

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CANYON CREEK CABINET COMPANY DONATES FOOD & CASH TO THE SKY VALLEY FOOD BANK

Monroe, WA – December 2013

The employees of Canyon Creek Cabinet Company donated 160 pounds of food and a check for $1,585 to the local Sky Valley Food Bank. Food bank executive director, Neil Watkins, says: "Many families are being impacted by government cuts to their food assistance program, and are finding their shrinking dollars shrinking even more. Thank you for making it possible for us to be there for them with your generosity!"

Every year, Canyon Creek conducts a food drive over the holidays to benefit needy families of Snohomish County, and has been one of the food bank's largest contributors for over 13 years.

In addition to the food drive, Canyon Creek also made financial donations to the following charities in 2013: Muscular Dystrophy Association, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Foundation For Private Enterprise Education (Washington Business Week for students), Monroe Gospel Women's Mission and Housing Hope.

The company also donated custom-built cabinetry to the local Concern for Animals animal rescue office remodel and the Boy Scouts of America Fire Mountain Scout Camp in Mount Vernon, WA.

The company continues to donate usable wood scrap for retraining programs at the local correctional facility and to a local business that makes play kitchens for kids, made entirely of repurposed furniture pieces, recycled wood and other materials.

Canyon Creek Cabinet Company, located in Monroe, Washington, is a leading manufacturer of affordable, custom frameless and framed style cabinetry for every room in the home. In 2009, Canyon Creek introduced its line of closet and storage products—Canyon Creek Closets Plus—creating one of the most extensive lines of custom cabinetry and closet storage systems available. In 2010, Canyon Creek launched Newcastle framed cabinetry, and in 2011, Katana frameless cabinetry. Both cabinet lines are designed to provide high-quality, entry-level product for today's price-competitive market.

Canyon Creek has been a recognized leader in the kitchen and bath industry since 1981 and has won many industry awards for its cabinetry and environmental practices. Maintaining its ISO 9001 certification since 2003, Canyon Creek was also chosen for the 2010 Association of Washington Business Green Manufacturing Award and the 2011 Manufacturer of the Year Award. In addition, Seattle Business magazine presented the company with their 2012 Washington Green 50 Manufacturing Award and their 2013 Silver Manufacturing Award.

Canyon Creek markets to designers, builders and a select network of dealers, with sales offices and representatives throughout its distribution area.
