especially in under-represented and underserved communities. In fiscal 2016, as part of its mission to prepare students for an increasingly digital future, Infosys Foundation USA engaged and invested in CS and Maker-related programs in the following key areas:

- CS professional development: A shortage of trained teachers continues to be the most critical bottleneck for expanding CS in schools. By providing foundational support for organizations like Code.org and initiatives like CS PD Week, Infosys Foundation USA supported CS professional development (teacher training) opportunities for several thousand teachers nationwide, especially in high-poverty regions.
- CS teacher support: Access to tools and infrastructure is another area where resources are required for teachers who seek to bring CS to their classrooms. Infosys Foundation USA supported teachers directly through organizations like DonorsChoose.org and Tynker by sponsoring CS classroom projects and education software.
- CS diversity: Infosys Foundation USA believes free bootcamps, hackathons and after-school programs provide a much-needed on-ramp and early exposure to coding.
- Making: With the Infy Maker awards and through partnerships with CREATE Lab at the Carnegie Mellon University, Infosys Foundation USA sought to give students the opportunity to develop the creative confidence to be Makers.
- Research and curriculum development: Working with Stanford University and other leading research organizations, Infosys Foundation USA supported the larger CS education community in key areas.

We thank our employee volunteers for their interest and dedication. We also thank our trustees, who continue to guide and inspire us.

The ISF expanded Gnanadeepa, a program to train educators on how to impart science and math concepts so students will grasp them better. Apart from training teachers from government schools, the program now trains B.Ed and D.Ed teachers as well. The Foundation also hosts contests, school events and media debates to promote a healthy discussion around science and research in the country. Annexure 7 – Annual report on CSR activities

[Pursuant to Section 135 of the Companies Act, 2013]

Sustainable practices have always been an integral part of our larger business strategy. Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) is a large part of our overall sustainability policy, encompassing social, economic and environmental actions. While philanthropy is one aspect of it, we also lend our support to building institutions, and supporting the preservation of our depleting natural resources by finding new technology that can offer safeguards against the global risks of climate change.

Infosys Foundation ('the Foundation'), our primary corporate social responsibility trust, was established in 1996 with a vision to boosting our initiatives. This was long before the Companies Act, 2013 mandated that a company should function through a registered trust or society for any CSR activities to be undertaken by it. The Foundation publishes a report of its yearly activities. The report, and more details on the Foundation's work, are available on <http://www.infosys.com/infosys-foundation>.

CSR committee

The corporate social responsibility committee ('the CSR committee') of the Board is responsible for overseeing the execution of the Company's CSR policy, and ensuring that the CSR objectives of the Company are met. The CSR committee comprises two independent directors and the CEO and MD. The members of the CSR committee are:

- R. Seshasayee, Chairperson
- Kiran Mazumdar-Shaw
- Dr. Vishal Sikka

Our objectives

Our broad objectives as stated in our CSR policy include:

- Making a positive impact on society through economic development and reduction of our resource footprint.
- Taking responsibility for the actions of the Company while also encouraging a positive impact through supporting causes concerning the environment, communities and our stakeholders.

For more details on our CSR policy, visit <http://www.infosys.com/investors/corporate-governance/Documents/corporate-social-responsibility-policy.pdf>.

Focus areas

The Foundation's activities are focused on the following areas:

- Healthcare: Since 1996, the Foundation has funded an array of healthcare projects that have benefitted people in rural as well as urban areas across India. Support provided by the Foundation has helped hospitals and healthcare NGOs procure medicines, medical equipment and vehicles; construct rest houses and specialized treatment blocks; and organize screening camps and health camps, among other things.
- Eradication of hunger and promotion of education: Over the years, grants from the Foundation have helped institutions provide midday meals and scholarships to students, train teachers, develop infrastructure such as libraries, hostels and laboratories and institute chairs in an effort to make learning and research viable and competitive.
- Art and culture: With an eye to promoting indigenous art and preserving the rich cultural heritage of India, the Foundation, in collaboration with partner organizations, has supported artists – writers, poets, painters, musicians, dancers and theatre artists – by providing funds and opportunities to showcase their art in India and abroad.
- Destitute care: The Foundation partners with non-governmental organizations (NGOs) to reach out to destitute children and women by providing vocational training so that they are empowered to earn a livelihood.
- Rural development, rehabilitation and disaster relief: Focusing on projects that are aimed at community development, the Foundation works with local administrations across the country in areas such as sanitation, vocational training and entrepreneurship. It also funds infrastructural development projects apart from supporting the rehabilitation of victims of natural and national calamities.
- Environmental sustainability: Securing sustainable development and environmental protection through usage of renewable sources of energy, water conservation, waste management and protection of flora and fauna.

Annexure 8 – Conservation of energy, research and development, technology absorption, foreign exchange earnings and outgo

Particulars pursuant to the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014

Conservation of resources

Doing more with less – Infosys believes in conservation of energy and resources to help create a better tomorrow. With our smart building automation, highly-efficient building designs, deep green retrofits and renewable energy, we are well on the path to achieving carbon neutrality. Our Central Command Centre in Bangalore now manages about 45 million sq. ft. of built-up area. The Mysore campus is a shining example of sustainable development through resource conservation and is a model smart city. Use of innovative water-efficient technologies, 100% recycling and reuse of wastewater, and setting up of recharge wells and lakes for groundwater recharge have helped us achieve significant water savings. Persistent efforts in managing our waste effectively and scientifically is getting us close to our goal of minimizing waste-to-landfills.

Renewable energy

In fiscal 2016, we installed solar power plants of 9.7 MW in different campuses in India, taking our total installed capacity to about 12 MW of solar power. One of our greatest achievements this year has been the addition of enough solar power generating capacity in our Hyderabad SEZ campus to make it 100% captive RE.

Green buildings

This fiscal, we were awarded the LEED India Platinum rating for two of our buildings in Pune and Bangalore, and Green Rating for Integrated Habitat Assessment (GRIHA) for our building in Hyderabad. We now have 14 LEED Platinum-rated buildings and four buildings with GRIHA five-star rating.

Retrofits

The deep green retrofits in air-conditioning and UPS systems have helped us achieve 16 MW and 12 MW reductions, respectively in connected load in the last five years. In fiscal 2016 alone, air-conditioning retrofits have led to about 2.5 MW reduction in connected load.

Carbon neutrality

Following our commitment to become carbon neutral, we have started three carbon offset projects – a household biogas project and two biomass cook stove projects – which will together generate nearly 30% of our carbon offset requirement in 2017-18.

Water management

All our new buildings are designed with the most optimal standard of fresh water requirement, that is, 16 liters per capita per day, which is nearly 65% lower than the standard prescribed in the National Building Code. Our extensive smart water metering program has helped us plug leakages and save significant quantities of water. With persistent efforts to conserve rainwater, we have 149 recharge wells and 25 lakes recharging groundwater across campuses.

Waste management

We have strived to ensure reuse, recycling and responsible disposal of waste. This year, we installed biogas plants with a cumulative capacity of nearly 5.5 tons per day (TPD) in different campuses to convert food waste into biogas. The biogas generated is used in our food court kitchens. This will help us save about 300 kg of cooking gas (LPG) per day.

Biodiversity

We make every effort to conserve and promote biodiversity at all our owned facilities. We planted over 80,000 saplings this year. The total number of saplings planted in our campuses in the last eight years is now over 5,00,000.

For more information on environment conservation efforts, refer to 'Environment' section in the Business Responsibility Report.

Health, safety and environment

Environmental sustainability is a business imperative at Infosys. We are committed to providing a safe and healthy workplace to our employees, consultants and contractors and achieving high standards of environmental protection. Recognizing climate change as a major risk to our planet, we have integrated climate change actions into the Company strategy.

Our Health, Safety and Environmental Management System (HSEMS), called Ozone, helps to provide a secure environment for our employees, assets and operations. The initiative also strives to keep employees, contractors and others well-informed, trained and committed to our HSE process. For more information, refer to 'Employee well-being' in the Business Responsibility Report.

Technology absorption

Transforming digital business engine of Infosys IT

The Infosys digital business engine comprises over 250 closely integrated applications centrally hosted in multiple data centers with more than 2,000 physical and virtual servers, over four petabytes of storage, over 125 million files, and heterogeneous technology platforms.

As part of our Renew and New strategy, we are transforming our digital business engine by deploying the following initiatives:

Next-generation flash storage: We deployed next-generation flash storage with inline compression capability in production database clusters resulting in TCO reduction by enabling 4x capacity within existing rack space and over 75% savings on power and cooling requirements per TB of storage volume.

Global Active Device (GAD): We deployed Hitachi GAD in the production database cluster. This has helped us reduce provisioning and configuration complexity of the cluster, and enhanced our data center-level disaster recovery solution.

Work from home: As per the earlier policy, only Infosysians who had an office laptop with a Secure ID or a Digipass reader could work from home. In circumstances like natural calamities, catastrophes like the Chennai floods or during political unrest / strikes, those Infosysians who had no way of connecting to their office desktops were forced to take leave.

Our mission was to enable 'Work from home for all'. Conventional solutions like VDI required significant investments and complex change management across 1,00,000+ end points. We designed an innovative, secure and intuitive solution with a one-time investment of just US$3 per user that enables 68,000+ Infosysians who only have official desktop to remotely connect from home through their personal devices. We published virtual application (MSTSC or Remote Desktop Connection) through our existing Citrix XenApp farm. Also, conventional RSA and Smart Card solutions were becoming costlier and cumbersome. After evaluating various OTP-based solutions, we found Azure Multi Factor Authentication (MFA) as the most viable one.

IT-run book automation: The growing demands of business and the ever-increasing number of applications resulted in rapid growth of the back-end infrastructure. Significant effort was needed to manage security patches and passwords for over 2,000 service accounts and to monitor applications. For effective management of these processes, the IT team set out on a 'one-click' mission. We designed comprehensive workflows that automate end-to-end human process. Traditionally, provisioning infra was also manual and each VM typically required up to two days. With the deployment of VMware vRealize Automation, VM provisioning has become automated, thereby reducing provisioning time to less than 30 minutes and admin effort by 90%.

Efficient power management: The entire infrastructure was earlier kept online 24x7 to ensure service availability but most of it was found to be underutilized during non-business hours. To reduce the cost of power, we have built and deployed an automated power management tool which will continuously monitor the workload on each Virtual Machine (VM) and shut down based on threshold. This has yielded power savings of around 25% per VM.

Integrated weblog analytics: Our requirement was to analyze millions of lines of weblogs across our web server farms to supply application owners with usage analytics and trends based on hits, browser analysis, proactive error correction, and potential attacks and exception hit trends. There were prohibitively costly tools like WebTrends available in this space but were still not meeting all our requirements.

We developed Weblog Analytics solution enabling Near Real Time that now overcomes the historical limitations of weeks required for on-demand processing weblogs, limitations of data retention online, deep dive and drill through analytics and reporting for large data volumes. Weblogs are now parsed every five minutes on the web servers, processed and made available on the dashboard within 15 minutes. Today, 52 core web servers generate 3+ TB weblog text files (2 GB / server), 200+ million hits and 2+ billion records per month. We have been able to retain 2.5 years of historical data online in PDW that has 28 billion+ records, sizing about 3.4 TB (highly compressed) which on SMP SQL server would have been nearly 136 TB.

IT infrastructure

Energy-efficient IT infrastructure

We have adopted a multi-pronged strategy to make our IT infrastructure more energy-efficient. Some of the measures implemented are:

Desktop power management: Terminator, our end-point power management tool, shuts down computers after a specified idle period.

Paperless office drive: Several measures were taken, including secure PIN-based printing, awareness campaigns, mailers and linking paper consumption data to the user's carbon footprint record.

Desktop application virtualization: Leveraging bubble computing or soft-grid computing, our Computers and Communication Division built a solution that ensured better operational efficiencies, platform independence and productivity improvement.

Virtualization and consolidation: We have further expanded our internal private cloud capacity with MyCloud, which now has a capacity of around 11,000 virtual machines. We have continued to expand our network-attached storage (NAS)-based virtualization this year.

Data centers and server rooms: We have standardized and incorporated eco-friendly designs for data center and server rooms to ensure reduction in power consumption. We have created two state-of-the-art data centers at Pune and Bangalore that run on high efficiency (around 1.2-1.3 PUE) using latest technologies like rack-level cooling. We have redesigned two of our existing data centers at Pune and Hyderabad from legacy architecture to an energy-efficient design by adopting hot and cold aisles and caging for rows of racks.

Unified communications solution

The deployment of Lync communication has made it possible to make calls (including video calls) directly from the system, share files / applications, thus cutting down travel requirements of our employees and thereby reducing CO2 emissions. We have doubled and enhanced our video conferencing (VC) capacity, resulting in a 70% increase in our VC usage.

Research and development expenditure

The R&D centers of the Company, located at Bangalore, Bhubaneswar, Chandigarh, Chennai, Pune, Hyderabad, Mysore and Thiruvananthapuram, have been accorded approval for weighted deduction by the Department of Scientific and Industrial Research (DSIR) effective November 23, 2011, which has been renewed effective April 2014. The Company has claimed weighted tax deduction on eligible research and development till July 31, 2015 based on approval from DSIR. With effect from August 1, 2015, the business of Finacle, including the R&D activities, is transferred to its wholly-owned subsidiary, EdgeVerve Systems Limited. Hence, from that date, EdgeVerve Systems Limited has claimed the weighted tax deduction on eligible research and development expenditures u/s 35(2AB) of the Income-tax Act 1961. The weighted tax deduction is equal to 200% of such expenditure incurred.

The eligible R&D revenue and capital expenditure on a standalone basis are ₹54 crore and Nil respectively for the year ended March 31, 2016 and ₹160 crore and Nil respectively for the year ended 31, 2015. On a standalone basis, the total R&D expenditure, including eligible R&D expenditure for fiscal years 2016 and 2015 is as follows:

I. Industry structure and developments

Software and computing technology are transforming businesses in every industry around the world in a very profound and fundamental way. The continued reduction in the unit cost of hardware, the explosion of network bandwidth, advanced software technologies and technology-enabled services are fuelling the rapid digitization of business processes and information. Traditional business models are being disrupted in every industry with digital and software-based business models. This disruption is characterized by highly desirable user experiences, an extreme scale-of-cost performance that has become available in computing infrastructure and disintermediation of the supply chain. Leveraging technologies and models of the digital era to both extend the value of existing investments and, in parallel, transform and future-proof their businesses is increasingly becoming a top priority for business leaders. This duality – to renew existing core businesses and innovate new businesses – is the essence of what companies are faced with as strategic imperatives today.

From an IT perspective, the renewal translates to harnessing the efficiency of distributed cloud computing, enabling legacy systems for mobile and sensor access, extracting value out of digitized data, keeping systems relevant and optimizing the costs of building and running technology systems. And as businesses look to new areas and new economics, new and intelligent systems are required to be built with next-generation technologies and with exponentially superior cost-benefit performance.

The rapid pace at which technology is changing and the need for highly-skilled professionals in both the renewed and new technology areas are driving businesses to rely on third parties to realize their IT transformation. Several technology solution and service providers have emerged over the years, offering different models for clients to consume their solution and service offerings:

- Technology consulting companies – who take on niche and time bound projects for their clients
- Global IT outsourcing companies – who leverage global talent pools to systematically optimize the IT operations of clients
- Business process outsourcing firms – who leverage global talent pools to manage the outsourced core business processes of their clients
- Software firms – who provide licensed software that enable the automation of business processes
- Specialty platform and Software-As-A-Service companies – who provide utility-based models for clients to consume software features
- Data analytics companies – who specialize in designing, analyzing and reporting insights from the vast amount of data that corporations are collecting about their customers, operations and markets
- Internal IT departments of the companies themselves – usually cost centers for the corporations

There is an increasing need for highly-skilled technology professionals in the markets in which we operate and in the industries to which we provide services. At the same time, companies are reluctant to expand their internal IT departments and increase costs. These factors have increased the reliance of companies on their outsourcing service providers and are expected to continue to drive future growth for outsourcing services. We believe that because the effective use of offshore technology services offers lower total costs of ownership of IT infrastructure, lower labor costs, improved quality and innovation and faster delivery of technology solutions, companies are increasingly turning to offshore technology service providers. The key factors contributing to the growth of IT and IT-enabled services in India include high-quality delivery, significant cost benefits and the availability of a large and growing skilled and English-speaking IT professionals. Our proven Global Delivery Model, our comprehensive end-to-end solutions, our commitment to superior quality and process execution, our long-standing client relationships, and our ability to scale and to service clients across industries make us one of the leading offshore service providers in India.

Global Delivery Model

Our Global Delivery Model is based on a scalable infrastructure that results in multiple efficiencies for our clients. We divide projects into components that we execute simultaneously at client sites and at our Development Centers in India and around the world. We optimize our cost structure by maintaining the flexibility to execute project components where it is most cost effective. We are then able to execute project components round the clock and across time zones, to reduce project delivery times.

revenue is recognized as the related services that are rendered. Revenue from the sale of user licenses for software applications is recognized on transfer of the title in the user license, except in multiple-arrangement contracts, which require significant implementation services, where revenue is recognized as per the percentage-of-completion method.

Our revenues are segmented into onsite and offshore revenues. Onsite revenues are for those services which are performed at our client locations or at our development centers outside India, as part of software projects, while offshore revenues are for services which are performed at our software development centers in India.

The segmentation of revenues by location, including product revenue is as follows:

| | in % | | | |
|----------|------------|-------|--------------|-------|
| | Standalone | | Consolidated | |
| | 2016 | 2015 | 2016 | 2015 |
| Onsite | 52.7 | 50.4 | 53.2 | 51.2 |
| Offshore | 47.3 | 49.6 | 46.8 | 48.8 |
| Total | 100.0 | 100.0 | 100.0 | 100.0 |

The proportion of work performed at our facilities and at client sites varies from period to period. The services performed onsite typically generate higher revenues per capita, but at lower gross margins in percentage as compared to the services performed at our own facilities in India. Therefore, any increase in the onsite effort impacts our margins. The details of the billable hours expended for onsite and offshore are as follows:

| | in % | | | |
|----------|------------|-------|--------------|-------|
| | Standalone | | Consolidated | |
| | 2016 | 2015 | 2016 | 2015 |

On a standalone basis, software development expenses were 59.8% of revenues, compared to 58.8% during the previous year. On a consolidated basis, software development expenses were 60.2% of revenues, compared to 59.7% during the previous year. The increase in software development expenses from fiscal 2015 to fiscal 2016 was primarily due to increase in cost of efforts (comprising employee cost and cost of technical sub-contractors). The cost of efforts has increased as a percentage of revenue from 53.5% in fiscal 2015 to 54.4% in fiscal 2016. The increase in cost of efforts is due to an increased engagement of technical sub-contractors to meet certain skill requirements in complex projects which has been partially offset by a decrease in employee cost as a percentage of revenue. Employee costs relate to salaries paid to employees in India and overseas and include staff welfare expenses. The increase in salaries and bonus is primarily due to increased compensation in the last 12 months, promotions and an increase in the number of employees, partially offset by the role-mix changes and currency impact. The utilization rates of billable IT service professionals for the years ended March 31, 2016 and March 31, 2015 are as follows:

in %

| | Standalone | | Consolidated | |

| Including trainees | 75.0 | 74.5 | 75.0 | 74.6 |
| Excluding trainees | 80.8 | 81.0 | 80.6 | 80.9 |

On a standalone basis, the cost of technical sub-contractors includes ₹1,761 crore towards the purchase of services from subsidiaries for the year ended March 31, 2016, as against ₹1,385 crore in the previous year. The details of such related party transactions are available in the Notes to the Standalone financial statements section of the Annual Report. We continue to engage the services of these consultants on a need basis.

On a standalone basis, the overseas travel expenses representing the cost of travel overseas for software development constituted approximately 2.2% and 2.1%, respectively, of total revenue for the years ended March 31, 2016 and March 31, 2015. Overseas travel expenses include visa charges of ₹392 crore (0.7% of revenues) for the year, compared to ₹310 crore (0.7% of revenues) in the previous year. On a standalone basis, the communication expenses represent approximately 0.2% and 0.3% of revenues for each of the years ended March 31, 2016 and March 31, 2015, respectively. On a consolidated basis, the communication expenses represent approximately 0.3% and 0.4% of revenues for the years ended March 31, 2016 and March 31, 2015, respectively.

