Dear Mr. Secretary-General,

I am pleased to confirm that Jutlandia Terminal A/S ongoing support the ten principles of the Global Compact with respect to human rights, labor, environment and anti-corruption.

We will still communicate and prioritize these principles to stakeholders to enhance the importance of this.

The Global Compact and its principles is part of our strategy regards our business, culture and the day-to-day operations of our company in order to advance and facilitate the goals of the United Nations.

Jutlandia Terminal A/S will make a clear statement of this commitment to our stakeholders and the general public through available sources for communication.

We act with respect to acknowledge the need for continuously improving our performance in to prevent recession in any of the four generic areas.

During the past year we have worked actively on maintaining commitment for compliance of the ten principles through communication and consultation commitment. This year we achieved:

Human rights

We have reinforced the awareness to our stakeholder's regards global compact. This is an integrated part of our induction program for new hires.

Labor

We have stressed our support to the principles addressing our employees through our company policies as well as our suppliers providing goods and services. Suppliers are subject to verification and successively validation. Our safety- and liaison committee has been involved in developing focus areas this year needing special attention.

Environment

With reference to global compact Environment objectives has been decided and specified for this year.

We constantly strive to minimize and prevent hazardous impacts related to our activities and to optimize the rate of utilization of the resources.

We acknowledge our responsibility and are committed to select providers of freight and services that respect legal requirements.

Anticorruption

It is stressed to stakeholders to respect the ethics regards anticorruption. We communicate Code of conduct or proper behavior as part of our business process as part of the core values of our company.
