SUBJECT: Short Report about ASMS activities in 2012

In 2012 ASMS has followed the rules of UN Global Compact, and has started several projects in collaboration with other NGO's and private companies.

In this moment ASMS has a partnership relations with 417 companies (world wide), more than 33 institutions (universities, ministries etc.) and 22 NGO's. Also 4 members are accredited in different working Groups of EU Parliament.

1. We had continue our project Book's Aid - delivery of the book's world wide. On this way, we deeply believe, we can support educational basis for youth and poor people. If 21st century is a century of knowledge than we must (all of us) do our best to help youth & poor people to develop different kind of skills, so that this population groups can easily find a job.
2. We had started a new project „Help for companies“. Through this project we are helping companies to be more social responsible; to provide a concrete help to the poor, female, youth; to be more dedicated to the Climate Protection and natural resources Protection.
3. In the Swiss we had started 2 projects: Glamshine and Education for young people: car repair and better driving practices.

Glamshine is a project for unemployed females. Through this project females can learn how to start a own small business and how to earn a money.

Education for young people: car repair – is a project for a youth. Through this project each one can learn how to „self-repair“ own car. Second segment of this project is to help and additionally learn a young population to be more careful in a trafficking. Importance of this project is a huge, because statistic evidence of car accidents and crashes are extremely worrying. Every day more and more young lives are lost in car traffic accidents.

4. In meantime ASMS has been accepted as a member in UN Global Compact Local Networks in Canada, Mexico and Swiss. In next months ASMS will be also a part of UN Global Compact Local Network in Germany, Italy, Serbia, Croatia, Uganda and Romania.