On a standalone basis, the rent represents approximately 0.2% of revenues for each of the years ended March 31, 2016 and March 31, 2015. On a consolidated basis, the rent represents approximately 0.4% of revenues for each of the years ended March 31, 2016 and March 31, 2015.

Selling and marketing expenses

On a standalone basis, we incurred selling and marketing expenses at 5.0% of our total revenues in the year ended March 31, 2016 compared to 5.4% of our total revenues in the year ended March 31, 2015. All other expenses, excluding employee costs, were 1.1% of revenues during the year, as compared to 1.0% in the previous year. The employee benefit costs as a percentage of revenue has not changed significantly in fiscal 2016 as compared to fiscal 2015.

On a consolidated basis, we incurred selling and marketing expenses at 5.5% of our total revenues, in both the current year and previous year. All other expenses, excluding employee costs, were 1.3% of revenues during the year, as compared to 1.1% in the previous year.

On a standalone basis, the number of sales and marketing personnel increased from 1,690 as at March 31, 2015 to 1,832 as at March 31, 2016. On a consolidated basis, the number of sales and marketing personnel increased from 1,841 as at March 31, 2015 to 2,147 as at March 31, 2016.

On a consolidated basis, our general and administration expenses amounted to 6.9% of our total revenues each in the current and previous years. All other expenses, excluding employee costs, were 4.7% of revenues during the year, as compared to 4.9% in the previous year.

The increase in administrative expenses for fiscal 2016 from fiscal 2015 was primarily due to the increase in consultancy and professional charges and in repairs and maintenance, partially offset by a decrease in provision for doubtful accounts receivable. The increase in consultancy and professional charges was due to additional costs arising out of acquisitions, increased recruitment and training initiatives and increase in other professional fees. The increase in repairs and maintenance cost was primarily on account of higher cost incurred on maintenance of physical and technology infrastructure. The decrease in provision for bad and doubtful trade receivables was primarily due to collection of receivables, which was earlier provided. The employee benefit costs as a percentage of revenue has not changed significantly in the current year as compared to the previous year.

3. Operating profits

On a standalone basis, we earned an operating profit (PBITDA) of ₹15,763 crore, representing 29.2% of total revenues, compared to ₹13,962 crore, representing 29.5% of total revenues, during the previous year.

The interest income for fiscal 2016 has declined as compared to fiscal 2015 primarily due to the softening interest rate environment in India.

The Company had also claimed tax benefit under the Software Technology Park (STP) scheme, for export profits earned by certain STP units up to the year ended March 31, 2011.

We have our operations both under the STP and SEZ schemes. The profits attributable to operations under the STP scheme were exempted from income tax for a consecutive period of 10 years from the financial year in which the unit started producing computer software, or March 31, 2011, whichever was earlier. However, the income tax incentives provided by the Government of India for STP units have expired, and the income from all of our STP units are now taxable. SEZ units, which began providing services on or after April 1, 2005 are eligible for a deduction of 100% of profits or gains derived from the export of services for the first five years from the financial year in which the unit has commenced the provision of services and 50% of such profits or gains for the five years thereafter subject to creation of a Special Economic Zone Re-investment Reserve out of the profit of the eligible SEZ units and utilization of such reserve by the Company for acquiring new plant and machinery for the purpose of its business as per the provisions of the Income-tax Act, 1961.

On a standalone basis, the effective tax rate (based on profit before exceptional item and tax) decreased to 27.8% in fiscal 2016, as compared to 28.3% in fiscal 2015. The decrease in the effective tax rate was mainly due to decrease in overseas taxes, increase in tax reversals partially offset by decrease in benefits from SEZ units as a percentage of profit before income taxes, increase in Indian statutory corporate tax rate and reduction in deductions on eligible research and development expense based on the approval received from the Department of Scientific and Industrial Research (DSIR) for Finacle®.

On a consolidated basis, the effective tax rate decreased to 27.9% in fiscal 2016, as compared to 28.4% in fiscal 2015, which was mainly due to a decrease in overseas taxes, increase in tax reversals partially offset by a decrease in benefits from SEZ units as a percentage of profit before income taxes and increase in Indian statutory corporate tax rate.

The reversal of the provision is primarily due to completion of audits in certain jurisdictions.

Enhance our operational processes for agility and optimal cost: We periodically assess the effectiveness of our organization structure and processes to optimize it for alignment with our strategic objectives and agility. We continually evaluate critical cross-functional processes and benchmark them with best-in-class practices to optimize costs and enable swift and effective response to our clients. We will deploy our capital in making selective business acquisitions that augment our expertise, complement our presence in certain market segments and accelerate the execution of our strategies.

We have an innovation fund with an outlay of US $500 million to tap into innovation networks of early-stage companies and universities to gain access to new thinking and business models.

Our competition

We experience intense competition in traditional services and see a rapidly-changing marketplace with new competitors arising in new technologies who are focused on agility, flexibility and innovation.

We typically compete with other technology services providers in response to requests for proposals. Clients often cite our industry expertise, comprehensive end-to-end solutions, ability to scale, superior quality and process execution, Global Delivery Model, experienced management team, talented professionals and track record as reasons for awarding us contracts.

In future, we expect intensified competition. In particular, we expect increased competition from firms that strengthen their offshore presence in India or other low-cost locations and firms that offer technology-based solutions to business problems and from firms incumbent in market segments that we have recently entered.

We believe that the principal competitive factors in our business are:

- the ability to keep pace with ever-changing technology and customer requirements;
- the ability to increase the scale and breadth of service offerings to provide one-stop solutions for customer needs;

- the ability to articulate and demonstrate long-term value to existing and potential customers;
- the ability to attract and retain high-quality management, technology professionals, and sales personnel;

V Outlook, risks and concerns

This section lists forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these statements as a result of certain factors. Our outlook, risks and concerns are as follows:

- Our revenues and expenses are difficult to predict and can vary significantly from period to period, which could cause our share price to decline.
- We may not be able to sustain our previous profit margins or levels of profitability.
- The economic environment, pricing pressures, and decreased employee utilization rates could negatively impact our revenues and operating results.
- Our revenues are highly dependent on clients primarily located in the United States and Europe, as well as on clients concentrated in certain industries. An economic slowdown or other factors that affect the economic health of the United States, Europe or those industries, or any other impact on the growth of such industries, may affect our business.
- Currency fluctuations and declining interest rates may affect the results of our operations.
- Our success depends largely upon our highly-skilled technology professionals and our ability to hire, attract, motivate, retain and train these personnel.
- Wage pressures in India and the hiring of employees outside India may prevent us from sustaining some of our competitive advantage and may reduce our profit margins.
- Any inability to manage our growth could disrupt our business, reduce our profitability and adversely impact our ability to implement our growth strategy.
- We may not be able to provide end-to-end business solutions for our clients, which could lead to clients discontinuing their work with us, which in turn could harm our business.
- Intense competition in the market for technology services could affect our pricing, which could reduce our share of business from clients and decrease our revenues.
- A large part of our revenues is dependent on our top clients and the loss of any one of our major clients could significantly impact our business.
- Our success depends in large part upon our management team and key personnel, and our ability to attract and retain them.
- Our failure to complete fixed-price and fixed-timeframe contracts, or transaction-based pricing contracts, within budget and on time, may negatively affect our profitability.
- Our client contracts can typically be terminated without cause and with little or no notice or penalty, which could negatively impact our revenues and profitability.
- Our engagements with customers are typically singular in nature and do not necessarily provide for subsequent engagements.
- Our client contracts are often conditioned upon our performance, which, if unsatisfactory, could result in lower revenues than previously anticipated.
- Some of our long-term client contracts contain benchmarking provisions which, if triggered, could result in lower future revenues and profitability under the contract.
- Our increasing work with governmental agencies may expose us to additional risks.
- Our business will suffer if we fail to anticipate and develop new services and enhance existing services in order to keep pace with rapid changes in technology and in the industries on which we focus.
- Disruptions in telecommunications, system failures, or virus attacks could negatively impact our operations and ability to provide our services and solutions, which could result in client dissatisfaction and a reduction in our revenues.
- We may be liable to our clients for damages caused by the disclosure of confidential information, system failures, errors or unsatisfactory performance of services.
- We may be the subject of litigation which, if adversely determined, could harm our business and operating results.
- Our insurance coverage may not be adequate to protect us against all potential losses to which we may be subject, and this may have a material adverse effect on our business.
- We are investing substantial cash assets in new facilities and physical infrastructure, and our profitability could be reduced if our business does not grow proportionately.
- We may be unable to recoup investment costs incurred in developing our software products and platforms.
- We may engage in acquisitions, strategic investments, strategic partnerships or alliances or other ventures that may or may not be successful.
- Goodwill that we carry on our Balance Sheet could give rise to significant impairment charges in the future.
- The markets in which we operate are subject to the risk of earthquakes, floods, tsunamis, storms and other natural and man-made disasters.
- Anti-outsourcing legislation in certain countries in which we operate, including the United States and the United Kingdom, may restrict companies in those countries from outsourcing work to us, or may limit our ability to send our employees to certain client sites.
- Restrictions on immigration may affect our ability to compete for and provide services to clients in the United States, Europe and other jurisdictions, which could hamper our growth or cause our revenues to decline.
- New and changing corporate governance and public disclosure requirements add uncertainty to our compliance policies and increase our costs of compliance.
- The intellectual property laws of India are limited and do not give sufficient protection to software and the related intellectual property rights to the same extent as those in the United States. We may be unsuccessful in protecting our intellectual property rights. We may also be subject to third-party claims of intellectual property infringement.
- Increased regulation in the industries in which our clients operate could harm our business, results of operations and financial condition.

- Our net income would decrease if the Government of India reduces or withdraws tax benefits and other incentives it provides to us or when our tax holidays expire, reduce or terminate.
- In the event that the Government of India or the government of another country changes its tax policies in a manner that is adverse to us, our tax expense may materially increase, reducing our profitability.
- We operate in jurisdictions that impose transfer-pricing and other tax-related regulations on us, and any failure to comply could materially and adversely affect our profitability.
- Terrorist attacks or a war could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.
- Changes in the policies of the Government of India or political instability may adversely affect economic conditions in India generally, which could impact our business and prospects.
- Our international expansion plans subject us to risks inherent in doing business internationally.
- Our ability to acquire companies organized outside India depends on the approval of the Reserve Bank of India and / or the Government of India, and failure to obtain this approval could negatively impact our business.
- Indian laws limit our ability to raise capital outside India and may limit the ability of others to acquire us, which could prevent us from operating our business or entering into a transaction that is in the best interests of our shareholders.
- Historically, our ADSs have traded at a significant premium to the trading prices of our underlying equity shares. Currently, they do not do so and they may not continue to do so in the future.
- Sales of our equity shares may adversely affect the prices of our equity shares and ADSs.
- The price of our ADSs and the U.S. dollar value of any dividends we declare may be negatively affected by fluctuations in the U.S. dollar to Indian rupee exchange rate.
- Negative media coverage and public scrutiny may adversely affect the prices of our equity shares and ADSs.
- Indian law imposes certain restrictions that limit a holder's ability to transfer the equity shares obtained upon conversion of ADSs and repatriate the proceeds of such transfer, which may cause our ADSs to trade at a premium or discount to the market price of our equity shares.
- An investor in our ADSs may not be able to exercise pre-emptive rights for additional shares, and may thereby suffer the dilution of such investor's equity interest in us.
- ADS holders may be restricted in their ability to exercise voting rights.
- It may be difficult for holders of our ADSs to enforce any judgment obtained in the United States against us or our affiliates.
- Holders of ADSs are subject to the Securities and Exchange Board of India's Takeover Code with respect to their acquisitions of ADSs or the underlying equity shares. This may impose requirements on such holders with respect to disclosure and offers to purchase additional ADSs or equity shares.
- If the Government of India modifies dividend distribution tax rates or introduces new forms of taxes on the distribution of profits, or changes the basis of application of these taxes, the same could materially affect the returns to our shareholders.

VI Internal control systems and their adequacy

The CEO and CFO certification provided in the CEO and CFO Certification section of the Annual Report discusses the adequacy of our internal control systems and procedures.

VII Material developments in human resources / industrial relations, including number of people employed

Our culture and reputation as a leader in consulting, technology, outsourcing and next-generation services enable us to attract and retain some of the best talent in India.

Human capital

Our professionals are our most important assets. We believe that the quality and level of service that our professionals deliver are among the highest in the global technology services industry. We are committed to remaining among the industry's leading employers.

As at March 31, 2016, the Group employed 1,94,044 employees, of which 1,82,329 were software professionals, including trainees. During fiscal 2016, we added 17,857 new hires, net of attrition. Our culture and reputation as a leader in the technology services industry enables us to recruit and retain some of the best available talent in India. The key elements that define our culture include recruitment, training and development, and compensation.

Recruitment

We have built our global talent pool by recruiting new students from premier universities, colleges and institutes in India, and through the need-based hiring of project leaders and middle managers. We recruit students who have consistently shown high levels of achievement from campuses in India. We, generally, also recruit students from campuses in the U.S., the U.K., Australia and China. We rely on a rigorous selection process involving aptitude tests and interviews to identify the best applicants. This selection process is continually assessed and refined based on the performance tracking of past recruits.

During fiscal 2016, we received 11,15,745 employment applications, interviewed 1,21,670 applicants and extended offers of employment to 55,056 applicants. These statistics do not include our subsidiaries.

Training and development

The competency development of our employees continues to be a key area of strategic focus for us. We launched new programs for our employees in keeping with the changes in the use of technology in education. We enhanced our technology-led training efforts in multiple areas. As part of our Foundation Program, an integrated learning platform has been developed that combines teaching, hands-on learning and assessments of in-class training to provide students an enhanced learning experience.

Our continuous education programs emphasize enhancing the relevance and effectiveness of learning. For instance, hands-on assessments have been strengthened and skill-based certifications have been included.

We have also made significant investments in hardware and software assets to boost our infrastructure capabilities. All these changes were incorporated to create a unique experience for learners at Infosys.

Compensation

Our technology professionals receive competitive salaries and benefits. We have a performance-linked compensation program that links compensation to individual performance as well as our Company's performance.

Corporate governance report

Our corporate governance philosophy

Good corporate governance is about maximizing shareholder value on a sustainable basis while ensuring fairness to all stakeholders: customers, vendor-partners, investors, employees, government and society.

– N. R. Narayana Murthy

We are committed to defining, following and practising the highest level of corporate governance across all our business functions. Our corporate governance is a reflection of our value system encompassing our culture, policies, and relationships with our stakeholders. Integrity and transparency are key to our corporate governance practices and performance and ensure that we retain and gain the trust of our stakeholders at all times.

Corporate governance framework

The driving principles of our corporate governance framework are encapsulated in the following diagram:

This framework ensures effective engagement with our stakeholders and helps us to be guided by our core values, and at the same time allows us to do more and be more for our stakeholders. Our corporate governance framework ensures that we make timely disclosures and share accurate information regarding our financials and performance, as well as disclosures related to the leadership and governance of Infosys ('the Company'). We believe that an active, well-informed and independent board is necessary to ensure the highest standards of corporate governance. At Infosys, the Board of Directors ('the Board') is at the core of our corporate governance practice. The Board thus oversees the Management's functions and protects the long-term interests of our stakeholders. As on March 31, 2016, the Board consists of nine members of which seven are independent directors. An independent director is nominated as the chairperson of each of the Board committees, namely audit, nomination and remuneration, stakeholder relationship, risk and strategy, finance and investment and corporate social responsibility committees.

Compliance with global guidelines and standards

We comply with a broad selection of key governance principles and regulations. For example, the Cadbury Report in the U.K. in 1992 was a significant event in modern corporate governance. The report recommended the arrangement of company boards and accounting systems to reduce corporate governance risks and failures. The enactment of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, 2002, resulted in the senior management individually certifying the accuracy of their company's financial information. The Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act sought to build a safer, more stable financial system to set the foundation for sound economic growth and job safety. The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) has notified SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (LODR) on September 2, 2015, replacing the earlier listing agreement

(w.e.f. December 1, 2015) and is aimed to consolidate and streamline the provisions of earlier listing agreements for different segments of the capital market viz. equity, debentures, debt instruments, etc. The LODR regulations have incorporated the principles for corporate governance in line with the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) principles and provide broad principles for periodic disclosures by listed entities in line with the International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO) principles.

As part of our commitment to follow global best practices, we substantially comply with the Euroshareholders Corporate Governance Guidelines 2000 and the recommendations of the Conference Board Commission on Public Trusts and Private Enterprises in the U.S. We also adhere to the United Nations Global Compact (UNGC) and the OECD principles.

Corporate governance guidelines

Over the years, the Board has developed corporate governance guidelines to help fulfill our corporate responsibility towards our stakeholders. These guidelines ensure that the Board will have the necessary authority and processes to review and evaluate our operations when required. Further, these guidelines allow the Board to make decisions that are independent of the Management. The Board may change these guidelines regularly to achieve our stated objectives.

A. Board composition

Size and composition of the Board

We believe that our Board needs to have an appropriate mix of executive and independent directors to maintain its independence, and separate its functions of governance and management. Listing regulations mandate that for a company with a non-executive chairman, at least one-third of the board should be independent directors. On March 31, 2016, our Board consists of nine members, two of whom are executive or whole-time directors, while the remaining seven are independent directors, constituting 78% of the Board's strength — more than the requirements of the Companies Act, 2013 and the SEBI Listing Regulations. Three out of nine Board members or 33% of the Board are women. Five of our Board members (56%) are Indians, while four (44%) are foreign nationals. The Board periodically evaluates the need for change in its composition and size.

The average tenure of members on our Board is approximately 3.2 years as of March 31, 2016. The average tenure of executive directors (whole-time directors) is two years and that of independent directors is 3.6 years. In February 2016, the Board, after evaluating, proposed the re-appointment of Prof. Jeffrey S. Lehman because his continued service was deemed necessary considering the Company's transition to new leadership. The Board felt that Prof. Lehman's tenure complements the tenures of the other Board members, and as a director who has seen the Company under the management of promoters and non-promoters, he bridges the gap between the past and current perspectives.

The average tenure of Board members as on March 31, 2016 was as follows:

Chairman of the Board

K. V. Kamath stepped down as Chairman and Independent Director of the Company effective June 5, 2015 consequent to his appointment as the President of the New Development Bank promoted by BRICS nations. R. Seshasayee, an independent director, took over as the Chairman of the Board effective June 5, 2015.

Responsibilities of the Chairman, the Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director

The Company has appointed a non-executive chairman of the Board ('the Chairman') – R. Seshasayee and a chief executive officer and managing director (the CEO and MD) – Dr. Vishal Sikka.

The responsibilities and authority of these officials are as follows:

The Chairman is the leader of the Board. As Chairman, he is responsible for fostering and promoting the integrity of the Board while nurturing a culture where the Board works harmoniously for the long-term benefit of the Company and all its stakeholders. The Chairman is primarily responsible for ensuring that the Board provides effective governance to the Company. In doing so, the Chairman presides over meetings of the Board and of the shareholders of the Company.

The Chairman takes a lead role in managing the Board and facilitating effective communication among directors. He is responsible for matters pertaining to governance, including the organization, composition and effectiveness of the Board and its committees, and the performance of individual directors in fulfilling their responsibilities. The Chairman provides independent leadership to the Board, identifies guidelines for the conduct and performance of directors, and oversees the management of the Board's administrative activities such as meetings, schedules, agendas, communication and documentation.

The Chairman actively works with the nomination and remuneration committee to plan the Board and Board committees' composition, induct directors to the Board, plan for director succession, participate in the Board effectiveness evaluation process and meet with individual directors to provide constructive feedback and advice.

The CEO and MD is responsible for corporate strategy, brand equity, planning, external contacts and all matters related to the management of the Company. He is also responsible for achieving annual and long-term business targets.

Role of the Board of Directors

The primary role of the Board is that of trusteeship to protect and enhance shareholder value through strategic direction to the Company. As trustees, the Board has fiduciary responsibility to ensure that the Company has clear goals aligned to shareholder value and its growth. The Board exercises its duties with care, skill and diligence and exercises independent judgment. The Board sets strategic goals and seeks accountability for their fulfillment. The Board also directs and exercises appropriate control to ensure that the Company is managed in a manner that fulfills stakeholders' aspirations and societal expectations.

Definition of independent directors

The Companies Act, 2013 and the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 defines an 'independent director' as a person who is not a promoter or employee or one of the key managerial personnel of the Company or its subsidiaries. The laws also state that the person should not have a material pecuniary relationship or transactions with the Company or its subsidiaries, apart from receiving remuneration as an independent director. We abide by these definitions of independent director in addition to the definitions of an independent director as laid down in the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) rules and U.S. securities laws by virtue of our listing on the NYSE in the U.S.

