Dear Mr. Secretary-General,

I am pleased to confirm that Jutlandia Terminal A/S still supports the ten principles of the Global Compact with respect to human rights, labour, environment and anti-corruption. communication, we express our intent to advance those principles within our sphere of influence. We are committed to making the Global Compact and its principles part of the strategy, culture and day-to-day operations of our company, and to engaging in collaborative projects which advance the broader development goals of the United Nations, particularly the Millennium Development Goals. Jutlandia Terminal A/S will make a clear statement of this commitment to our stakeholders and the general public.

We recognize that a key requirement for participation in the Global Compact is the annual submission of a Communication on Progress (COP) that describes our company's efforts to implement the ten principles. We support public accountability and transparency, and therefore commit to report on progress within one year of joining the Global Compact, and annually thereafter according to the Global Compact COP policy.

During the past year we have worked actively with the ten principles and are proud to announce that we have achieved:

Human rights

We have introduced Global Compact to all our customers, and make secure that all our suppliers respect human rights and set up goal for achievements for the following year.

Labour

We have introduced Global Compact to all our customers, and make secure that all our suppliers respect labour rights and set up goal for achievements for the following year.

Environment

We have introduced Global Compact to all our customers, and make secure that all our suppliers respect the Environment and set up goal beyond legal requirement for the following year.

Anticorruption

We have introduced Global Compact to all our customers, and make secure that all our suppliers respect the anticorruption and set up goal beyond legal requirement for the following year.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Kristian Svarrer
Adm. Director
