Objet To whom it may concern

We recognize that a key requirement for participation in the Global Compact is the annual submission of a Communication on Progress (COP) that comprises of a statement of continued support for the Global Compact, a description of practical actions that our company has taken since our last COP, and a measurement of outcomes or expected outcomes.

We are late in creating, sharing and posting our COP report and we apology for this.

In conjunction with our global responsibility programme, we've already undertaken within our company, a number of initiatives. Our dedicated project manager, being on maternity leave, we haven't had yet the time to formalize these in a document.

In the meantime, we have published our white book about brand awareness from an environmental, economical and social point of vue, as well as ten newsletters talking about internal and external communication best practice.

Our company recently changed it's corporate identity. We are currently updating all our printed materials before forwarding them to you. In the meantime, you will find enclosed a copy of our white book as well as a couple of newsletters as part of our commitment.

We hereby ask for an extension period in order to be able to submit a COP that describes our company's efforts and progress to implement the ten principles of the Global Compact. Our new COP report will be posted on the Global Compact website by Thursday, 25 June 2009 at the latest.

Sincerely yours,

Arno Lebrunet