Board membership criteria

The nomination and remuneration committee works with the entire Board to determine the appropriate characteristics, skills and experience required for the Board as a whole and for individual members. Members are expected to possess the required qualifications, integrity, expertise and experience for the position. They should also possess deep expertise and insights in sectors / areas relevant to the Company, and ability to contribute to the Company's growth.

The age limit for a managing director / executive director is 60 years while the age limit for an independent director is 70 years. A director's term may be extended at the discretion of the committee beyond the age of 60 or 70 years with shareholder approval by passing a special resolution based on the explanatory statement annexed to the Notice for such motion indicating the justification for extension of appointment beyond 60 or 70 years as the case may be.

The Board members are expected to rigorously prepare for, attend and participate in all Board and applicable committee meetings. Each member is expected to ensure that their other current and planned future commitments do not materially interfere with their responsibilities with us.

Selection of new directors

The Board is responsible for the selection of new directors. The Board delegates the screening and selection process to the nomination and remuneration committee, which consists exclusively of independent directors. The nomination and remuneration committee makes recommendations to the Board on the induction of new directors.

The details of training programs attended by independent directors during fiscal 2016 are as follows:

Training of Board members

All new non-executive directors inducted to the Board are introduced to our Company culture through orientation sessions. Current executive directors and senior management provide an overview of our operations, and familiarize the new non-executive directors with them. They are also introduced to our organization structure, our services, group structure and subsidiaries, constitution, Board procedures, matters reserved for the Board, and our major risks and risk management strategy.

The Board's policy is to have separate meetings regularly with independent directors to update them on all business-related issues and new initiatives. At such meetings, the executive directors and other members of the senior management share points of view and leadership thoughts on relevant issues.

We also facilitate the continual educational requirements of our directors. Each director is entitled to a training fee of US $5,000 per year. Support is provided for independent directors if they choose to attend educational programs in the areas of Board / corporate governance.

Independent directors of the Board are familiarized through three kinds of engagements:

Deep dives and immersion sessions

Deep dives and immersion sessions are conducted by senior executives on their respective business units. The business unit can be an industry vertical or a service offering unit. Key aspects that are covered in these sessions include:

- Industry / market and technology trends
- Competition
- The Company's performance
- Strategic bets and their progress
- Future outlook

Strategy retreat

A strategy retreat is conducted for all the Board members every year and includes participation by senior business executives. This session helps Board members familiarize themselves with the strategy and business of the Company.

STRAP

Our annual strategy and planning event, STRAP, is usually a two-day event. Along with the Board members, almost all senior executives from business and support functions are invited to this event. At STRAP, a detailed view of the strategy is presented by all business and support units. The objective of STRAP is to communicate the strategy and make the organization aware about it.

These are the three specific mechanisms through which Board members are familiarized with the Company culture and operations. Apart from these, there could be additional meetings or sessions on demand on specific topics. All directors attend the familiarization programs as these are scheduled to coincide with the Board meeting calendar to give them an opportunity to attend.

Membership term

The Board constantly evaluates the contribution of the members and periodically shares updates with the shareholders about re-appointments consistent with applicable statutes. The current law in India mandates the retirement of two-third of the non-independent directors (who are liable to retire by rotation) every year, and qualifies the retiring members for re-appointment. Executive directors are appointed by the shareholders for a maximum period of five years, but are eligible for re-appointment upon completion of their term. An independent director shall hold office for a term of up to five consecutive years on the Board of the Company and will be eligible for re-appointment on the passing of a special resolution by the Company.

Board member evaluation

One of the key functions of the Board is to monitor and review the Board evaluation framework. The Board works with the nomination and remuneration committee to lay down the evaluation criteria for the performance of executive / non-executive / independent directors through a peer evaluation, excluding the director being evaluated through a Board effectiveness survey. The questionnaire of the survey is a key part of the process of reviewing the functioning and effectiveness of the Board and for identifying possible paths for improvement. Each Board member is requested to evaluate the effectiveness of the Board dynamics and relationships, information flow, decision-making of the directors, relationship with stakeholders, Company performance and strategy, and the effectiveness of the whole Board and its various committees. Feedback on each director is encouraged to be provided as part of the survey. The evaluation for fiscal 2016 has been completed.

Independent directors have three key roles – governance, control and guidance. Some of the performance indicators based on which the independent directors are evaluated include:

- The ability to contribute to and monitor our corporate governance practices

- The ability to contribute by introducing international best practices to address business challenges and risks
- Active participation in long-term strategic planning
- Commitment to the fulfillment of a director's obligations and fiduciary responsibilities; these include participation in Board and committee meetings.

Succession planning

The nomination and remuneration committee works with the Board on the leadership succession plan, and prepares contingency plans for succession in case of any exigencies.

Board compensation policy

The nomination and remuneration committee determines and recommends to the Board the compensation payable to directors. All Board-level compensation is approved by the shareholders and disclosed separately in the financial statements. Remuneration for the executive directors consists of a fixed component and a variable component. The committee makes a half-yearly appraisal of the performance of the executive directors based on a detailed performance matrix. The annual compensation of the executive directors is approved by the committee and placed before the shareholders at the shareholders' meeting / postal ballot.

The CEO and MD of the Company is entitled to an annual variable, which is subject to the achievement of certain fiscal milestones by the Company, as determined by the Board (in its sole discretion). The Board may reserve the authority to set such milestones on a GAAP or non-GAAP basis. The Chief Operating Officer of the Company is entitled to receive payables at such intervals as decided by the Board.

The compensation payable to the independent directors is limited to a fixed amount per year as determined and approved by the Board, the sum of which does not exceed 1% of our net profits for the year, calculated as per the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013. The performance of the independent directors is reviewed by the Board on an annual basis.

Dr. Vishal Sikka's executive employment agreement was replaced with a new executive employment agreement, through postal ballot approved by the shareholders on March 31, 2016. This agreement was effective April 1, 2016 and expires on March 31, 2021. The Board and its nomination and remuneration committee have approved the following compensation:

If Dr. Sikka's performance targets are exceeded, the performance-based payments for variable components of his compensation (variable pay and performance equity) will be capped at 150% of the target compensation for such variable components.

We have agreed with Dr. Sikka to provide each other with 90 days' notice of termination as applicable. Dr. Sikka may be entitled to severance benefits depending on the circumstances of his termination of employment.

During fiscal 2015, we entered into a restricted stock unit award agreement with Dr. Vishal Sikka, our CEO and MD. Pursuant to the Restricted Stock Unit Award Agreement, Dr. Sikka was granted 27,067 restricted stock units (the equivalent of 1,08,268 RSUs after adjustment for the bonus issues). The RSUs vest over a period of four years subject to Dr. Sikka's continued employment and upon achieving certain performance indicators set by the Board or the nomination and remuneration committee from time to time.

The Board in its meeting held on June 22, 2015, on recommendation of the nomination and remuneration committee, further granted 1,24,061 RSUs to Dr. Vishal Sikka. These RSUs are vesting over a period of four years from the date of the grant in the proportions specified in the award agreement. The RSUs will vest subject to the achievement of certain key performance indicators as set forth in the award agreement for each applicable year of the vesting tranche and continued employment through each vesting date.

The award granted to Dr. Vishal Sikka on June 22, 2015 was modified by the nomination and remuneration committee on April 14, 2016. There is no modification or change in the total number of RSUs granted or the vesting period (which is four years). The modifications relate to the criteria of vesting for each of the years. Based on the modification, the first tranche of the RSUs will vest subject to achievement of certain key performance indicators for the year ended March 31, 2016. None of our directors except Dr. Vishal Sikka is eligible for any severance pay.

Pravin Rao's employment agreement provides for a monthly salary, bonuses, and benefits including vacation, medical reimbursements and gratuity contributions. The agreement with him has a five-year term and either party may terminate the agreement with six months' notice or as mutually agreed between the parties. There are no benefits payable upon termination of this agreement.

We have also entered into agreements to indemnify our directors and officers for claims brought under U.S. laws to the fullest extent permitted by Indian law. These agreements, among other things, indemnify our directors and officers for certain expenses, judgments, fines and settlement amounts incurred by any such person in any action or proceeding, including any action by or in the right of Infosys Limited, arising out of such persons' services as our director or officer.

Non-executive / independent directors' remuneration

Shareholders at the 34th Annual General Meeting held on June 22, 2015 approved a sum not exceeding 1% per annum of the net profits of the Company calculated in accordance with the provisions of Section 198 of the Act, to be paid and distributed among some or all of the directors of the Company (other than the managing director and whole-time directors) in a manner decided by the Board of Directors and this payment will be made with respect to the profits of the Company for each year.

We have paid ₹8.39 crore to our Independent Directors for the year ended March 31, 2016.

The aggregate amount was arrived at using the following criteria:

| Particulars | in ₹ crore | in US $ |
|--|------------|----------|
| Fixed Board fee | 0.50 | 75,000 |
| Board attendance fee ⁽¹⁾ | 0.17 | 25,000 |

| Travel fee (per meeting) ⁽²⁾ | 0.07 | 10,000 |
| Incidental fees (per meeting) ⁽³⁾ | 0.01 | 1,000 |

Notes: 1 US $ = ₹66.26 as on March 31, 2016

⁽¹⁾ The Company normally has five regular Board meetings in a year. Independent directors are expected to attend the four quarterly Board meetings and the Annual General Meeting (AGM).

⁽²⁾ For directors based overseas, the travel fee shown is per Board meeting. This is based on the fact that additional travel time of two days will have to be accommodated for independent directors to attend Board meetings in India.

Memberships in other boards

An executive director may, with the prior consent of the chairman of the Board, serve on the board of two other business entities, provided that such business entities are not in direct competition with our operations. Independent directors are not expected to serve on the boards of competing companies. There are no other limitations except those imposed by law and good corporate governance practices.

B. Board meetings

Scheduling and selection of agenda items for Board meetings

The dates of Board meetings for the next fiscal are decided in advance and published in the Annual Report as part of Shareholder information. The non-executive chairman of the Board and the Company Secretary draft the agenda for each meeting, along with explanatory notes, in consultation with the CEO and MD, and distribute these in advance to the directors. Every Board member can suggest the inclusion of additional items in the agenda. The Board meets at least once a quarter to review the quarterly results and other items on the agenda, and also on the occasion of the AGM. Additional meetings are held when necessary. Independent directors are expected to attend at least four Board meetings in a year. However, with the Board being represented by independent directors from various parts of the world, it may not be possible for each one of them to be physically present at all the meetings. Hence, we use video / teleconferencing facilities to enable their participation. Committees of the Board usually meet the day before the formal Board meeting, or whenever the need arises for transacting business. Eight Board meetings were held during the year ended March 31, 2016. These were held on April 24, 2015, June 5, 2015, June 22, 2015, July 21, 2015, October 12, 2015, October 19, 2015, January 14, 2016 and February 24, 2016.

Audit committee report for the year ended March 31, 2016

Each member of the committee is an independent director, according to the definition laid down in the audit committee charter, Section 149 of the Companies Act, 2013 and Regulation 18 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, and NYSE requirements.

The Management is responsible for the Company's internal control over financial reporting and the financial reporting process. The independent auditors are responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's financial statements in accordance with the Generally Accepted Auditing Principles, and for issuing a report thereon. The committee's responsibility is to monitor these processes. The committee is also responsible for overseeing the processes related to financial reporting and information dissemination. This is to ensure that the financial statements are true, fair, sufficient and credible. In addition, the committee recommends to the Board the remuneration, appointment and terms of appointment of the Company's internal and independent auditors.

In this context, the committee discussed the overall scope and plans for the independent audit with the Company's auditors. The Management shared the Company's financial statements prepared in accordance with the Indian GAAP and International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board with the committee. The committee discussed with the auditors, in the absence of the Management (whenever necessary), regarding the Company's audited financial statements, including the auditors' judgment about the quality, not just the applicability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgment and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements.

The committee also discussed other matters required by the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 114, as amended (AICPA, Professional Standards, Volume 1. AU Section 380) – the auditors' communication with those charged with governance, and by the Sarbanes-Oxley Act 2002, with the auditors.

Relying on the review and discussions conducted with the Management and the independent auditors, the committee believes that the Company's financial statements are fairly presented in conformity with Indian GAAP and IFRS.

The committee has also reviewed the internal control over financial reporting put in place to ensure that the accounts of the Company are properly maintained and that the accounting transactions are in accordance with prevailing laws and regulations. In conducting such reviews, the committee found no material discrepancy or weakness in the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

The committee also reviewed the financial policies of the Company and expressed its satisfaction with the same.

The Company's auditors provided written disclosures and a letter for applicable requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board to the committee. This is regarding the auditors' communication with the committee concerning independence, based on which the committee discussed the auditors' independence with both the Management and the auditors. After the review, the committee expressed its satisfaction on the independence of both the internal and the independent auditors. The committee also considered whether any non-audit services provided by the independent audit firm could impair such auditors' independence, and concluded that there were no such services provided.

The committee has confirmed compliance of the Board to the NYSE and Euronext London and Euronext Paris exchange rules on composition of the committee and independence of the committee members, disclosures relating to non-independent members, financial literacy and financial expertise of members, and a review of the audit committee charter.

Based on the committee's discussion with the Management and the auditors, its review of the representations of the Management and the report of the auditors, the committee has recommended the following to the Board:

- The audited financial statements prepared in accordance with Indian GAAP of Infosys Limited for the year ended March 31, 2016 be accepted by the Board as a true and fair statement of the financial status of the Company.
- The audited consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with Indian GAAP of Infosys Limited and its subsidiaries for the year ended March 31, 2016, be accepted by the Board as a true and fair statement of the financial status of the Group.
- The audited consolidated financial statements prepared in Indian rupee in accordance with IFRS of Infosys Limited and its subsidiaries for the year ended March 31, 2016, be accepted by the Board as a true and fair statement of the financial status of the Group.
- The audited consolidated financial statements prepared in US dollar in accordance with IFRS of Infosys Limited and its subsidiaries for the year ended March 31, 2016, upon adoption by this committee, be accepted by the Board as a true and fair statement of the financial status of the Group and included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 20-F, to be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC).
- The ratification of the re-appointment of B S R & Co. LLP, Chartered Accountants, as the statutory auditors of the Company, to audit standalone (Indian GAAP) financial statements and consolidated (Indian GAAP and IFRS) financial statements to hold office from the conclusion of the ensuing AGM to the conclusion of the next AGM. The committee has also recommended to the Board the appointment of KPMG, India, as independent auditors of the Company for the IFRS (US$) financial statements, for the fiscal ending March 31, 2017.
- The appointment of Ernst & Young, as the internal auditors of the Company for the fiscal ending March 31, 2017, to review various operations of the Company, and determination and approval of the fee payable to them. The committee has also issued a letter in line with recommendation No. 9 of the Blue Ribbon Committee on audit committee effectiveness, which is to be provided in the financial statements prepared in accordance with IFRS in the Annual Report on Form 20-F.
- The appointment of Parameshwar G. Hegde of Hegde & Hegde, Company Secretaries, as secretarial auditor for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2017 to conduct the secretarial audit as prescribed under Section 204 and other applicable sections of the Companies Act, 2013.

The Company has established a mechanism for directors and employees to report concerns about unethical behavior, actual or suspected fraud, or violation of our Code of Conduct and Ethics.

It also provides for adequate safeguards against the victimization of employees who avail of the mechanism, and allows direct access to the chairperson of the audit committee in exceptional cases. We further affirm that no director or employee has been denied access to the audit committee during fiscal 2016. The Whistleblower Policy is available on our website (<http://www.infosys.com/investors/corporate-governance/Pages/policies.aspx>).

In conclusion, the committee is sufficiently satisfied that it has complied with its responsibilities as outlined in the audit committee charter. The charter is available on our website (<https://www.infosys.com/investors/corporate-governance/Documents/audit-committee-charter.pdf>).

F. Compliance with the corporate governance codes

We have always believed in maximum fiscal transparency, and benchmarked our disclosures against a host of national and international guidelines and regulations. Some of the notable ones among them are as follows:

Corporate Governance Voluntary Guidelines, 2009: The Corporate Governance Voluntary Guidelines, 2009, of the Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA), Government of India encourage the use of better practices through voluntary adoption. These guidelines broadly focus on areas such as the Board and its responsibilities, functions, roles and responsibilities of the audit committee, appointment of auditors, compliance with secretarial standards, and a mechanism for whistleblower support. We comply with the Corporate Governance Voluntary Guidelines.

SEBI Listing Regulations: The SEBI Listing Regulations (LODR) prescribes various corporate governance recommendations in line with the corporate governance committee constituted by SEBI under the chairmanship of N. R. Narayana Murthy which had issued two sets of mandatory and non-mandatory recommendations.

These recommendations were eventually incorporated in Clause 49 of the Listing Agreement, and the revised Clause 49 was made effective October 1, 2014. Further, the SEBI Listing Regulations have incorporated these recommendations. We comply with the corporate governance requirements under the Listing Regulations.

Non-mandatory items of corporate governance

The Company has also ensured the implementation of non-mandatory items such as:

- Separate posts of Chairman, and CEO & MD, and reimbursement of expenses in the performance of duties
- Unmodified audit opinions / reporting
- The internal auditor reports directly to the audit committee

Naresh Chandra Committee: Following instances of irregularities involving auditors in the U.S. and India, the Government of India constituted a high-level committee under the chairmanship of Naresh Chandra in 2002 to examine the auditor-company relationship and to regulate the role of auditors. Chapters 2, 3 and 4 of the Naresh Chandra Committee report are relevant to us. We comply with these recommendations.

Kumar Mangalam Birla Committee: SEBI appointed a committee under the chairmanship of Kumar Mangalam Birla in 1999 to promote and raise the standards of corporate governance. The recommendations of the committee were adopted in 2000. We comply with these recommendations.

Euroshareholders Corporate Governance Guidelines 2000:

The guidelines issued by Euroshareholders, the confederation of European shareholders associations, are based on the general principles of corporate governance issued by the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) in 1999, but are more specific and detailed. Subject to the statutory regulations in force in India, we comply with these recommendations.

Conference Board Commission on Public Trust and Private Enterprises in the U.S.: We substantially comply with the findings and recommendations of the Commission, which primarily addressed three key areas – executive compensation, corporate governance, and audit and accounting issues.

OECD Principles of Corporate Governance: The OECD principles on corporate governance were first released in 1999 and revised in 2014, and continue to be periodically reviewed. We comply with the recommendations of the OECD.

United Nations Global Compact: The United Nations Global Compact (UNGC) is a strategic policy initiative for businesses that are committed to aligning their operations and strategies with its 10 principles which cover human rights, labor, environment and corruption. We have been a signatory to the UNGC since 2001 and have consistently adopted the 10 principles in our corporate governance framework. The Global Compact incorporates a transparency and accountability policy known as the Communication on Progress (COP). As a signatory to the UNGC, we report our progress to UNGC's COP every year. 2. Business objectives

The business objectives of the Company are articulated as a set of specific near-term goals, and long-term strategic goals in a corporate scorecard. These goals cover the dimensions of consistent financial performance, market penetration, differentiation in solutions, services and operational excellence, leveraging talent and long-term sustainability of the organization.

3. Risk categories

Our risk management framework considers the following broad categories of risks:

Strategy

Risks arising out of the choices we have made in defining our strategy and the risks to the successful execution of these strategies are covered in this category – for example, risks inherent to our industry and competitiveness are analyzed and mitigated through strategic choices of target markets, the Company's market offerings, business models and talent base. Details of the Company's strategy are described in other sections of this document. Potential risks to the long-term scalability and sustainability of the organization are also analyzed and mitigated – for example, societal risks relating to the impact of our strategy on the environment, local communities, and conservation of essential resources.

We periodically assess risks to the successful execution of our strategy, such as the effectiveness of strategic programs that are being executed, the momentum in new initiatives, the impact of strategy on financial performance, leveraging of inorganic strategies, effectiveness of organization structure and processes, retention and development of high-performing talent and leadership.

External

Risks arising out of uncontrollable factors from outside the organization are covered in this category – for example, risks of adverse developments in the regulatory environment in which we operate, unfavorable trends in the macroeconomic environment including currency fluctuations, natural disasters and attacks on our physical and technology infrastructure.

