

Enigma UN Global Compact Communication on Progress 2010

Statement of Continuing Support

Enigma Security Solutions Ltd continue to support and promote important responsible initiatives such as the UN Global Compact

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Glen Webley', is written over a faint rectangular box.

Glen Webley
Chief Executive Officer

UN Global Compact Principles

Human Rights

Principle 1 Business should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights.

Principle 2 Business must ensure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses.

Commitment Enigma human rights policy
Enigma Group ethical code for our suppliers

Implementation Enigma has a published statement on human rights, which is aligned with the universal declaration of human rights. Enigma has systems internally to manage our approach to human rights, also Enigma's ethical code for suppliers highlights the ten principles of the UN Global Compact to which our suppliers are expected to adhere to throughout their operations, Enigma has linked this to the ISO 9001:2008 quality assurance manual and is documented, audited and reviewed.

To ensure Enigma operates in a sustainable manner Enigma has established a new committee, which is linked to health and safety and environmental issues to assess sustainability issues. All key business areas are represented at the committee which then reports to Enigma directors and sets sustainable practices throughout Enigma.

Labour

Principle 3 Business should uphold the freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining

Principle 4 Business should uphold the elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labour

Principle 5 Business should uphold the effective abolition of child labour

Principle 6 Business should uphold the elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation

Commitment Managing equality and diversity policy
Enigma code of conduct
Enigma ethical code for suppliers

Implementation Enigma has through their ISO accreditation system has produced minimum expected ethical standards for supplier in 2009. This is documented, audited and reviewed based on the ten principles of the UN Global Compact. Enigma's Ethical code of suppliers covers the area of human rights, labour rights, environmental protection and bribery and corruption, and sets out the standards for our suppliers we work with.

To promote gender equality the recruitment process has been reviewed to ensure that a female is included in our short list. In our review in 2011 a diversity training pilot scheme will be implemented which highlights the issue and impact of unconscious biases in decision making.

Environment

Principle 7 Business should support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges

Principle 8 Business should undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibilities

UN Global Compact Principles

Principle 9 Business should encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies

Commitment Enigma environmental policy

Implementation Enigma has been assessed 31st of march 2009 and accredited by a Achilles UVBD category B2 and certificated, expiry date 9th of July 2011. Also ISO 14001-2004 is being assessed now by SSAIB.

Anti Corruption

Principle 10 Business should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.

Commitment Enigma code of conduct

Enigma code of conduct addresses the issues of bribery and corruption

Within Enigmas employment handbook under section raising concerns (Whistle Blowing) encourages any employee who wishes to report a whistle blowing issue or event (It is noted that legal protection under the public interest disclosure act 1998 is in force)