Dear Mr. Moya:

In view of the Global Compact Policy on Communication on Progress, we would like to inform you of our implementation of the global compact principles particularly on labor which indicate that "Businesses should uphold the elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation. Thus, the following are our continuing services and output to uphold such principle:

1. Establishment of Reflexology Center in our office to provide gainful employment for persons with disabilities in support for RA 7277 known as Tulong Alalay sa Taong May Kapansanan.
2. Set up of Kabuhayan and OFW Center to provide self-employment assistance to jobseekers and other services needed by returning OFW.
3. Conduct of job fair and monthly recruitment fair to match the skills of the increasing number of applicants with the employment/market trend. (See Annex A)
4. Implementation of RA 7323 known as Special Program for Employment of Students (SPES) during summer and Christmas vacation to help poor but deserving students pursue their education. (See Annex A)
5. Conduct of career guidance and employment counseling to applicants and graduating students to guide them and improve their skills in finding gainful employment. (See Annex A)
6. Regular referral and placement assistance to walk-in applicants. (See Annex A)

For your information and perusal.

Very truly yours,

ALEX F. FERRER
