

Brussels, 4 May 2013

In 2006 KBC was pleased to announce that it signed up to the United Nations Global Compact. Since 2006, KBC continued to support, adhere and respect the principles of the United Global Compact.

Launched by UN Secretary-General Kofi Annan in 2000, the UN Global Compact is an international multi-stakeholder network of companies, UN agencies, labour and civil society organisations, all endorsing the Ten Universal Principles of the Global Compact (click link). The Principles cover the areas of human rights, labour, environment and anti-corruption, and are based on the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Labour Organisation's Declaration of Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work, and the Rio Declaration on Environment and Development.

Global Compact participants vow to uphold these principles by:

- Demonstrating leadership by advancing responsible corporate citizenship.
- Producing practical solutions to contemporary problems related to globalisation, sustainable development and corporate responsibility in a multi-stakeholder context.
- Managing risks by taking a proactive stance on critical issues.
- Leveraging the UN's global reach and convening power with governments, business, civil society and other stakeholders.
- Improving corporate/brand management, employee morale and productivity, and operational efficiencies

KBC's support of the Global Compact is another positive signal to the international community of its commitment to continue enhancing corporate social responsibility (CSR) throughout its operations and beyond.
