

School of International Studies, Keiai University
UN Global Compact Academic Network
Communication on Progress: Academic Year 2009-2010

February 30, 2010

Secretary-General
United Nations
New York, NY 10017
USA

Dear Mr. Ban Ki-moon,

I am pleased to confirm that the School of International Studies, Keiai University continues to support the ten principles of the Global Compact with respect to human rights, labour rights, the protection of the environment and anti-corruption. With this communication, we express our adherent intent to support and advance those principles within our sphere of influence. We have committed to making the Global Compact and its principles part of the strategy, culture and day-to-day teaching, education and research of our the School of International Studies, Keiai University and undertake to make a clear statement of this continuous commitment-both to our Faculty members, partners, students and alumni as well as the general public. We support public accountability and transparency. Hereby we report on progress made in a public manner.

This Communications of Progress attempts to capture our efforts to date, with an emphasis on activities through Academic Year 2008-2009. Please find attached our report regarding our progress in the field of teaching, education and research of the ten principles of the Global Compact.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Keizo Nakamura

Dean

Faculty of International Studies
Keiai University