Dear Mr. Secretary-General,

I am pleased to confirm that Randstad Holding nv - one of the world's largest HR services providers, based in the Netherlands – continues to support the ten principles of the Global Compact in respect to human rights, labor rights, the protection of the environment and anti-corruption.

Those principles are firmly embedded in our Business Principles and we continue to advance them within our sphere of influence. We are at all times committed to making the Global Compact and its principles part of the strategy, culture and day-to-day operations of our company and undertake to make clear statements of this commitment – both to our employees, partners, clients and to the public. We support public accountability and transparency and are reporting on progress made in a public manner.

Additionally, please be referred to our Communication on Progress at the Global Compact's website, to our annual report included sustainability reporting on <http://www.randstadannualreport.com/>, and other general information regarding our company on <http://www.randstad.com/>. Furthermore, we point you at the publication "How to do business with respect for human rights, a guidance tool for companies", building on the Protect, Respect and Remedy framework of Professor Ruggie. Randstad was one of the ten Dutch multinationals working together in 2009/2010 to form the Business & Human Rights Initiative. During 2012 and 2013, Randstad took an active part in the public consultations regarding the EU Human Rights Sector Guidance project for the Employment and Recruitment Agencies sector by sharing our labor market and regulatory knowledge.

united nations global compact principles: human rights

1. Businesses should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights; and
2. make sure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses.

in addition to core business activities, where safe and legal labor legislation is upheld and promoted, Randstad supports these principles through local initiatives within operating companies, including via our partnership with VSO (Voluntary Service Overseas). Randstad stimulates awareness across our network and actively shares human rights expertise:

united nations global compact principles: human rights

3. Businesses should uphold the freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining;

through Randstad's dialogues with, and various memberships in, stakeholder organizations - such as UNI Global, UNI Europa, CIETT/EuroCIETT - we strive to maintain and further freedom of association and collective bargaining united nations global compact principles: labor

4. the elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labor;
5. the effective abolition of child labor; and
6. the elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation.

in addition to core business activities, where safe and legal labor legislation is upheld and promoted, Randstad supports these principles through local initiatives within operating companies and efforts to raise awareness across our network.

the promotion of diversity and equal treatment is central to the success of our organization, our clients and society at large, and across our markets we have recognized and incorporated diversity initiatives to increase efforts to fight inequality.

- Randstad in Argentina, Randstad Mexico and Groupe Randstad France are individual signatories of the UN Global Compact
- Our Foundations in Spain, France, Germany and Tempo-Team Netherlands fund initiatives to help underprivileged groups of the population gain access to the labor market
- Our global partnership with Voluntary Service Overseas (VSO) allows us to contribute to building safer, healthier ways of working in some of the most impoverished regions in the world: <http://www.randstad.com/social-responsibility/vso/the-partnership> or <http://www.vsointernational.org/>

united nations global compact principles: anti-corruption

10. Businesses should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.

in addition to our Business Principles and Misconduct Reporting Procedure, which provides guidelines for and encourages reporting of all breaches to our Business Principles, our Competition Law Compliance Policy and Anti-bribery & Corruption Policy

7. Businesses should support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges;
8. undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility; and
9. encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies.

Randstad is committed to reducing its impact on the environment and proactively addresses this through energy and waste saving initiatives, including through intensive efforts to implement and improve recycling programs, utilize green/clean energy for offices and reduce impact related to travel:
