Dear stakeholder,

UNITED NATIONS GLOBAL COMPACT COMMITMENT

Our commitment to the United Nations Global Compact (UNGC) commenced in 2001. We are pleased to reaffirm that commitment and pledge our support for the ten principles and the 21 criterion of the advanced level programme.

Sasol's purpose, as a leading integrated global chemical and energy company, is to create superior value for our customers, shareholders and other stakeholders. We also aim to create sustainable value through the delivery on our growth projects. Our efforts to deliver this are guided by the principles of the UNGC. Over the course of our participation we have worked to embed the ten principles into the way we do business and continually strive to improve our performance.

The review of our strategy and performance, provided in our Integrated Report 2017 and supplemented with our online sustainability reporting demonstrate our commitment to the principles of the UNGC.

The highlights of our achievements are contained within the Communication on Progress (COP), also uploaded on the UNGC website.

We continue to view the UNGC as a valuable guide to Sasol's operations and we are pleased to pledge our active support and engagement.

Sincerely,

Bongani Nqwababa