Operational controls

Risks arising out of inefficiencies in the design, operations or systems of internal controls are covered in this category – for example, risks of non-compliance to policies, information security, data privacy, intellectual property, individuals engaging in unlawful or fraudulent activity or breaches of contractual obligations. These risks could typically result in penalties, financial loss, litigation and loss of reputation and are assessed primarily on dimensions such as business process effectiveness, segregation of duties, compliance with policies and procedures, and strength of underlying controls. These risks also include counterparty risks arising from our association with entities for conducting business, namely clients, vendors, alliance partners and their respective industries.

4. Risk management processes

The Company's risk management practices are:

Risk identification, analysis, and evaluation

Mechanisms for identification of risks include annual risk surveys across the Company, industry benchmarking, periodic assessments of the business environment, incident analysis, findings of internal audits, discussions with the risk council and the risk and strategy committee and analysis of the Company's performance relative to the corporate scorecard goals. Risk analysis and evaluation is carried out using scenario-based assessments to decide the potential impact, likelihood of occurrence and in some cases, the detectability of the risk. Estimated risks are compared with established risk criteria and thresholds to determine the priority and method of risk treatment.

Risk treatment

Risk treatment is the process of selecting and implementing measures to alleviate the impact of identified risks.

- Avoid: A decision to nullify the risk by refraining from the activities that cause it
- Transfer: A decision to transfer the specific risk to another entity
- Reduce: A decision to reduce the level of risk through targeted mitigation, if not to completely nullify it
- Accept: A decision to allow the risk to remain as is, irrespective of its severity

Risk mitigation and monitoring

Mitigation plans are finalized, owners are identified and the progress of mitigation actions are monitored and reviewed. The risk and strategy committee periodically does a deep dive into understanding the scope and effectiveness of mitigation plans and provides feedback to mitigation teams.

Risk-based approach to strategic planning

At Infosys, the functions of strategic planning and risk management are intertwined. Risks to achieving business objectives are key inputs to the formulation and development of strategy and business planning. Key strategic initiatives are identified to mitigate specific risks. This approach is practiced at various levels of the Company, such as in client account teams, project teams, support departments and subsidiaries.

Risk reporting and disclosures

Dashboards help track external and internal indicators for each identified risk and assess its severity. The trend line assessment of top risks, analysis of exposure and potential impact are carried out periodically, presented and discussed with the risk council and risk and strategy committee. Key external and internal incidents are reported and reviewed at appropriate fora, such as the Information Security Council and meetings of the executive board. Risks relating to client project execution and client account level risks are reported and discussed at appropriate levels within the Company. Periodic updates are provided to the Board highlighting key risks, their impact and mitigation actions. Key risk factors are disclosed in regulatory filings.

C. Risk management highlights for the year

Annexure B to the Auditors' Report

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act')

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of Infosys Limited ('the Company') as of 31 March 2016 in conjunction with our audit of the standalone financial statements of the Company for the year ended on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ('ICAI'). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to the Company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting (the 'Guidance Note') and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both applicable to an audit of Internal Financial Controls and, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting were established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of the Management and directors of the Company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Company has, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31 March 2016, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

The Company has its primary listings on the BSE Limited and National Stock Exchange of India Limited in India. The Company's American Depository Shares representing equity shares are also listed on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE), Euronext London and Euronext Paris.

1. Significant accounting policies

1.1 Basis of preparation of financial statements

These financial statements are prepared in accordance with Indian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) under the historical cost convention on the accrual basis except for certain financial instruments which are measured at fair values. GAAP comprises mandatory accounting standards as prescribed under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act') read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014, the provisions of the Act (to the extent notified) and guidelines issued by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI). Accounting policies have been consistently applied except where a newly-issued accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision to an existing accounting standard requires a change in the accounting policy hitherto in use.

1.2 Use of estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires the Management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported balances of assets and liabilities and disclosures relating to contingent liabilities as at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of income and expenses during the period. Examples of such estimates include computation of percentage of completion which requires the Company to estimate the efforts or costs expended to date as a proportion of the total efforts or costs to be expended, provisions for doubtful debts, future obligations under employee retirement benefit plans, income taxes, post-sales customer support and the useful lives of fixed tangible assets and intangible assets.

Accounting estimates could change from period to period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Appropriate changes in estimates are made as the Management becomes aware of changes in circumstances surrounding the estimates. Changes in estimates are reflected in the financial statements in the period in which changes are made and, if material, their effects are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements.

1.3 Revenue recognition

Revenue is primarily derived from software development and related services and from the licensing of software products. Arrangements with customers for software development and related services are either on a fixed-price, fixed-timeframe or on a time-and-material basis.

Revenue on time-and-material contracts are recognized as the related services are performed and revenue from the end of the last billing to the Balance Sheet date is recognized as unbilled revenues. Revenue from fixed-price and fixed-timeframe contracts, where there is no uncertainty as to measurement or collectability of consideration, is recognized based upon the percentage-of-completion method. When there is uncertainty about measurement or ultimate collectability, revenue recognition is postponed until such uncertainty is resolved. Cost and earnings in excess of billings are classified as unbilled revenue while billings in excess of cost and earnings are classified as unearned revenue. Deferred contract costs are amortized over the term of the contract. Provision for estimated losses, if any, on uncompleted contracts is recorded in the period in which such losses become probable based on the current estimates.

Annual Technical Services revenue and revenue from fixed-price maintenance contracts are recognized ratably over the period in which services are rendered. Revenue from the sale of user licenses for software applications is recognized on transfer of the title in the user license, except in case of multiple element contracts, which require significant implementation services, where revenue for the entire arrangement is recognized over the implementation period based upon the percentage-of-completion method. Revenue from client training, support and other services arising out of the sale of software products is recognized as the related services are performed.

The Company accounts for volume discounts and pricing incentives to customers as a reduction of revenue based on the ratable allocation of the discount / incentive amount to each of the underlying revenue transactions that result in progress by the customer towards earning the discount / incentive. Also, when the level of discount varies with increases in levels of revenue transactions, the Company recognizes the liability based on its estimate of the customer's future purchases. If it is probable that the criteria for the discount will not be met, or if the amount thereof cannot be estimated reliably, then discount is not recognized until the payment is probable and the amount can be estimated reliably. The Company recognizes changes in the estimated amount of obligations for discounts in the period in which change occurs. The discounts are passed on to the customer either as direct payments or as a reduction of payments due from the customer.

The Company presents revenues net of indirect taxes in its Statement of Profit and Loss.

Profit on sale of investments is recorded on transfer of title from the Company and is determined as the difference between the sale price and carrying value of the investment. Lease rentals are recognized ratably on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Interest is recognized using the time-proportion method, based on rates implicit in the transaction. Dividend income is recognized when the Company's right to receive dividend is established.

1.4 Provisions and contingent liabilities

A provision is recognized if, as a result of a past event, the Company has a present legal obligation that is reasonably estimable, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation. Provisions are determined by the best estimate of the outflow of economic benefits required to settle the obligation at the reporting date. Where no reliable estimate can be made, a disclosure is made as contingent liability. A disclosure for a contingent liability is also made when there is a possible obligation or a present obligation that may, but probably will not, require an outflow of resources. Where there is a possible obligation or a present obligation in respect of which the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.

1.5 Post-sales client support and warranties

The Company provides its clients with a fixed period post-sales support for corrections of errors and support on all its fixed-price, fixed-timeframe contracts. Costs associated with such support services are accrued at the time when related revenues are recorded and included in the Statement of Profit and Loss. The Company estimates such costs based on historical experience and the estimates are reviewed annually for any material changes in assumptions and likelihood of occurrence.

1.6 Onerous contracts

Provisions for onerous contracts are recognized when the expected benefits to be derived by the Company from a contract are lower than the unavoidable costs of meeting the future obligations under the contract. The provision is measured at lower of the expected cost of terminating the contract and the expected net cost of fulfilling the contract.

1.7 Tangible assets and capital work-in-progress

Tangible assets are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation and impairment, if any. Direct costs are capitalized until such assets are ready for use. Capital work-in-progress comprises the cost of fixed assets that are not yet ready for their intended use at the reporting date.

1.8 Intangible assets

Intangible assets are recorded at the consideration paid for acquisition of such assets and are carried at cost less accumulated amortization and impairment.

Research costs are expensed as incurred. Software product development costs are expensed as incurred unless technical and commercial feasibility of the project is demonstrated, future economic benefits are probable, the Company has an intention and ability to complete and use or sell the software and the costs can be measured reliably. The costs which can be capitalized include the cost of materials, direct labor, and overhead cost that are directly attributable to preparing the asset for intended use.

1.9 Depreciation and amortization

Depreciation on tangible assets is provided on the straight-line method over the useful lives of assets estimated by the Management. Depreciation for assets purchased / sold during a period is proportionately charged. Intangible assets are amortized over their respective individual estimated useful lives on a straight-line basis, commencing from the date the asset is available to the Company for its use. The Management estimates the useful lives for the other fixed assets as follows:

|---------------------------------------|-------------|
| Buildings ⁽¹⁾ | 22-25 years |
| Plant and machinery ⁽¹⁾ | 5 years |
| Office equipment | 5 years |
| Computer equipment ⁽¹⁾ | 3-5 years |
| Furniture and fixtures ⁽¹⁾ | 5 years |
| Vehicles ⁽¹⁾ | 5 years |

⁽¹⁾ Based on technical evaluation, the Management believes that the useful lives as given above best represent the period over which the Management expects to use these assets. Hence, the useful lives for these assets are different from the useful lives as prescribed under Part C of Schedule II of the Companies Act 2013.

Depreciation and amortization methods, useful lives and residual values are reviewed periodically, including at each financial year end (Refer to Note 2.8).

1.10 Impairment

The Management periodically assesses, using external and internal sources, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. An impairment loss is recognized wherever the carrying value of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of the asset's net selling price or value in use, which means the present value of future cash flows expected to arise from the continuing use of the asset and its eventual disposal. An impairment loss for an asset is reversed if, and only if, the reversal can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment loss was recognized. The carrying amount of an asset is increased to its revised recoverable amount, provided that this amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any accumulated amortization or depreciation) had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset in prior years.

1.11 Retirement benefits to employees

Gratuity

The Company provides for gratuity, a defined benefit retirement plan ('the Gratuity Plan') covering eligible employees. The Gratuity Plan provides a lump-sum payment to vested employees at retirement, death, incapacitation or termination of employment, of an amount based on the respective employee's salary and the tenure of employment with the Company.

Liabilities with regard to the Gratuity Plan are determined by actuarial valuation, performed by an independent actuary, at each Balance Sheet date using the projected unit credit method. The Company fully contributes all ascertained liabilities to the Infosys Limited Employees' Gratuity Fund Trust ('the Trust'). Trustees administer contributions made to the Trust and contributions are invested in a scheme with Life Insurance Corporation of India as permitted by law of India. The Company recognizes the net obligation of the Gratuity Plan in the Balance Sheet as an asset or liability, respectively in accordance with Accounting Standard (AS) 15, 'Employee Benefits'. The Company's overall expected long-term rate-of-return on assets has been determined based on consideration of available market information, current provisions of Indian law specifying the instruments in which investments can be made, and historical returns. The discount rate is based on the Government securities yield. Actuarial gains and losses arising from experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss in the period in which they arise.

Superannuation

Certain employees are also participants in the superannuation plan ('the Plan') which is a defined contribution plan. The Company has no obligations to the Plan beyond its monthly contributions which are periodically contributed to a trust fund, the corpus of which is invested with the Life Insurance Corporation of India.

Provident fund

Eligible employees receive benefits from a provident fund, which is a defined benefit plan. Both the eligible employee and the Company make monthly contributions to the provident fund plan equal to a specified percentage of the covered employee's salary. The Company contributes a portion to the Infosys Limited Employees' Provident Fund Trust. The trust invests in specific designated instruments as permitted by Indian law. The remaining portion is contributed to the government administered pension fund. The rate at which the annual interest is payable to the beneficiaries by the trust is being administered by the government. The Company has an obligation to make good the shortfall, if any, between the return from the investments of the trust and the notified interest rate.

Compensated absences

The employees of the Company are entitled to compensated absences which are both accumulating and non-accumulating in nature. The expected cost of accumulating compensated absences is determined by actuarial valuation using projected unit credit method on the additional amount expected to be paid / availed as a result of the unused entitlement that has accumulated at the Balance Sheet date. Expense on non-accumulating compensated absences is recognized in the period in which the absences occur.

1.12 Share-based payments

The Company accounts for equity settled stock options as per the accounting treatment prescribed by Securities and Exchange Board of India (Share Based Employee Benefits) Regulations, 2014 and the Guidance Note on Employee Share-based Payments issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India using the intrinsic value method.

1.13 Foreign currency transactions

Foreign-currency-denominated monetary assets and liabilities are translated at exchange rates in effect at the Balance Sheet date. The gains or losses resulting from such translations are included in the Statement of Profit and Loss. Non-monetary assets and non-monetary liabilities denominated in a foreign currency and measured at fair value are translated at the exchange rate prevalent at the date when the fair value was determined. Non-monetary assets and non-monetary liabilities denominated in a foreign currency and measured at historical cost are translated at the exchange rate prevalent at the date of transaction.

Revenue, expense and cash-flow items denominated in foreign currencies are translated using the exchange rate in effect on the date of the transaction. Transaction gains or losses realized upon settlement of foreign currency transactions are included in determining net profit for the period in which the transaction is settled.

1.14 Forward and options contracts in foreign currencies

The Company uses foreign exchange forward and options contracts to hedge its exposure to movements in foreign exchange rates. The use of these foreign exchange forward and options contracts reduces the risk or cost to the Company and the Company does not use those for trading or speculation purposes.

Effective April 1, 2008, the Company adopted AS 30, 'Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement', to the extent that the adoption did not conflict with existing accounting standards and other authoritative pronouncements of the Company Law and other regulatory requirements.

Forward and options contracts are fair valued at each reporting date. The Company designates certain foreign exchange forward and options contracts as cash flow hedges to mitigate the risk of foreign exchange exposure on highly probable forecast transactions. The Company records the gain or loss on effective hedges, if any, in the hedging reserve until the transactions are complete. On completion, the gain or loss is transferred to the Statement of Profit and Loss of that period. To designate a forward or options contract as an effective hedge, the Management objectively evaluates and evidences with appropriate supporting documents at the inception of each contract and subsequently whether the contract is effective in achieving offsetting cash flows attributable to the hedged risk. Changes in the fair value relating to the ineffective portion of the hedges and derivative instruments that do not qualify or have not been designated for hedge accounting are recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

1.15 Income taxes

Income taxes are accrued in the same period that the related revenue and expenses arise. A provision is made for income tax, based on the tax liability computed, after considering tax allowances and exemptions. Provisions are recorded when it is estimated that a liability due to disallowances or other matters is probable. Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) paid in accordance with the tax laws, which gives rise to future economic benefits in the form of tax credit against future income tax liability, is recognized as an asset in the Balance Sheet if there is convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal tax after the tax holiday period and the resultant asset can be measured reliably. The Company offsets, on a year-on-year basis, the current tax assets and liabilities, where it has a legally enforceable right and where it intends to settle such assets and liabilities on a net basis.

The differences that result between the profit considered for income taxes and the profit as per the financial statements are identified, and thereafter, a deferred tax asset or deferred tax liability is recorded for timing differences, namely the differences that originate in one accounting period and reverse in another, based on the tax effect of the aggregate amount of timing difference. The tax effect is calculated on the accumulated timing differences at the end of an accounting period based on enacted or substantively enacted regulations. Deferred tax assets in situation where unabsorbed depreciation and carry forward business loss exist, are recognized only if there is virtual certainty supported by convincing evidence that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax asset can be realized. Deferred tax assets, other than in situation of unabsorbed depreciation and carry forward business loss, are recognized only if there is reasonable certainty that they will be realized. Deferred tax assets are reviewed for the appropriateness of their respective carrying values at each reporting date. Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities have been offset wherever the Company has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and where the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority. The income tax provision for the interim period is made based on the best estimate of the annual average tax rate expected to be applicable for the full financial year. Tax benefits of deductions earned on exercise of employee share options in excess of compensation charged to Statement of Profit and Loss are credited to the securities premium reserve.

1.16 Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing the net profit after tax by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the profit after tax by the weighted average number of equity shares considered for deriving basic earnings per share and also the weighted average number of equity shares that could have been issued upon conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares. The diluted potential equity shares are adjusted for the proceeds receivable had the shares been actually issued at fair value which is the average market value of the outstanding shares. Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed converted as of the beginning of the period, unless issued at a later date. Dilutive potential equity shares are determined independently for each period presented.

The number of shares and potentially dilutive equity shares are adjusted retrospectively for all periods presented for any share splits and bonus shares issues including for changes effected prior to the approval of the financial statements by the Board of Directors.

1.17 Investments

Trade investments are the investments made to enhance the Company's business interests. Investments are either classified as current or long-term based on the Management's intention. Current investments are carried at the lower of cost and fair value of each investment individually. Cost for overseas investments comprises the Indian rupee value of the consideration paid for the investment translated at the exchange rate prevalent at the date of investment. Long-term investments are carried at cost less provisions recorded to recognize any decline, other than temporary, in the carrying value of each investment.

1.18 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash and cash-on-deposit with banks and financial institutions. The Company considers all highly liquid investments with a remaining maturity at the date of purchase of three months or less and that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash to be cash equivalents.

1.19 Cash flow statement

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non-cash nature, any deferrals or accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments and item of income or expenses associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated.

1.20 Leases

Lease under which the Company assumes substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership are classified as finance leases. Such assets acquired are capitalized at fair value of the asset or present value of the minimum lease payments at the inception of the lease, whichever is lower. Lease payments under operating leases are recognized as an expense on a straight-line basis in the Statement of Profit and Loss over the lease term.

Effective January 1, 2015, Infosys Limited Employees' Welfare Trust ('the Trust') has been deconsolidated consequent to SEBI (Share Based Employee Benefits) Regulations, 2014, issued on October 28, 2014.

The Company has only one class of shares referred to as equity shares having a par value of ₹ 5. Each holder of equity shares is entitled to one vote per share.

The Company declares and pays dividends in Indian rupees. The dividend proposed by the Board of Directors is subject to the approval of the shareholders in the ensuing Annual General Meeting.

In the period of five years immediately preceding March 31, 2016:

The Company has allotted 1,14,84,72,332 fully-paid-up shares of face value ₹ 5 each during the quarter ended June 30, 2015, pursuant to bonus issue approved by the shareholders through a postal ballot. The book closure date fixed by the Board was June 17, 2015.

The Company has allotted 57,42,36,166 fully-paid-up equity shares of face value ₹ 5 each during the quarter ended December 31, 2014 pursuant to a bonus issue approved by the shareholders through a postal ballot. The record date fixed by the Board of Directors was December 3, 2014.

For both the bonus issues, a bonus share of one equity share for every equity share held, and a stock dividend of one American Depositary Share (ADS) for every ADS held, have been allotted. Consequently, the ratio of equity shares underlying the ADSs held by an American Depositary Receipt holder remains unchanged. Options granted under the restricted stock unit plan have been adjusted for bonus shares.

During the year ended March 31, 2015, the amount of dividend per share recognized as distribution to equity shareholders includes ₹ 29.50 per share of final dividend (not adjusted for bonus shares on June 17, 2015) and ₹ 30 per share of interim dividend (not adjusted for bonus shares of June 17, 2015 and December 3, 2014). The total dividend appropriation for the year ended March 31, 2015 amounted to ₹ 6,145 crore, including corporate dividend tax of ₹ 1,034 crore.

The Board has increased dividend payout ratio from up to 40% to up to 50% of post-tax consolidated profits effective fiscal 2015.

The Board of Directors, in its meeting on October 12, 2015, declared an interim dividend of ₹ 10 per equity share. Further the Board of Directors, in its meeting on April 15, 2016, has proposed a final dividend of ₹ 14.25 per equity share for the financial year ended March 31, 2016. The proposal is subject to the approval of shareholders at the Annual General Meeting to be held on June 18, 2016. The total dividend appropriation for the year ended March 31, 2016 amounted to ₹ 6,704 crore, including corporate dividend tax of ₹ 1,134 crore.

The Central Government, in consultation with the National Advisory Committee on Accounting Standards, has amended the Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2006 ('principal rules'), through a notification issued by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs dated March 30, 2016. The Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2016 is effective March 30, 2016. According to the amended rules, the above-mentioned proposed dividend will not be recorded as a liability as at March 31, 2016. (Refer to Para 8.5 of AS-4 – Contingencies and Events occurring after Balance Sheet date). The Company believes, based on a legal opinion, that the Rule 3(2) of the principal rules has not been withdrawn or replaced and accordingly, the Companies (Accounting Standards) Rule, 2016 will apply for the accounting periods commencing on or after March 30, 2016. Therefore the Company has recorded ₹ 3,939 crore as liability for proposed dividends (including corporate dividend tax) as at March 31, 2016.

In the event of liquidation of the Company, the holders of equity shares will be entitled to receive any of the remaining assets of the Company in proportion to the number of equity shares held by the shareholders, after distribution of all preferential amounts.

The details of shareholders holding more than 5% shares as at March 31, 2016 and March 31, 2015 are as follows:

Stock option plan

2015 Stock Incentive Compensation Plan: SEBI issued the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Share Based Employee Benefits) Regulations, 2014 ('SEBI Regulations') which replaced the SEBI ESOP Guidelines, 1999. The 2011 Plan (as explained below) was required to be amended and restated in accordance with the SEBI Regulations. Consequently, to effect this change and to further introduce stock options / ADRs and other stock incentives, the Company put forth the 2015 Stock Incentive Compensation Plan ('the 2015 Plan') for approval to the shareholders of the Company. Pursuant to the approval by the shareholders through a postal ballot which ended on March 31, 2016, the Board of Directors has been authorized to introduce, offer, issue and allot share-based incentives to eligible employees of the Company and its subsidiaries under the 2015 Plan. The maximum number of shares under the 2015 Plan shall not exceed 2,40,38,883 equity shares (this includes 1,12,23,576 equity shares which are currently held by the Trust towards the 2011 Plan). 1,70,38,883 equity shares will be issued as RSUs at par value and 70,00,000 equity shares will be issued as stock options at market price. These instruments will vest over a period of four years and the Company expects to grant the instruments under the 2015 Plan over a period of four to seven years.

2011 RSU Plan: The Company had a 2011 RSU Plan ('the 2011 Plan') which provided for the grant of restricted stock units (RSUs) to eligible employees of the Company. The Board of Directors recommended the establishment of the 2011 Plan to the shareholders on August 30, 2011 and the shareholders approved the recommendation of the Board of Directors on October 17, 2011 through a postal ballot. The maximum aggregate number of shares that may be awarded under the 2011 Plan was 1,13,34,400 and the 2011 Plan was expected to continue in effect for a term of 10 years from the date of initial grant under the plan. During the year ended March 31, 2015, the Company made a grant of 1,08,268 restricted stock units (adjusted for bonus issues) to Dr. Vishal Sikka, Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director. The Board, in its meeting held on June 22, 2015, on the recommendation of the nomination and remuneration committee, further granted 1,24,061 RSUs to Dr. Vishal Sikka. These RSUs are vesting over a period of four years from the date of the grant in the proportions specified in the award agreement. The RSUs will vest subject to achievement of certain key performance indicators as set forth in the award agreement for each applicable year of the vesting tranche and continued employment through each vesting date. Further, the Company has earmarked 1,00,000 equity shares for employee welfare activities approved by the shareholders through the postal ballot which ended on March 31, 2016. The equity shares currently held under this plan, i.e. 1,12,23,576 equity shares (this includes the aggregate number of equity shares that may be awarded under the 2011 Plan as reduced by 10,824 equity shares already exercised by Dr. Vishal Sikka and 1,00,000 equity shares which have been earmarked for welfare activities of the employees) have been subsumed under the 2015 Plan.

Further, the award granted to Dr. Vishal Sikka on June 22, 2015 was modified by the nomination and remuneration committee on April 14, 2016. There is no modification or change in the total number of RSUs granted or the vesting period (which is four years). The modifications relate to the criteria of vesting for each of the years. Based on the modification, the first tranche of the RSUs will vest subject to achievement of certain key performance indicators for the year ended March 31, 2016. Subsequent vesting of RSUs for each of the remaining years would be subject to continued employment.

In accordance with the SEBI Regulations, the excess of the closing market price on the grant date of the RSUs over the exercise price is amortized on a straight-line basis over the vesting period.

The activity in the 2011 Plan during the years ended March 31, 2016 and March 31, 2015 is as follows:

| Particulars | Year ended March 31, 2016 | | Year ended March 31, 2015 | |
|------------------------------|-------------------------------|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| | Shares arising out of options | Weighted average exercise price (₹) | Shares arising out of options | Weighted average exercise price (₹) |
| 2011 Plan: | | | | |

| Granted ⁽¹⁾ | 1,24,061 | 5 | 1,08,268 | 5 |
| Forfeited and expired | – | – | – | – |

| Outstanding at the end | 2,21,505 | 5 | 1,08,268 | 5 |
| Exercisable at the end | – | – | – | – |

The weighted average share price of options exercised under the 2011 Plan on the date of exercise was ₹1,088.

The weighted average remaining contractual life of RSUs outstanding as of March 31, 2016 and March 31, 2015 under the 2011 Plan was 1.98 years and 2.39 years.

The differential on stock compensation expense if the 'fair value' of the RSUs on the date of the grant were considered instead of the 'intrinsic value' is less than ₹1 crore for each of the years ended March 31, 2016 and March 31, 2015. Consequently, there is no impact on earnings per share.

The fair value for the above impact analysis is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes-Merton model with the following assumptions:

| Particulars | Options granted during fiscal | |
|---|-------------------------------|-----------|
| | 2016 | 2015 |
| Grant date | 22-Jun-15 | 21-Aug-14 |
| Weighted average share price (₹) ⁽¹⁾ | 1,024 | 3,549 |
| Exercise price (₹) ⁽¹⁾ | 5 | 5 |
| Expected volatility (%) | 28-36 | 30-37 |
| Expected life of the option (years) | 1-4 | 1-4 |
| Expected dividends (%) | 2.43 | 1.84 |
| Risk-free interest rate (%) | 7-8 | 8-9 |
| Weighted average fair value as on grant date (₹) ⁽¹⁾ | 948 | 3,355 |

⁽¹⁾ Data for fiscal 2015 is not adjusted for bonus issues

The expected term of an RSU is estimated based on the vesting term and contractual term of the RSU, as well as expected exercise behavior of the employee who receives the RSU. Expected volatility during the expected term of the RSU is based on historical volatility of the observed market prices of the Company's publicly traded equity shares during a period equivalent to the expected term of the RSU.

During the year ended March 31, 2016, the Company recorded an employee compensation expense of ₹7 crore in the Statement of Profit and Loss (₹2 crore during the year ended March 31, 2015)

⁽¹⁾ Claims against the Company not acknowledged as debts for the year ended March 31, 2016 include demand from the Indian income tax authorities for payment of tax of ₹ 4,135 crore (₹ 3,337 crore), including interest of ₹ 1,224 crore (₹ 964 crore) upon completion of their tax assessment for fiscals 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011 (for the year ended March 31, 2015 – upon completion of their tax assessment for fiscals 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2010). These demands were paid to statutory tax authorities, including ₹ 913 crore paid during the year ended March 31, 2016, consequent to demand from tax authorities in India for fiscal 2011 towards denial of certain tax benefits. The Company has filed an appeal with the income tax appellate authorities.

Demand for fiscals 2007, 2008 and 2009 includes disallowance of a portion of the deduction claimed by the Company under Section 10A of the Income-tax Act as determined by the ratio of export turnover to total turnover. The disallowance arose from certain expenses incurred in foreign currency being reduced from export turnover but not reduced from total turnover. Demand for fiscals 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011 also includes disallowance of the portion of profit earned outside India from the STP units under Section 10A of the Income-tax Act and disallowance of profits earned from SEZ units under Section 10AA of the Income-tax Act. The matters for fiscals 2007, 2008 and 2009 are pending before the Commissioner of Income Tax (Appeals) Bangalore. The matter for fiscals 2010 and 2011 is pending before the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal (ITAT) Bangalore.

The Company is contesting the demand and the Management including its tax advisors believes that its position will likely be upheld in the appellate process. The Management believes that the ultimate outcome of these proceedings will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position and results of operations.

2.28 Segment reporting

The Company's operations predominantly relate to providing end-to-end business solutions to enable clients enhance their business performance. During the year ended March 31, 2016, the Company reorganized its segments to enhance executive-customer relationships, improve focus of sales investments and increase management oversight. However, the reorganizations did not have any impact on the reportable segments as per AS 17 'Segment reporting' apart from Manufacturing being named Manufacturing and Hi-tech. The segment information has been presented both along industry classes and geographic segmentation of customers, industry being the primary segment. The accounting principles used in the preparation of the financial statements are consistently applied to record revenue and expenditure in individual segments, and are as set out in the significant accounting policies.

Industry segments for the Company are primarily enterprises in:

- Financial Services and Insurance (FSI)
- Manufacturing and Hi-tech (MFG & HI-TECH)
- Energy & utilities, Communications and Services (ECS)
- Retail, Consumer packaged goods and Logistics (RCL)
- Life Sciences and Healthcare (LSH)

Geographic segmentation is based on business sourced from specific geographic regions and delivered from both onsite and offshore locations. North America comprises the United States of America, Canada and Mexico; Europe includes continental Europe (both the east and the west), Ireland and the United Kingdom; and the Rest of the World comprises all other places except those mentioned above and India.

Revenue and identifiable operating expenses in relation to segments are categorized based on items that are individually identifiable to that segment. Allocated expenses of segments include expenses incurred for rendering services from the Company's offshore software development centers and onsite expenses, which are categorized in relation to the associated turnover of the segment. Certain expenses, such as depreciation, which form a significant component of total expenses, are not allocable to specific segments as the underlying assets are used interchangeably. The Management believes that it is not practical to provide segment disclosures relating to those costs and expenses, and accordingly these expenses are separately disclosed as 'unallocated' and adjusted against the total income of the Company.

Fixed assets used in the Company's business or liabilities contracted have not been identified to any of the reportable segments, as the fixed assets and services are used interchangeably between segments. Accordingly, no disclosure relating to total segment assets and liabilities are made. Geographical information on revenue and industry revenue information is collated based on individual customers invoiced or in relation to which the revenue is otherwise recognized.

Annexure to the Auditors' Report

Report on the Internal Financial Controls under Clause (i) of sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act')

In conjunction with our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the Company as of and for the year ended 31 March 2016, we have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of Infosys Limited ('the Holding Company') and its subsidiary companies which are companies incorporated in India, as of that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Respective Board of Directors of the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies, which are companies incorporated in India, are responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India ('ICAI'). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting (the 'Guidance Note') issued by ICAI and the Standards on Auditing, issued by ICAI and deemed to be prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Companies Act, 2013, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls, both issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the Company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the Company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial control over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Holding Company and its subsidiary companies, which are companies incorporated in India, have, in all material respects, an adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at 31 March 2016, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting issued by the ICAI.

Significant accounting policies and notes on accounts

Along with its subsidiaries, Infosys provides Business IT services (comprising application development and maintenance, independent validation, infrastructure management, engineering services comprising product engineering and life cycle solutions and business process management); consulting and systems integration services (comprising consulting, enterprise solutions, systems integration and advanced technologies); products, business platforms and solutions to accelerate intellectual property-led innovation including Finacle®, our banking solution; and offerings in the areas of analytics, cloud, and digital transformation.

Infosys, together with its subsidiaries and controlled trusts, is herein after referred to as 'the Group'.

The Company is a public limited company incorporated and domiciled in India and has its registered office at Bangalore, Karnataka, India. The Company has its primary listings on the BSE Limited and National Stock Exchange of India Limited in India. The Company's American Depository Shares representing equity shares are also listed on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE), Euronext London and Euronext Paris.

1. Significant accounting policies

1.1 Basis of preparation of financial statements

These financial statements are prepared in accordance with Indian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) under the historical cost convention on the accrual basis except for certain financial instruments which are measured at fair values. GAAP comprises mandatory accounting standards as prescribed under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act') read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014, the provisions of the Act (to the extent notified) and guidelines issued by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI). Accounting policies have been consistently applied except where a newly-issued accounting standard is initially adopted or a revision to an existing accounting standard requires a change in the accounting policy hitherto in use.

The financial statements are prepared in accordance with the principles and procedures required for the preparation and presentation of consolidated financial statements as laid down under the Accounting Standard (AS) 21, 'Consolidated Financial Statements'. The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the Company, its controlled trusts and its subsidiaries as disclosed in Note 2.21, combined on a line-by-line basis by adding together book values of like items of assets, liabilities, income and expenses after eliminating intra-group balances and transactions and resulting unrealized gain / loss. The consolidated financial statements are prepared by applying uniform accounting policies in use at the Group. Minority interests have been excluded. Minority interests represent that part of the net profit or loss and net assets of subsidiaries that are not, directly or indirectly, owned or controlled by the Company.

Associates are entities over which the Group has significant influence but not control. Investments in associates are accounted for using the equity method of accounting as laid down under Accounting Standard (AS) 23, 'Accounting for Investment in Associate in Consolidated Financial Statements'. The investment is initially recognized at cost, and the carrying amount is increased or decreased to recognize the investor's share of the profit or loss of the investee after the acquisition date. The Group's investment in associates includes goodwill identified on acquisition.

1.2 Use of estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires the Management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported balances of assets and liabilities and disclosures relating to contingent liabilities as at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of income and expenses during the period. Examples of such estimates include computation of percentage of completion which requires the Group to estimate the efforts or costs expended to date as a proportion of the total efforts or costs to be expended, provisions for doubtful debts, future obligations under employee retirement benefit plans, income taxes, post-sales customer support and the useful lives of tangible assets and intangible assets.

Accounting estimates could change from period to period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Appropriate changes in estimates are made as the Management becomes aware of changes in circumstances surrounding the estimates. Changes in estimates are reflected in the consolidated financial statements in the period in which the changes are made and, if material, their effects are disclosed in the notes to the consolidated financial statements.

1.3 Revenue recognition

Revenue is primarily derived from software development and related services and from the licensing of software products. Arrangements with customers for software development and related services are either on a fixed-price, fixed-timeframe or on a time-and-material basis.

Revenue on time-and-material contracts is recognized as the related services are performed and revenue from the end of the last billing to the Balance Sheet date is recognized as unbilled revenues. Revenue from fixed-price and fixed-timeframe contracts, where there is no uncertainty about measurement or collectability of consideration, is recognized based on the percentage-of-completion method. When there is uncertainty about measurement or ultimate collectability, revenue recognition is postponed until such uncertainty is resolved. Cost and earnings in excess of billings are classified as unbilled revenue, while billings in excess of cost and earnings are classified as unearned revenue. Deferred contract costs are amortized over the term of the contract. Provision for estimated losses, if any, on uncompleted contracts are recorded in the period in which such losses become probable based on the current estimates.

Annual Technical Services revenue and revenue from fixed-price maintenance contracts are recognized ratably over the period in which services are rendered. Revenue from the sale of user licenses for software applications is recognized on transfer of the title in the user license, except in case of multiple element contracts, which require significant implementation services, where revenue for the entire arrangement is recognized over the implementation period based on the percentage-of-completion method. Revenue from client training, support and other services arising due to the sale of software products is recognized as the related services are performed.

The Group accounts for volume discounts and pricing incentives to customers as a reduction of revenue based on the ratable allocation of the discount / incentive amount to each of the underlying revenue transactions that result in progress by the customer towards earning the discount / incentive. Also, when the level of discount varies with increases in levels of revenue transactions, the Group recognizes the liability based on its estimate of the customer's future purchases. If it is probable that the criteria for the discount will not be met, or if the amount thereof cannot be estimated reliably, then the discount is not recognized until the payment is probable and the amount can be estimated reliably. The Group recognizes changes in the estimated amount of obligations for discounts in the period in which the change occurs. The discounts are passed on to the customer either as direct payments or as a reduction of payments due from the customer. The Group presents revenues net of indirect taxes in its consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

Profit on sale of investments is recorded on transfer of title from the Group and is determined as the difference between the sale price and carrying value of the investment. Lease rentals are recognized ratably on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Interest is recognized using the time-proportion method, based on rates implicit in the transaction. Dividend income is recognized when the Group's right to receive dividend is established.

1.4 Provisions and contingent liabilities

A provision is recognized if, as a result of a past event, the Group has a present legal obligation that is reasonably estimable, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation. Provisions are determined by the best estimate of the outflow of economic benefits required to settle the obligation at the reporting date. Where no reliable estimate can be made, a disclosure is made as contingent liability. A disclosure for a contingent liability is also made when there is a possible obligation or a present obligation that may, but probably will not, require an outflow of resources. Where there is a possible obligation or a present obligation in respect of which the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.

1.5 Post-sales client support and warranties

The Group provides its clients with a fixed-period, post-sales support for corrections of errors and support on all its fixed-price, fixed-timeframe contracts. Costs associated with such support services are accrued at the time when related revenues are recorded and included in consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss. The Group estimates such costs based on historical experience and the estimates are reviewed annually for any material changes in assumptions and likelihood of occurrence.

1.6 Onerous contracts

Provisions for onerous contracts are recognized when the expected benefits to be derived by the Group from a contract are lower than the unavoidable costs of meeting the future obligations under the contract. The provision is measured at lower of the expected cost of terminating the contract and the expected net cost of fulfilling the contract.

1.7 Tangible assets and capital work-in-progress

Tangible assets are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation and impairment, if any. Direct costs are capitalized until such assets are ready for use. Capital work-in-progress comprises the cost of fixed assets that are not yet ready for their intended use at the reporting date.

1.8 Intangible assets including goodwill

Intangible assets are recorded at the consideration paid for acquisition of such assets and are carried at cost less accumulated amortization and impairment. Goodwill comprises the excess of purchase consideration over the parent's portion of equity of the subsidiary at the date on which investment in the subsidiary is made. Goodwill arising on consolidation or acquisition is not amortized but is tested for impairment.

Research costs are expensed as incurred. Software product development costs are expensed as incurred unless technical and commercial feasibility of the project is demonstrated, future economic benefits are probable, the Group has an intention and ability to complete and use or sell the software and the costs can be measured reliably. The costs which can be capitalized include the cost of material, direct labor and overhead costs that are directly attributable to preparing the asset for its intended use.

1.9 Depreciation and amortization

Depreciation on tangible assets is provided on the straight-line method over the useful lives of assets estimated by the Management. Depreciation for assets purchased / sold during a period is proportionately charged. Intangible assets are amortized over their respective individual estimated useful lives on a straight-line basis, commencing from the date the asset is available to the Group for use. Leasehold improvements are written off over the lower of the remaining primary period of lease or the life of the asset. The Management estimates the useful lives for the other fixed assets as follows:

|---------------------------------------|-------------|
| Buildings ⁽¹⁾ | 22-25 years |
| Plant and machinery ⁽¹⁾ | 5 years |
| Office equipment | 5 years |
| Computer equipment ⁽¹⁾ | 3-5 years |
| Furniture and fixtures ⁽¹⁾ | 5 years |
| Vehicles ⁽¹⁾ | 5 years |

⁽¹⁾ Based on technical evaluation, the Management believes that the useful lives as given above best represent the period over which the Management expects to use these assets. Hence, the useful lives for these assets are different from the useful lives as prescribed under Part C of Schedule II of the Companies Act 2013.

Depreciation and amortization methods, useful lives and residual values are reviewed periodically, including at each financial year end. (Refer to Note 2.7)

1.10 Impairment

The Management periodically assesses, using external and internal sources, whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. An impairment loss is recognized wherever the carrying value of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is higher of the asset's net selling price or value in use, which means the present value of future cash flows expected to arise from the continuing use of the asset and its eventual disposal. An impairment loss for an asset other than goodwill is reversed if, and only if, the reversal can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment loss was recognized. The carrying amount of an asset other than goodwill is increased to its revised recoverable amount, provided this amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any accumulated amortization or depreciation) had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset in prior years.

1.11 Retirement benefits to employees

Gratuity

The Group provides for gratuity, a defined benefit retirement plan ('the Gratuity Plan') covering eligible employees of Infosys and its Indian subsidiaries. The Gratuity Plan provides a lump sum payment to vested employees at retirement, death, incapacitation or termination of employment, of an amount based on the respective employee's salary and the tenure of employment with the Group.

Liabilities with regard to the Gratuity Plan are determined by actuarial valuation, performed by an independent actuary, at each Balance Sheet date using the projected unit credit method. The Company fully contributes all ascertained liabilities to the Infosys Limited Employees' Gratuity Fund Trust ('the Trust'). In case of Infosys BPO and EdgeVerve, contributions are made to the Infosys BPO's Employees' Gratuity Fund Trust and EdgeVerve Systems Limited Employees' Gratuity Fund Trust, respectively. Trustees administer contributions made to the Trusts and contributions are invested in a scheme with Life Insurance Corporation of India as permitted by Indian law.

The Group recognizes the net obligation of the Gratuity Plan in the Balance Sheet as an asset or liability, in accordance with Accounting Standard (AS) 15, 'Employee Benefits'. The Group's overall expected long-term rate-of-return on assets has been determined based on consideration of available market information, current provisions of Indian law specifying the instruments in which investments can be made, and historical returns. The discount rate is based on the Government securities yield. Actuarial gains and losses arising from experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognized in the consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss in the period in which they arise.

Superannuation

Certain employees of Infosys, Infosys BPO and EdgeVerve are participants in a defined contribution plan. The Group has no further obligations to the Plan beyond its monthly contributions which are periodically contributed to a trust fund, the corpus of which is invested with the Life Insurance Corporation of India.

Provident fund

Eligible employees of Infosys receive benefits from a provident fund, which is a defined benefit plan. Both the eligible employee and the Company make monthly contributions to the provident fund plan equal to a specified percentage of the covered employee's salary. The Company contributes a part of the contributions to the Infosys Limited Employees' Provident Fund Trust. The trust invests in specific designated instruments as permitted by Indian law. The remaining portion is contributed to the government administered pension fund. The rate at which the annual interest is payable to the beneficiaries by the Trust is being administered by the government. The Company has an obligation to make good the shortfall, if any, between the return from the investments of the trust and the notified interest rate.

In respect of Indian subsidiaries, eligible employees receive benefits from a provident fund, which is a defined contribution plan. Both the eligible employee and the respective Company make monthly contributions to this provident fund plan equal to a specified percentage of the covered employee's salary. Amounts collected under the provident fund plan are deposited in a government administered provident fund. The Companies have no further obligations under the provident fund plan beyond its monthly contributions.

Compensated absences

The employees of the Group are entitled to compensated absences, which are both accumulating and non-accumulating in nature. The expected cost of accumulating compensated absences is determined by actuarial valuation using projected unit credit method on the additional amount expected to be paid / availed as a result of the unused entitlement that has accumulated at the Balance Sheet date. Expense on non-accumulating compensated absences is recognized in the period in which the absences occur.

1.12 Share-based payments

The Group accounts for equity-settled stock options in accordance with the accounting treatment prescribed by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Share Based Employee Benefits) Regulations, 2014 and the Guidance Note on Employee Share-based Payments issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India using the intrinsic value method.

1.13 Foreign currency transactions

Foreign-currency-denominated monetary assets and liabilities are translated at exchange rates in effect at the Balance Sheet date. The gains or losses resulting from such translations are included in the Statement of Profit and Loss. Non-monetary assets and non-monetary liabilities denominated in a foreign currency and measured at fair value are translated at the exchange rate prevalent at the date when the fair value was determined. Non-monetary assets and non-monetary liabilities denominated in a foreign currency and measured at historical cost are translated at the exchange rate prevalent at the date of transaction.

Revenue, expense and cash-flow items denominated in foreign currencies are translated using the exchange rate in effect on the date of the transaction. Transaction gains or losses realized upon settlement of foreign currency transactions are included in determining net profit for the period in which the transaction is settled.

The translation of the financial statements of the foreign subsidiaries from the local currency to the reporting currency of the Company is performed for Balance Sheet accounts using the exchange rate in effect at the Balance Sheet date and for revenue, expense and cash-flow items using a monthly average exchange rate for the respective periods. The resulting difference is presented as foreign currency translation reserve included in 'Reserves and Surplus'. When a subsidiary is disposed off, in part or in full, the relevant amount is transferred to profit or loss.

1.14 Forward and options contracts in foreign currencies

The Group uses foreign exchange forward and options contracts to hedge its exposure to movements in foreign exchange rates. The use of these foreign exchange forward and options contracts reduces the risk or cost to the Group and the Group does not use those for trading or speculation purposes.

Effective April 1, 2008, the Company adopted AS 30, 'Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement', to the extent that the adoption did not conflict with existing accounting standards and other authoritative pronouncements of the Company Law and other regulatory requirements.

Forward and options contracts are fair-valued at each reporting date. The Company designates certain foreign exchange forward and options contracts as cash flow hedges to mitigate the risk of foreign exchange exposure on highly probable forecast transactions. The Company records the gain or loss on effective hedges, if any, in the hedging reserve until the transactions are complete. On completion, the gain or loss is transferred to the consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss of that period. To designate a forward or options contract as an effective hedge, the Management objectively evaluates and evidences with appropriate supporting documents at the inception of each contract and subsequently whether the contract is effective in achieving offsetting cash flows attributable to the hedged risk. Changes in the fair value relating to the ineffective portion of the hedges and derivative instruments that do not qualify or have not been designated for hedge accounting are recognized in the consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

1.15 Income taxes

Income taxes are accrued in the same period in which the related revenue and expenses arise. A provision is made for income tax, based on the tax liability computed, after considering tax allowances and exemptions. Provisions are recorded when it is estimated that a liability due to disallowances or other matters is probable. Minimum alternate tax (MAT) paid in accordance with the tax laws, which gives rise to future economic benefits in the form of tax credit against future income tax liability, is recognized as an asset in the Consolidated Balance Sheet if there is convincing evidence that the Group will pay normal tax after the tax holiday period and the resultant asset can be measured reliably. The Group offsets, on a year-on-year basis, the current tax assets and liabilities, where it has a legally enforceable right and where it intends to settle such assets and liabilities on a net basis.

The differences that result between the profit considered for income taxes and the profit as per the financial statements are identified, and thereafter a deferred tax asset or deferred tax liability is recorded for timing differences, namely the differences that originate in one accounting period and reverse in another, based on the tax effect of the aggregate amount of timing difference. The tax effect is calculated on the accumulated timing differences at the end of an accounting period based on enacted or substantively enacted regulations. Deferred tax assets, in situation where unabsorbed depreciation and carry forward business loss exist, are recognized only if there is virtual certainty supported by convincing evidence that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax asset can be realized. Deferred tax assets, other than in situations of unabsorbed depreciation and carry forward business loss, are recognized only if there is reasonable certainty that they will be realized. Deferred tax assets are reviewed for the appropriateness of their respective carrying values at each reporting date. Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities have been offset wherever the Group has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and where the deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority. Tax benefits of deductions earned on exercise of employee share options in excess of compensation charged to consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss are credited to the securities premium account.

1.16 Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing the net profit after tax by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing the profit after tax by the weighted average number of equity shares considered for deriving basic earnings per share and also the weighted average number of equity shares that could have been issued upon conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares. The diluted potential equity shares are adjusted for the proceeds receivable had the shares been actually issued at fair value, which is the average market value of the outstanding shares. Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed converted as of the beginning of the period, unless issued at a later date. Dilutive potential equity shares are determined independently for each period presented.

The number of shares and potentially dilutive equity shares are adjusted retrospectively for all periods presented for any share splits and bonus share issues including for changes effected prior to the approval of the consolidated financial statements by the Board of Directors.

1.17 Investments

The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Group are segregated.

The Company has allotted 1,14,84,72,332 fully-paid-up shares of face value ₹5 each during the quarter ended June 30, 2015, pursuant to a bonus issue approved by the shareholders through a postal ballot. The book closure date fixed by the Board was June 17, 2015.

The Company has allotted 57,42,36,166 fully-paid-up equity shares of face value ₹5 each during the quarter ended December 31, 2014 pursuant to a bonus issue approved by the shareholders through a postal ballot. The record date fixed by the Board of Directors was December 3, 2014.

For both the bonus issues, a bonus share of one equity share for every equity share held, and a stock dividend of one American Depositary Share (ADS) for every ADS held has been allotted. Consequently, the ratio of equity shares underlying the ADSs held by an American Depositary Receipt holder remains unchanged. Options granted under the restricted stock unit plan have been adjusted for bonus shares.

The Board has increased dividend payout ratio from up to 40% to up to 50% of post-tax consolidated profits effective fiscal 2015.

During the year ended March 31, 2015, the amount of dividend per share recognized as distribution to equity shareholder includes ₹30 per share of interim dividend (not adjusted for bonus shares of June 17, 2015 and December 3, 2014) and ₹29.50 per share of final 2016. The Companies (Accounting Standards) Rules, 2016 is effective March 30, 2016. According to the amended rules, the above-mentioned proposed dividend will not be recorded as a liability as at March 31, 2016. (Refer to Para 8.5 of AS-4 – Contingencies and Events occurring after Balance Sheet date). The Company believes, based on a legal opinion, that the Rule 3(2) of the principal rules has not been withdrawn or replaced and accordingly, the Companies (Accounting Standards) Rule, 2016 will apply to the accounting periods commencing on or after March 30, 2016. Therefore the Company has recorded ₹3,939 crore as liability for proposed dividends (including corporate dividend tax) as at March 31, 2016.

In the event of liquidation of the Company, the holders of equity shares will be entitled to receive any of the remaining assets of the Company in proportion to the number of equity shares held by the shareholders, after distribution of all preferential amounts.

Stock option plan

2015 Stock Incentive Compensation Plan

SEBI issued the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Share Based Employee Benefits) Regulations, 2014 ('SEBI Regulations'), which replaced the SEBI ESOP Guidelines, 1999. The 2011 Plan (as explained below) was required to be amended and restated in accordance with the SEBI Regulations. Consequently, to effect this change and to further introduce stock options / ADRs and other stock incentives, the Company put forth the 2015 Stock Incentive Compensation Plan ('the 2015 Plan') for approval to the shareholders of the Company. Pursuant to the approval by the shareholders through a postal ballot which ended on March 31, 2016, the Board of Directors have been authorized to introduce, offer, issue and allot share-based incentives to eligible employees of the Company and its subsidiaries under the 2015 Plan. The maximum number of shares under the 2015 Plan shall not exceed 2,40,38,883 equity shares (this includes 1,12,23,576 equity shares which are currently held by the Trust towards the 2011 Plan). 1,70,38,883 equity shares will be issued as RSUs at par value and 70,00,000 equity shares will be issued as stock options at market price. These instruments will vest over a period of four years and the Company expects to grant the instruments under the 2015 Plan over the period of four to seven years.

2011 RSU Plan

The Company had a 2011 RSU Plan ('the 2011 Plan') which provided for the grant of restricted stock units (RSUs) to eligible employees of the Company. The Board of Directors recommended the establishment of the 2011 Plan to the shareholders on August 30, 2011 and the shareholders approved the recommendation of the Board of Directors on October 17, 2011 through a postal ballot. The maximum aggregate number of shares that may be awarded under the plan was 1,13,34,400 and the plan was expected to continue in effect for a term of 10 years from the date of initial grant under the plan. During the year ended

March 31, 2015, the Company made a grant of 1,08,268 restricted stock units (adjusted for bonus issues) to Dr. Vishal Sikka, Chief Executive Office and Managing Director. The Board, in its meeting held on June 22, 2015, on the recommendation of nomination and remuneration committee, further granted 1,24,061 RSUs to Dr. Vishal Sikka. These RSUs are vesting over a period of four years from the date of the grant in the proportions specified in the award agreement. The RSUs will vest subject to achievement of certain key performance indicators as set forth in the award agreement for each applicable year of the vesting tranche and continued employment through each vesting date. Further, the Company has earmarked 1,00,000 equity shares for welfare activities of the employees, approved by the shareholders through a postal ballot which ended on March 31, 2016. The equity shares currently held under this plan, i.e. 1,12,23,576 equity shares (this includes the aggregate number of equity shares that may be awarded under the 2011 Plan as reduced by 10,824 equity shares already exercised by Dr. Vishal Sikka and 1,00,000 equity shares which have been earmarked for welfare activities of the employees) have been subsumed under the 2015 Plan.

Further, the award granted to Dr. Vishal Sikka on June 22, 2015 was modified by the nomination and remuneration committee on April 14, 2016. There is no modification or change in the total number of RSUs granted or the vesting period (which is four years). The modifications relate to the criteria of vesting for each of the years. Based on the modification, the first tranche of the RSUs will vest subject to achievement of certain key performance indicators for the year ended March 31, 2016. Subsequent vesting of RSUs for each of the remaining years would be subject to continued employment.

In accordance with the SEBI Regulations, 2014, the excess of the closing market price on the grant date of the RSUs over the exercise price is amortized on a straight-line basis over the vesting period.

| Particulars | Year ended March 31, 2016 | | Year ended March 31, 2015 | |
|---|-------------------------------|---------------------------------|-------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| | Shares arising out of options | Weighted average exercise price | Shares arising out of options | Weighted average exercise price |
| The 2011 Plan | | | | |
| Outstanding at the beginning ⁽¹⁾ | 1,08,268 | 5 | – | – |
| Granted | 1,24,061 | 5 | 1,08,268 | 5 |
| Forfeited and expired | – | – | – | – |
| Exercised ⁽¹⁾ | 10,824 | 5 | – | – |
| Outstanding at the end | 2,21,505 | 5 | 1,08,268 | 5 |
| Exercisable at the end | – | – | – | – |

The weighted average remaining contractual life of RSUs outstanding as of March 31, 2016 and March 31, 2015 under the 2011 Plan was 1.98 years and 2.39 years, respectively.

The weighted average share price of options exercised under the 2011 Plan on the date of exercise was ₹1,088.

The differential on stock compensation expense if the 'fair value' of the RSUs on the date of the grant were considered instead of the 'intrinsic value' during the years ended March 31, 2016 and March 31, 2015 is less than ₹1 crore. Consequently, there is no impact on earnings per share.

The fair value for the above impact analysis is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes-Merton model with the following assumptions:

| Particulars | For options granted in fiscal | |
|---|-------------------------------|-----------|
| | 2016 | 2015 |
| Grant date | 22-Jun-15 | 21-Aug-14 |
| Weighted average share price (₹) ⁽¹⁾ | 1,024 | 3,549 |
| Exercise price (₹) ⁽¹⁾ | 5 | 5 |
| Expected volatility (%) | 28-36 | 30-37 |
| Expected life of the option (years) | 1-4 | 1-4 |
| Expected dividends (%) | 2.43 | 1.84 |
| Risk-free interest rate (%) | 7-8 | 8-9 |
| Weighted average fair value as on grant date (₹) ⁽¹⁾ | 948 | 3,355 |

⁽¹⁾ Data for fiscal 2015 is not adjusted for bonus issues

The expected term of an RSU is estimated based on the vesting term and contractual term of the RSU, as well as expected exercise behavior of the employee who receives the RSU. Expected volatility during the expected term of the RSU is based on historical volatility of the observed market prices of the Company's publicly traded equity shares during a period equivalent to the expected term of the RSU.

During the years ended March 31, 2016 and March 31, 2015, the Company recorded an employee compensation expense of ₹7 crore and ₹2 crore in the consolidated Statement of Profit and Loss.

⁽¹⁾ Under the Swiss Code of Obligation, a few subsidiaries of Lodestone are required to appropriate 5% of the annual profit to legal reserve until this equals 20% of the paid-up share capital. To the extent it does not exceed one-half of the share capital, the general reserve may be used only to cover losses or for measures designed to sustain the Company through difficult times, to prevent unemployment or to mitigate its consequences.

⁽²⁾ The Special Economic Zone Re-investment Reserve has been created out of the profit of eligible SEZ units in terms of the provisions of Section 10AA(1)(ii) of the Income-tax Act, 1961. The reserve should be utilized by the Company for acquiring new plant and machinery for the purpose of its business in the terms of the Section 10AA(2) of the Income-tax Act, 1961.

Income from STPs were tax exempt for the first 10 years from the fiscal year in which the unit commenced software development, or March 31, 2011 whichever is earlier. ⁽²⁾ Claims against the Company not acknowledged as debts for the year ended March 31, 2016 include demand from the Indian income tax authorities for payment of tax of ₹4,135 crore (₹3,337 crore), including interest of ₹1,224 crore (₹964 crore) upon completion of their tax assessment for fiscals 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011 (for the year ended March 31, 2015 – upon completion of their tax assessment for fiscals 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2010). These demands were paid to statutory tax authorities which include ₹913 crore paid during the year ended March 31, 2016 consequent to demand from tax authorities in India for fiscal 2011 towards denial of certain tax benefits. The Company has filed an appeal with the income tax appellate authorities.

Demand for fiscals 2007, 2008 and 2009 includes disallowance of a portion of the deduction claimed by the Company under Section 10A of the Income-tax Act as determined by the ratio of export turnover to total turnover. The disallowance arose from certain expenses incurred in foreign currency being reduced from export turnover but not reduced from total turnover. Demand for fiscals 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011 also includes disallowance of portion of profit earned outside India from the STP units under Section 10A of the Income-tax Act and disallowance of profits earned from SEZ units under Section 10AA of the Income-tax Act. The matters for fiscals 2007, 2008 and 2009 are pending before the Commissioner of Income Tax (Appeals) Bangalore. The matter for fiscals 2010 and 2011 is pending before Honorable Income Tax Appellate Tribunal (ITAT) Bangalore. The Company is contesting the demand and the Management including its tax advisors believes that its position will likely be upheld in the appellate process. The Management believes that the ultimate outcome of these proceedings will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position and results of operations.

The Company is subject to legal proceedings and claims, which have arisen in the ordinary course of business. The Management does not reasonably expect that these legal actions, when ultimately concluded and determined, will have a material and adverse effect on the Company's results of operations or financial condition.

2.23 Segment reporting

The Group's operations predominantly relate to providing end-to-end business solutions to enable clients to enhance business performance. During the year ended March 31, 2016, the Group reorganized its segments to enhance executive customer relationships, improve focus of sales investments and increase management oversight. However, the reorganizations did not have any impact in the reportable segments as per AS 17 'Segment reporting' apart from Manufacturing being named as Manufacturing and Hi-tech. Segment information has been presented both along industry classes and geographic segmentation of customers, industry being the primary segment. The accounting principles used in the preparation of the financial statements are consistently applied to record revenue and expenditure in individual segments, and are as set out in the significant accounting policies.

Industry segments for the Company are primarily enterprises in:

- Financial Services and Insurance (FSI)
- Manufacturing and Hi-tech (MFG & HI-TECH)
- Energy & utilities, Communications and Services (ECS)
- Retail, Consumer packaged goods and Logistics (RCL)
- Life Sciences and Healthcare (LSH)

Geographic segmentation is based on business sourced from a specific geographic region and delivered from both onsite and offshore locations. North America comprises the United States of America, Canada and Mexico; Europe includes continental Europe (both the east and the west), Ireland and the United Kingdom; and the Rest of the World comprises all other places except those mentioned above and India.

Revenue and identifiable operating expenses in relation to segments are categorized based on items that are individually identifiable to that segment. Allocated expenses of segments include expenses incurred for rendering services from the Company's offshore software development centers and onsite expenses, which are categorized in relation to the associated turnover of the segment. Certain expenses such as depreciation, which form a significant component of total expenses, are not specifically allocable to specific segments as the underlying assets are used interchangeably. The Management believes that it is not practical to provide segment disclosures relating to those costs and expenses, and accordingly these expenses are separately disclosed as 'unallocated' and adjusted against the total income of the Company.

The fixed assets used in the Company's business or liabilities contracted have not been identified to any of the reportable segments, as the fixed assets and services are used interchangeably between segments. Accordingly, no disclosure relating to total segment assets and liabilities are made. Geographical information on revenue and industry revenue information is collated based on individual customers invoiced or in relation to which the revenue is otherwise recognized.

Corporate

Infosys was incorporated in Pune, in 1981, as Infosys Consultants Private Limited, a private limited company under the Indian Companies Act, 1956. In 1983, the corporate headquarters was relocated to Bangalore. In March 1999, we issued 20,70,000 American Depositary Shares (ADSs) (equivalent to 10,35,000 equity shares of par value ₹10 each) at US$34 per ADS under the ADS Program, and the same were listed on the NASDAQ National Market. All the above data is unadjusted

During fiscal 2012, we changed our name from Infosys Technologies Limited to Infosys Limited to mark the transition from being a technology services provider to a business transformation partner for our clients.

During fiscal 2013, we delisted our ADSs from NASDAQ, and listed the same in the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE), Euronext London and Euronext Paris markets. The delisting and listing was made to leverage the Euronext partnership, since both the U.S. and Europe are home to many of our investors, clients and employees.

The Company's financial year begins on April 1 and ends on March 31, every year. The address of our registered office is Electronics City, Hosur Road, Bangalore 560 100, Karnataka, India.

Investor awareness

We are committed to maintaining the highest standards of corporate governance. In continuation of our efforts in that direction, we have provided a synopsis of some of your rights and responsibilities as a shareholder on our website, www.infosys.com. We encourage you to visit our website and read the document. We hope that the document will give you appropriate guidance, and answer any questions regarding your rights as a shareholder.

Dematerialization of shares and liquidity

Infosys shares are tradable compulsorily in the electronic form. Through Karvy Computershare Private Limited, Registrars and Share Transfer Agents, we have established connectivity with both the depositories, that is, National Securities Depository Limited (NSDL) and Central Depository Services (India) Limited (CDSL). The International Securities Identification Number (ISIN) allotted to our shares under the Depository System is INE009A01021.

As on March 31, 2016, 99.79% of our shares were held in dematerialized form and the rest in physical form.

We were the first company in India to pay a one-time custodial fee of ₹44.43 lakh to NSDL. Consequently, our shareholders do not have to pay depository participants the custodial fee charged by NSDL on their holding.

Shares held in demat and physical mode as on March 31, 2016 are as follows:

| Category | Number of | | % to total equity |
|---------------|--------------|----------------|-------------------|
| | shareholders | shares | |
| Demat mode | | | |
| NSDL | 4,36,166 | 2,26,35,03,390 | 98.54 |
| CDSL | 1,50,144 | 2,86,10,623 | 1.25 |
| Total | 5,86,310 | 2,29,21,14,013 | 99.79 |
| Physical mode | 431 | 48,30,651 | 0.21 |
| Grand total | 5,86,741 | 2,29,69,44,664 | 100 |

To enable us to serve our investors better, we request shareholders whose shares are in the physical mode to dematerialize their shares and update their bank accounts with the respective depository participants.

BUSINESS RESPONSIBILITY REPORT

In everything we do, we try to 'be more' for all our stakeholders. While ensuring maximum profitability and benefit for our shareholders, clients and employees, and working towards the well-being of the larger community around us, we also aim to 'do more with less' when it comes to using finite natural resources. By going beyond the demand of mandates and regulations, by focusing on innovation and continuous learning to be relevant at all times to all stakeholders, we aim to make responsible business one of the most important dimensions of 'being Infosys'. Our Business Responsibility Report (BRR), which we have been publishing as part of our Annual Report since 2012, is one of the channels we use to articulate our commitment and provide details of our activities during the financial year.

The BRR follows the National Voluntary Guidelines on Social, Environmental and Economic Responsibilities of Business, as notified by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA), Government of India. We also publish a comprehensive Sustainability Report annually, independently assured by DNV GL, in accordance with the Global Reporting Initiative's G4 framework. The sustainability report is available at <https://www.infosys.com/sustainability>.

RESPONSIBLE BUSINESS

The vision of Infosys ('the Company') to be a globally-respected corporation continues to be the cornerstone of our governance. This principle also guides our continuous efforts to earn the respect of all our stakeholders. It is, therefore, our responsibility to respect and adhere to ethical practices in all aspects of our business. The Infosys Code of Conduct and Ethics Policy helps maintain the standards of business conduct across the Group and applies to employees, suppliers, vendors, agents, contractors, representatives, consultants or any other third-party agent working on behalf of the Company.

Our values articulate the behavior expected from all employees, contractors and suppliers and are the foundation for all processes and practices.

- Client value: To surpass client expectations consistently
- Leadership by example: To set high standards in our business and transactions, and be an exemplar for the industry
- Integrity and transparency: To be ethical, sincere and open in all our transactions
- Fairness: To be objective and transaction-oriented, and thereby earn trust and respect
- Excellence: To strive relentlessly and constantly improve ourselves, our teams, services and products, and become the best

Ethical conduct: Structures and practices

In line with our core value of 'integrity and transparency', we ensure we satisfy the spirit and the letter of the law. The key dimensions of our corporate governance framework are as follows:

Board governance

The Infosys Board of Directors ('the Board') has developed a robust corporate governance framework to ensure we conduct our business responsibly. The nomination and remuneration committee of the Board is responsible for appointments to the Board. For this, the committee follows a set of criteria based on the belief that an active, diverse, well-informed and independent Board will ensure the highest standards of corporate governance. In line with our principles of corporate governance, the Board oversees how the Management serves and protects the long-term interests of our stakeholders. As on March 31, 2016, the majority of our Board members — seven out of nine — are independent members. We follow the practice of nominating an independent director as the chairperson of our committees, namely, the audit, corporate social responsibility, nomination and remuneration, risk and strategy, stakeholders relationship and finance and investment committees.

For more details, refer to the Corporate governance section of the Annual Report.

Corporate policies

Our corporate governance practices apply across the Infosys Group and extend to our suppliers and partners too. Our code of conduct and ethics complies with the legal requirements of applicable laws and regulations, including anti-bribery and anti-corruption, the ethical handling of conflicts of interest, and the fair, accurate and timely disclosure of reports and documents that are filed with the required regulatory bodies. Every employee attends a session on Company values during his or her induction, and agrees to follow our code of conduct and ethics. Additional policies, such as the Whistleblower Policy and Gift Policy, and the presence of a strong grievance redressal body help us maintain an uncompromising stand on value transgressions.

Enterprise risk management (ERM)

Our ERM framework encompasses practices relating to the identification, assessment, monitoring and mitigation of strategic, operational, and external environment risks to achieve our key business objectives. This is done through periodic review meetings of the risk management committee and the risk council.

For more details, refer to the Risk management section of the Annual Report.

Focus on sustainability

Our sustainability strategy includes economic, environmental and social imperatives, while paying attention to the needs and expectations of our internal and external stakeholders. Our leaders have been championing sustainability initiatives through global forums and bodies. Regular discussions and reviews with the Board and its committees, senior management and other stakeholders help us work consistently towards fulfilling the expectations of our direct and indirect stakeholders.

A sustainability council, headed by our Chief Operating Officer (COO), U. B. Pravin Rao, reviews progress on sustainability actions at regular intervals.

Corporate social responsibility (CSR)

Two trusts, the Infosys Foundation and the Infosys Foundation USA, have been created to take our CSR efforts forward. Our CSR committee comprises R. Seshasayee, (Chairperson), Kiran Mazumdar-Shaw and Dr. Vishal Sikka. A comprehensive CSR Policy articulates our focus on economic development that positively impacts our society with minimal resource footprint.

For more information on our CSR Policy, visit www.infosys.com.

Stakeholder engagement and grievance redressal

Based on discussions and deliberations with the Board, the Management and various committees, we have arrived at the following list of stakeholders who are important to us:

- Clients
- Employees
- Investors
- Vendors / Alliance partners
- Governments / Regulatory bodies
- Local communities

We have various mechanisms to receive and address complaints from stakeholders related to compliance, corruption or bribery. As of March 31, 2016, no stakeholder has filed any case against the Company, nor are any cases pending regarding unfair trade practices, irresponsible advertising and / or anti-competitive behavior.

SUSTAINABLE SERVICES AND SOLUTIONS

Infosys is a leader provider in consulting, technology, outsourcing and next-generation services. When it comes to sustainability, we strive to make:

- Our business sustainable
- Our client's business sustainable
- Our ecosystem sustainable

Our expertise spans industries, from helping build lighter and stronger passenger jets and fuel-efficient cars, to enabling banks to provide financial inclusion to the most remote corners of the globe. In delivering powerful innovations, Infosys changes the way the world works and lives.

Resource efficiency in our IT infrastructure

Hosted in multiple datacenters, our infrastructure and platforms comprise over 2,000 physical and virtual servers, over four petabytes of storage, file share with over 125 million files, state-of-the-art platforms and solutions, including blade servers with interconnect hardware modules, NAS, content archival platform, tape libraries, load balancers, fabric switches, network switches, virtualization platforms, operating systems, database servers, package solutions, middle-tier presentation layers, and data protection layers. It also includes our corporate data, comprising project data, and information pertaining to our employees and other stakeholders.

Over the years, we have transformed our landscape to adopt green IT by leveraging cutting-edge technologies like virtualization and power-efficient hardware components by optimally utilizing our investments. Continuing the journey, our initiatives in fiscal 2016 resulted in power and cooling savings of over 100 KW.

Our next-generation storage cluster solution was designed and deployed using an active cluster which enables faster cluster provisioning by reducing administration effort by more than 50%. We also introduced the latest high-capacity flash accelerator, with each disk having 6.4 terabytes of storage capacity and built-in compression capability of up to eight times. This solution has been instrumental in institutionalizing an economically as well as ecologically sustainable model which has reduced our Total Cost of Ownership (TCO) and carbon footprint. This implementation has helped us reduce datacenter space by more than 80% and power and cooling requirements by more than 75%.

Server virtualization – 85% of our computer infrastructure is virtualized with 100% virtualization of the non-production environment. With this, we have reduced our physical server footprint by 15% in fiscal 2016. The Automated Power Management initiative has resulted in power savings of around 25% per virtual machine.

Fuelling the nation's economic advancement

We continue to work on large transformational projects that significantly impact the socio-economic progress of the country.

- The Income Tax Returns Central Processing Centre, established by Infosys, helps Indian taxpayers file their returns and the government to save millions through improved efficiency. Today, the centre processes about 40 million returns every year, with a radically reduced processing time of 60 days compared to 360 days earlier.
- Infosys' core banking and insurance solutions have enabled the Department of Post in India to provide easy and effective banking and insurance services to rural and semi-rural regions of India. 21,961 post offices provide banking solutions. Over 557 million accounts have been migrated to the system till date. Around 858 ATMs have also been enabled to service India Post customers. 25,448 post offices have been enabled to provide insurance policies, and 29 million policies have been migrated to the new system till date.
- Our multi-pronged solution covering metering, billing, collections and customer servicing, has helped reduce the Aggregate Technical and Commercial (AT&C) losses in electricity transmission in Karnataka, India.
- The eBiz portal developed by Infosys is one of the 31 Mission Mode Projects (MMPs) under the National eGovernance Plan (NeGP). An initiative by the Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion, eBiz is a one-of-its-kind portal conceived to bring about a radical shift in the government's service delivery approach in order to improve 'Ease of Doing Business' in India. Another milestone was reached this year with the launch of composite application form (CAF) covering 14 state services for Odisha, India. Currently, the portal hosts over 50 services, including 21 central services and 30 state services (14 each for Andhra Pradesh and Odisha, and two for Delhi).
- Infosys is the System Integrator for MCA21 project, another MMP of the Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA) under NeGP. The MCA portal maintained by Infosys provides stakeholders with easy, secure and speedy access of all MCA services with transparency and efficiency.
- In January 2016, MCA in partnership with Infosys, launched the Central Registration Centre (CRC), a Government Process Re-engineering (GPR) initiative set up with the objective of providing speedy incorporation services for businesses and start-ups in line with the best global practices. Restructured solutions / processes and enhanced automation have helped 100% of applications to be processed within a day, compared to seven to 10 days before the initiative was launched.

Including the visually-challenged

Of the 285 million visually-challenged people in the world, nearly 90% is from the developing world. For the visually-challenged, Braille helps drive literacy, which in turn ensures intellectual freedom, personal security, employment, and financial independence. At Infosys, we studied the existing tools that are widely used in schools to generate Braille. After extensive research and feedback from users, we concluded that conventional tools often lead to physical strain and discomfort, is time consuming, not portable, thus hampering the overall learning experience of the individual.

Infosys conceptualized, designed and developed a new product called Drushti (meaning 'sight'). Drushti is a high-performance, reliable, low-cost, low-maintenance electronic notes maker specially designed to address the problems of traditional Braille devices. Drushti can be used for reading, writing and storing data. It enables users to navigate, manage, edit and print data using an audio feedback mechanism. Drushti can interface with external devices like computers, keyboards, printers, speakers, headphones and flash drives and has the potential to revolutionize the inclusion and integration of the visually-challenged into society.

Supply chain : Sustainable practices

To strengthen responsible business practices in our supply chain, a four-stage integrated framework called Visioning, Inculcating, Valuing, and Assessing (VIVA), was conceptualized in 2013 and is in the early stages of deployment. A comprehensive engagement model, called 3I – Involve, Influence and Inform allows us to meaningfully engage with our suppliers on material aspects. The proportion of spending for domestic suppliers at significant locations was about 79% in fiscal 2016.

For more information on responsible supply chain, visit our website www.infosys.com.

Although recycling of products is not directly applicable to us, Infosys has a robust Environment Policy focusing on energy, emissions, water and waste.

For more details, refer to the Environment section of this report.

Health and safety

Ozone, our Health, Safety and Environmental Management System (HSEMS), is designed to comply with all applicable legal requirements and exceed these expectations wherever we operate. It helps provide a secure working environment for our employees, assets and operations against all HSE risks. The initiative also keeps employees, contractors and others well informed, trained and committed to our HSE process. Most of our campuses in India are OHSAS 18001:2007 certified.

The significant dimensions of Ozone are as follows:

Risk management: This includes the identification of hazards, including new or modified activities, products and services, the implementation of measures to minimize or control impacts, and monitoring them in a structured way. Our workstations and furniture are designed to mitigate ergonomic risks prevalent in our sector. Physiotherapists are available at most campuses in India and conduct regular sessions on ergonomics and work-related injuries.

Safety committees: The Occupational Health and Safety (OH&S) committee in each of our campuses comprises employee representatives and members of the Management and cross-functional teams. The committee brings employees and the Management together in a non-adversarial, cooperative effort to promote OH&S at the workplace. Our employees are actively involved in suggesting and implementing changes to the HSE Policy.

Training: The HSE training needs are identified for different personnel based on the nature of their jobs. Accordingly, training – including awareness sessions, mock drills, classroom sessions and periodic demonstrations – is provided to all employees and contractual staff. HSEMS training is also a part of our employee-induction programs. E-learning modules have also been rolled out for creating awareness.

Audits and assessments: Periodic reviews and audits of the HSEMS are conducted for evaluating the HSE performance as well as suitability and effectiveness of processes and programs in achieving objectives and targets in line with the HSE Policy and standards.

Incident reporting and investigation: Incidents can be reported by employees through an internal application and an email reporting mechanism. Incidents reported are investigated, analyzed and corrective actions and preventive measures are taken to reduce future injury and losses. The investigations focus on root causes and system failures. The OH&S committee conducts the investigations.

Health, assessment and lifestyle enrichment (HALE)

HALE focuses on an employee’s health, safety, emotional wellness, quality of life and work environment. Striving to improve organizational productivity through healthy employees, the HALE team has held several health interventions, leisure interventions and innumerable awareness and information campaigns. HALE aims to build a workforce that is healthy, productive and able to balance work and life.

Promoting employee morale, skill upgradation and career development

All our employees are covered under competency development programs that are relevant to their role in the organization. Our Competency Development Program 3.1 (CDP 3.1) brings relevance and flexibility to competency development for a role along multiple competency dimensions. Our continuous education programs span technology, domain, business, process and behavior. We also have specialized programs for senior leadership.

We provide training to all employees without differentiating on grounds of gender or physical ability. Our Education, Training and Assessment (ETA) group offers industry-benchmarked learning programs to ensure talent enablement. ETA has over 2,000 learning offerings and interventions including training on technical, managerial and process skills, industry domain knowledge and leadership skills for employees and our strategic clients. New offerings such as, Design Thinking (dT) workshops have been added to meet the strategic needs of the Company. ETA focuses on talent development, and facilitates the foundation, continuous education and outreach programs, along with dT sessions.

Scope: The senior leadership has specialized enabling programs, such as, coaching, mentoring and one-on-one development, which are not included in the above table.

This year, we revamped our performance management system by moving from a ‘forced ranking’ model to an ‘open ranking’ model. Under this system, we provided more flexibility to managers to appraise employees based on clearly-defined tasks with a pronounced focus on rewards for performance. We also launched ‘Compass’, a digital platform to mobilize opportunities on careers, learning and networks. It is a self-service portal which allows employees to create a personalized and humanized profile, access opportunities and leverage organizational resources to find the right expertise, self-directed learning opportunities and projects. Through Compass, we aim to empower employees to design their own journey within the organization by enabling them with the right information, support structure and access.

Integrating stakeholder feedback

Materiality determination

We determine materiality through engagement with our stakeholders across various forums.

Strategy action and planning (STRAP)

STRAP, our annual strategy planning conclave, is one of the key forums that brings all our senior leaders to one platform to deliberate our business strategy and implementation. At STRAP,

- Perspectives in strategy formulation and implementation are invited from a cross-section of employees including the Voice of Youth. The invigorating sessions see a vast flow of ideas as well as data from both internal and external sources such as, Customer Satisfaction Surveys (CSAT), Employee Satisfaction Surveys (ESAT) and Vendor Satisfaction Surveys (VSAT).
- Also discussed at STRAP is the Company's progress on its environmental and social goals.

Post STRAP, the strategy and implementation plans are communicated to the larger organization through news updates, mailers, blogs, etc.

Sustainability disclosures

In keeping with our commitment to make regular and focused sustainability disclosures:

- We participate in various assessments including the Carbon Disclosure Project (CDP), the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), the Dow Jones Sustainability Index (DJSI), and national and international awards for our Green Initiatives.
- These assessments and awards help us benchmark our practices and learn from other practitioners as well.
- Our compliance and risk management office periodically evaluates our business according to global regulatory requirements to ensure organizational preparedness.

Engaging with local and marginalized communities

The Infosys Foundation, established in 1996, supports the less privileged sections of society across India. The Foundation prides itself in working for the disadvantaged, selecting projects with care and working in areas that are otherwise neglected.

In fiscal 2016, the Foundation worked on numerous projects to support marginalized communities.

The highlights of this year's projects are as follows:

- Working with the Ramakrishna Mission to develop a school that is expected to benefit 2,400 tribal students (1,800 in the in-campus higher secondary school and 600 in 16 non-formal schools) in Arunachal Pradesh.
- A partnership with Prerana, a Mumbai-based NGO, to end inter-generational prostitution by providing shelter, health and education to children living in red-light areas. Around 5,000 children have benefitted from the project till date.
- Setting up and running of a fodder-distribution center in partnership with Ramakrishna Sevashrama in the drought-hit district of Pavagada, Karnataka.
- Infrastructure development for the Ramakrishna Mission hospital in Itanagar, expected to benefit over 700 patients every day.

For more information on the work done by the Foundation, visit : <https://www.infosys.com/infosys-foundation/>.

In order to build responsible citizenship, we provide a platform to employees to engage in social and environmental initiatives of their choice. The Awards for Excellence, the highest recognition in the Company, has a category for Social Consciousness that rewards employee action in the space.

We also work closely with the local community at all our development centers across the country on a host of initiatives covering education, healthcare, and rural development. In Bangalore for instance, we work with the local community through the Electronics City Industries Association (ELCIA) Trust. Apart from being one of the largest contributors to the Trust, Infosys also engages, through its employee volunteers, in a host of local initiatives.

ELCIA's flagship program aims to strengthen the quality of education available to over 5,800 children studying in 17 government schools. In the last fiscal, we supported the Model School program which focuses on five specific areas – school infrastructure development (drinking water, classrooms and toilets), libraries, faculty enablement and development, computer education, and curriculum enhancement (including initiatives promoting sports, sex education, moral science and sustainability).

Such efforts are not limited to Bangalore. In Chennai, we supported over 60 villages around our Mahindra City campus during the floods in December 2015 by sending relief materials and helping people in rescue camps.

RESPECTING HUMAN RIGHTS

Infosys is a signatory to the United Nations Global Compact (UNGC) and we adhere to the fundamental principles of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UNHRC). Our Human Rights statement guides our policies and practices dealing with our operations, partnerships, contracts and investment agreements.

Human rights laws and guidelines are respected and followed across our operations. While mutual agreements assure stakeholders such as, vendors and suppliers, of protection against human rights violations, all our employees are introduced to these policies during induction. Periodic evaluation is conducted to reduce risk of violations at all levels.

Human rights: Best practices

Infosys created a Human Rights Statement as part of the UNGC pact. This statement guides the policies and practices related to our operations, partnerships, investment agreements and contracts. It also explains the Company's stand on compliance with global norms in providing a harassment-free workplace, freedom of association, workplace health and safety, and anti-corruption safeguards. A stringent internal and independent review through work councils and a comprehensive governance framework ensures that we are compliant with current and ongoing best practices related to human capital. We have about 14,000 contractual staff, of which close to 12,000 are from the local community. They are responsible for activities, such as housekeeping, security and maintenance services. There is a bi-monthly audit of our supplier agencies to check compliance with various labor laws such as, the Minimum Wages Act, Payment of Wages Act, Payment of Bonus Act, Payment of Gratuity Act, Employees' State Insurance (ESI) and Employees' Provident Fund (EPF). We have established grievance forums for our contractual staff to ensure their issues and concerns are heard and resolved.

We have various grievance redressal channels to deal with issues related to discrimination, retaliation and harassment. The complainants are assured of complete anonymity and confidentiality. All geographies are governed by the Global Policy on Prevention and Redressal of Harassment at Infosys. The Policy on Prevention and Redressal of Sexual Harassment specific to India is applicable to India locations and is a supplement to the Company's Global Policy and is in compliance with The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 and the Ministry of Women and Child Development Notification dated December 19, 2013. The Company has constituted internal complaints committees in all our development centers in India to address complaints of sexual harassment raised by women employees. The constitution of the committee is as per the Act and includes external members from NGOs or persons familiar with issues relating to sexual harassment. All sexual harassment complaints can be raised by writing to GRB@infosys.com.

Providing a conducive work environment

We adhere to the OHSAS 18001:2007 specifications, which ensure that all our objectives with regard to providing a safe, healthy and conducive work environment for our employees, contractors and visitors, are measured. We are committed to ensuring safety at our construction sites and continue to engage with our construction suppliers through training, audits and safety checks. Some welfare initiatives such as providing clean drinking water and adequate infrastructure have been launched at all our construction sites with the aim to improve the workers' living conditions.

For more details on grievances and harassment, refer to the Enhancing employee value section of this report.

BEING MORE ENVIRONMENT CONSCIOUS

Sustainability is a business imperative at Infosys. Our environmental goals are part of our corporate scorecard. This has resulted in significant investments in technology and research partnerships to create new solutions that are sustainable for the environment.

Conservation of resources

Energy

With highly efficient building designs, smart building automation and deep green retrofits, we are on our way to achieving our goal of reducing 50% of our per capita electricity use by 2018 against the baseline established in 2008. Our central command center in Bangalore now manages about 45 million sq. ft. of built-up area across our campuses in India. The Mysore campus has a second command center to manage operations across Infosys on a regular basis. We continue to share our data driven best practices to mainstream energy-efficient technologies and initiatives along with shaping a low-carbon path for the benefit of the larger community.

One of our greatest achievements this year has been the addition of solar capacity at our 450-acre Hyderabad SEZ campus making the campus 100% powered by solar energy. We have installed a 6.6 MW solar photovoltaic plant capable of generating 12 million units annually on this campus, which currently seats about 15,000 employees. This plant was set up in a 50 acre space within the campus. As part of our commitment to source 100% of our electricity from renewables, in fiscal 2016 we have installed solar power plants of 9.7 MW capacity across our campuses. This takes our total installed capacity to about 12 MW of solar power plants across our campuses in India.

This fiscal, we were awarded the – LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) India Platinum rating for two of our buildings in Pune and Bangalore, and GRIHA (Green Rating for Integrated Habitat Assessment) 5-star rating for two of our buildings in Hyderabad. With this, we now have 14 LEED Platinum-rated buildings and four buildings with GRIHA 5-star rating covering an area of about 5.25 million sq. ft. that has the highest level of green certification.

We have implemented one of the world's largest energy-efficiency retrofit programs in our buildings across different locations in India.

This initiative continues and has expanded, leading to drastic reductions in energy use. The deep-green retrofits in air conditioning and UPS systems have helped us achieve a 16 MW and 12 MW reduction respectively in connected load in the last five years

The Infosys Command Center in Bangalore manages about 45 million sq. ft. of area across our campuses and for fiscal 2016, air conditioning retrofits alone have led to a 2.5 MW reduction in the connected load. Most of the retrofits implemented have a payback of less than three years and can be easily replicated in large scale, making sound commercial as well as environmental sense. Through this, we have set a great example to other large businesses in India and worldwide.

Emissions

We strive to reduce our carbon emissions through specific initiatives and taking this further, we have made a voluntary commitment to become carbon neutral. To offset our scope 1 and 3 emissions, we made a conscious choice to source our offsets from community projects that create real and lasting socio-economic benefits. By supporting such projects throughout its lifecycle, we are not only catalyzing these projects, but also creating socio-economic value. This fiscal, we started three carbon offset projects including a household biogas project and two high-efficiency biomass cook stove projects. Together, they will generate approximately 30% of our carbon offset requirement in 2017-18.

Water

All of our new buildings are designed with the most optimal standard of fresh water requirement – 16 liters per capita per day, which is nearly 65% lower compared to the requirement of the National Building Code.

This has been achieved with our strategy to reduce consumption with water efficient technologies and equipment, recycle 100% of the waste water and reuse treated waste water for flushing, landscaping and cooling purposes within the campus.. We have worked towards measures to sequester rainwater to the maximum possible levels and today, we have 149 recharge wells and 25 lakes that enable recharging groundwater across our campuses. We ensure that the efficiency is maintained by continuous monitoring of water consumption through smart water metering. Our massive smart water metering program enables us to monitor all our water consumption online from a central location and has helped us plan water efficiency programs.. These initiatives have resulted in significant reduction in the per capita fresh water consumption across our campuses. It has also fetched benefits like reduced dependence on municipal supply of water, minimized operational business risks and at the same time enhanced water access to others.

Waste

Our initiatives are spread across three dimensions – influencing social behavior, process optimization and the implementation of technology. We have installed biogas plants to convert food waste into biogas, organic waste converters to convert food and garden waste into rich manure and a vermi-composting system for paper waste, among other initiatives. This year, we installed biogas plants of 5.5 tons per day capacity in different campuses to convert food waste into biogas that was then used in the kitchen of our food courts. This has a potential to save about 300 kilograms of cooking gas (LPG) per day.

Biodiversity

We believe that a rich biodiversity plays a vital role in the creation of a healthy and sustainable environment. We make every effort to conserve and promote biodiversity at all our owned facilities and encourage our employees and stakeholders to do the same. We have planted over 80,000 saplings this year alone, taking the total number of saplings planted in our campuses in the last eight years to over 5,00,000, resulting in a rich diversity of flora and fauna.

Being a responsible corporate citizen

Protection of the environment ranks high among our corporate goals and as a responsible corporate citizen, we are committed to have a specific policy in place to ensure we take definite steps to protect the environment. Our Health, Safety and Environment (HSE) policy – that regularly shares best practices and provides a safe and healthy workplace for our employees, contractors and visitors – is testimony to this effort. The policy is made available to all our employees worldwide on Sparsh (our intranet), and as posters and instructions on digital and physical display areas across our campuses. We have received ISO 14001:2004 and OHSAS 18001 certification for 77% of our locations in India. Our objectives and targets have been documented at the corporate and development center levels and is monitored and tracked at regular intervals. We also have operational controls for impact management based on severity.

We did not have any monetary or non-monetary sanctions imposed on us for non-compliance with environmental laws and regulations during fiscal 2016.

ADVOCATING CHANGE FOR A BETTER TOMORROW

Infosys believes it has a role to play in building and nurturing a better world – a world of opportunity for everyone. Our advocacy efforts are guided by the maxim, 'practice what you preach'. This ensures that we share learning and best practices and support efforts in areas where we have consistently experimented and got positive results within the organization.

Our disclosures serve as a means of sharing organizational performance and best practices with all our stakeholders. They are also intended to invite a sharing of perspectives from other corporations and endeavors. Our modes of disclosure are:

- Publishing our financial reports, prepared according to the Indian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) and International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) (in the Indian rupee and U.S. dollar terms). We also publish the 20-F, according to the guidelines of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC)
- Publishing our Business Responsibility Report and the Sustainability Report annually, in adherence to international and national guidelines such as, the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) framework and the National Voluntary Guidelines (NVGs) laid out by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA), Government of India
- Nominating ourselves for awards, assessments and ratings of reputed national and international agencies

We forge strategic partnerships with industry bodies and consortiums at the local, national and international levels. Our advocacy efforts are championed across the world by our senior leaders.

Advocacy initiatives

In an effort to drive advocacy globally and locally, we have been part of governance bodies of national and international organizations across economic, social and environmental dimensions this fiscal. Some of our significant contributions are as follows:

Environmental advocacy

We are a member of the Energy Efficiency in Buildings (EEB) core group under the World Business Council for Sustainable Development (WBCSD). Through WBCSD, we actively engage with other companies to promote energy-efficient designs and practices in buildings. In fiscal 2016, we partnered with WBCSD to develop a toolkit – a guide to making a business case for saving energy in buildings. The toolkit was launched on December 3, 2015 as part of Buildings Day at Conference of Parties (COP21). For more details, visit <http://www.eeb-toolkit.com/index.php/modal-case-study-infosys-modal>.

For the first time in over 20 years of UN negotiations, a legally-binding universal agreement to keep global warming below two degrees was attempted at COP21, convened in Paris in November 2015. Infosys' case study on energy efficiency in buildings was highlighted at the India pavilion of the conference.

We are actively involved with the Central and state governments to effect policy reforms in the power and renewable energy sectors. We presented our work on environmental sustainability to the Ministry of Urban Development in India along with recommendations on efficient buildings.

Social advocacy

- Diversity and inclusion has always been an area of focus at Infosys and a work environment that is fair to all is intrinsic to the Infosys value system. Infosys is a founding member of Business Disability International (BDI) – a not-for-profit social enterprise in partnership with other like-minded partners such as Barclays and GSK – that pioneers new conversations between businesses, people with disabilities and the society at large.
- We constantly work towards creating strong local governance in cities where Infosys campuses are located. For example, we led the formation of the Electronics City Industries Association (ELCIA) in Electronics City, Bangalore, our headquarters.
- In February 2013, Electronics City was recognized for its outstanding work in the area of municipal administration and was declared an industrial township. Infosys plays a leadership role within the Electronics City Industrial Township Authority (ELCITA) – the local municipality run and managed by the industry – which manages all municipal functions of the estate, including transport, security, estate management, development of infrastructure, water supply and solid waste management.
- The model of working in collaboration with other companies and local governments to build supportive ecosystems for the industry as a whole, is prevalent across all our India locations.

Earth 360, our virtual reality experience zone at WEF 2016, Davos, Switzerland

Economic advocacy

We challenged ourselves to 'Be More' at the World Economic Forum Annual Meeting 2016 in Davos. Our program, entitled Amplifying Human Potential, closely aligned with the WEF headline theme of 'The Fourth Industrial Revolution' and we amplified our views via insights and debate on technology, education and skills. The Infosys delegation was led by Dr. Vishal Sikka and included Vandana Sikka, Chairperson, Infosys Foundation USA, and global segment leads Sandeep Dadlani, Mohit Joshi, and Rajesh K. Murthy. Together we had three main objectives:

- Articulate our vision of creating a better future for humanity through technology and education
- Share highlights from our research programme entitled 'Amplifying Human Potential: Education and Skills for the Fourth Industrial Revolution'
- Enable meaningful engagement and rich discussion with customers and influencers

INCLUSIVE GROWTH

Infosys has always given high importance to community development through four major dimensions of community engagement — monetary support, organization-led projects, employee-driven initiatives and community sabbaticals. For details on our CSR spending during fiscal 2016, refer to Annexure 7 to the Board's report.

Monetary support

The Infosys Foundation ('the Foundation') was established in 1996 to encourage and support programs and organizations devoted to uplifting the economically disadvantaged sections of the society.

The Foundation has robust processes to select, monitor and assess impacts of various projects. The highlights of the work done by the Foundation is available on our website, : <https://www.infosys.com/infosys-foundation/>.

With the U.S. being our largest market, setting up the Infosys Foundation USA was imperative to focus on supporting causes and initiatives in the areas of education and technology inclusivity in that region. The Infosys Foundation USA supports several leading Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) and community-building initiatives, particularly for the under-represented communities.

Infosys Prize 2015 winners with the President of India, Pranab Mukherjee, and Infosys founders, N. R. Narayana Murthy and S. D. Shibulal

Organization-led projects

Education is one of our priority areas and we have channelized our organization-led projects to promote primary, secondary and higher education initiatives across the country. We work closely with educational institutions with an additional focus on remote areas and the less privileged sections to improve access to quality education. In an effort to encourage students from rural India to pursue higher education, we provide scholarships, fund infrastructure for government schools and train the teachers of schools and colleges.

Infosys Science Foundation

The Infosys Science Foundation (ISF) was set up by Infosys and some of its management in 2009 to encourage the pursuit and practice of the sciences. The Infosys Prize, governed by the ISF, recognizes some of the finest research connected to India. The prize winners, who go on to serve as role models for young researchers and scholars, are awarded a purse of ₹65 lakh (tax-free in India) and a citation by a globally-renowned jury across six fields. The winners for 2015 were felicitated by the President of India, Pranab Mukherjee. They are:

Jurors and winners of the Infosys Prize give public talks about their work under the ISF Lecture Series initiative. The ISF also piloted Gnanadeepa, a program to train educators on how to impart science and math concepts so students will grasp them better. The ISF also hosts public contests, school events and media debates to promote a healthy discussion around science and research in the country.

Campus Connect

Campus Connect (CC), launched in May 2004, is a first-of-its-kind industry-academia partnership program that aims at raising the employability of India's engineering students. Through CC, we seek to share some of our best practices with engineering colleges, thus aligning the needs of institutions, faculty and students with those of the IT industry.

We also work with autonomous engineering institutions across the country to co-create industry electives in foundational computer science, soft skills and advanced topics, such as business intelligence and enterprise architecture. Many of these have already been included in the curricula of these institutions.

Apart from classroom sessions, the program organizes conclaves, road shows at institutions, faculty enablement programs, industrial visits for students and faculty, seminars and workshops, programming contests for students, sabbaticals, technical events, research paper sponsorships and soft-skills training for students and faculty members.

Over the last 12 years, a total of 3,71,639 students and 13,111 faculty have been covered as part of the CC initiatives. Out of 317 CC partner colleges, at least 122 engineering colleges have introduced the program as an elective for their students, thereby integrating software engineering concepts and practices into the engineering curriculum.

Here is a quick snapshot of some of our efforts :

Inspire: The CC faculty partnership model

Faculty members play a vital role in CC engagement and hence, it is imperative for us to strengthen the partnership with them. Inspire is a platform to boost the partnership between Infosys and faculty members of CC partnering institutions. It is also a celebration of excellence where faculty members get recognized and rewarded for their outstanding contribution to this program and events. It provides an opportunity for the faculty to visualize and accomplish a growth path with Infosys in terms of contributions to CC, strengthening the mutual relationship and in the process availing more competency development offerings from us.

SPARK

SPARK is a one-day program to raise aspirations of students across India. Launched in 2008, the SPARK portfolio includes three programs – the Rural Reach Program, Catch Them Young and SPARK – Guru. As part of SPARK, we engaged with over 12,654 students during fiscal 2016. Since its launch in 2008, the program has reached over 9,29,114 students.

Rural Reach Program (RRP)

This one-day program builds awareness about computers and the power of IT among students in rural India. Personal computers are donated to government schools within a 50 km to 150 km radius of our campuses. Based on the end-of-use earmarked for these computers, the schools are also provided the necessary guidance for the safe disposal of e-waste.

Catch Them Young (CTY)

This 10-day summer vacation program held on our campuses, opens up the world of IT to the bright urban youth. Meritorious students from the ninth grade are selected through a test and trained by members of our ETA department.

SPARK – Guru

This program focuses on augmenting the knowledge of teachers from government schools along with enhancing their teaching skills in keeping with the current industry needs.

Employee-driven initiatives

Building responsible citizens, we believe is the best gift we can give the world. Consequently, we provide platforms at all our development centers to encourage employees to become involved with and work on social and environmental projects of their choice. This platform also allows employees to come together to reaffirm their commitment to carrying out their civic responsibilities.

When Chennai experienced unprecedented rainfall in December 2015 causing severe floods, volunteers from our Chennai development center supported over 60 villages by sending relief materials to the affected areas and attended to the needs of people, who had lost their homes. Joining hands with the Confederation of Indian Industries (CII), we provided high-capacity pumps to the state government to drain out flood water.

Community sabbatical

Our employees are encouraged to take a break from work to participate in and lead community development projects through the Sabbatical policy for community service launched in October 2008. During this time, they receive half their salary and are given the choice to return to normal work, after completion of the project, within six months to one year. Till date, 56 employees have availed of the community sabbatical option.

ADDING VALUE TO CLIENTS

Infosys enables clients in more than 50 countries to stay ahead of emerging business trends and outperform their competition. Our experience gives our clients a distinct advantage. In addition to transforming their business, we efficiently manage their operations. We deliver business value in global scalability, process efficiency and cost optimization for our clients

Our solutions and services rely more on intellectual assets than on physical ones. All our marketing communications including advertising, promotions and sponsorships comply with the relevant laws of the country that we operate in. In addition, our guidelines clearly state our brand strategy, architecture and every aspect of our distinct brand philosophy.

We have stringent processes and practices to ensure that data privacy is maintained. The global nature of our operations may require that personal data, originating from a region with stringent data privacy laws, may be processed in another part of the world with an emerging privacy regulatory regime. It is, therefore, imperative that, regardless of the location of data processing, adequate measures around personal data processing are deployed to not only strengthen our compliance to applicable data protection laws, but also to create stakeholder trust and confidence.

A dedicated data privacy group and a cross-functional Information Security Council, headed by the COO, U. B. Pravin Rao, ensure data privacy compliance in our client engagements and the highest level of sponsorship for it. As we cater to client organizations from diverse industries such as, banking, retail, telecom and healthcare, the scope of privacy and data protection for personal data of individual consumers is often limited to contractual requirements agreed upon with our clients, and subsequently deployed during project execution. Our clients translate applicable data protection laws into contractual requirements, wherever appropriate and Infosys implements necessary and sufficient measures to comply with these requirements. In fiscal 2016, three incidents relating to breach of customer data privacy were reported. All incidents have been addressed and closed.

Client engagement

We interact with our clients on a regular basis and across multiple platforms. We also host premier CXO-level events annually in Europe and the Americas, which are specifically designed for our BPO clients and for the banking clients of Finacle.

The forums that have been set up to engage and strengthen our partnerships with clients are as follows:

- Client satisfaction surveys
- Engagement level feedback
- Client visits and meetings
- Quarterly business reviews
- Sustainability portal on our website, www.infosys.com
- Conclaves and workshops
- Analyst meets

We have a robust approach to receive feedback from clients and understand their expectations. We also gather 'feedforward' that allows us to understand the client's expectations and needs and helps us make the right investment decisions.

Our annual Client Value Survey (CVS) and Engagement level feedback help us take corrective actions, gain insights and understand our clients better. The CVS framework includes a structured questionnaire with a satisfaction rating on a seven-point scale, encompassing close to 30 parameters, with language versions in English, French, German, Japanese and Spanish.

Feedback is collected through a web survey hosted by an independent organization ensuring the confidentiality of the information shared.

The survey model focuses on:

- Expectation and fulfillment – the top three expectations of CXOs and senior-level respondents and their perception on fulfillment
- Client disposition – Gauging the overall experience of working with us
- Business and technology priorities along with expectations
- Service line feedback
- Comparison with best-of-breed firms – client-selected benchmarks
- Clustering clients into homogeneous groups to ensure a differential approach

Feedback from the survey informs various change initiatives in the organization.

The data gathered is analyzed statistically to classify clients into core, moderate and breakaway groups. The account teams are then facilitated to review their relationships with individual clients and to design interventions that create a positive and visible impact on our clients. Various members across levels engage with clients to seek their feedback and inputs on service delivery, product expectations and technology requirements.

Overall, the client experience has remained at similar levels as last year. There has been a notable improvement in experience among the CXOs when compared to the previous year.

Engagement level feedback (ELF)

ELF is a periodic survey, and is done multiple times during the course of a project. It covers 14 different parameters and includes areas such as, service delivery management, the quality of products or services delivered, and behavioral competencies of team members involved in the engagement.

Our delivery and quality teams collaborate to study and evaluate a set of parameters during an engagement with an aim to improve the quality of deliverables and obtain client satisfaction. ELF is also treated as the lead indicator in our annual CVS. Based on the account-level ELF, the client partner and the delivery anchor drive improvement programs for the account.
