Statement of continued support by the Chief Executive Officer (CEO)

Please provide a statement of your company's chief executive expressing continued support for the Global Compact and renewing your company's ongoing commitment to the initiative and its principles (Please include name and title of the chief executive at the bottom of the statement).

We are really pleased to submit for the second year, eFM Communication on Progress Report in order to continue the valued cooperation with UN GLOBAL COMPACT and our willingness to continue our effort in improvement over social responsibility.

eFM believes in its employees and our motto is "committed to results". Results reached through a firmly belief in solutions that not only meet customers' needs but that are absorbed in our company as flexible workplace, space optimization, quality, cooperation, knowledge sharing, continual education and obviously aimed to reduce waste in every activity and increase sustainability. As we stated in our first COP, "From here stems the importance of being an active member of the United Nations Global Compact".

We embraces the 10 UNGC principles and we integrated them in our company vision: human and labour rights, environmental stewardship and anti-corruption.

Our Values:

Integrity

We accomplish our goals in an honest, fair and responsible manner, respecting ethical rules and principles required in compliance with professional rules.

Excellence

We are committed to continuous learning and we encourage creativity and innovation thinking.

Equality

We are against all kinds of discrimination; we respect genders, racial, religious, political, language, age and intellectual differences

Transparency

We firmly believe in transparency to manage all our activities, communications and contracts, and let our clients to make independent and conscious decisions.

Human Respect

We listen carefully and work on the improvement of relationship with each other and with our clients.

Values Sharing

The value of each individual is the guideline of our modus operandi: we apply the techniques of listening and dialogue as tools for continuous improvement of our relationship with all stakeholders.

Responsible use of resources

We use all resources carefully and promote activities based on resources optimization and waste reduction.

Nicola Martinelli.

Human Rights Principles

Principle 1: Businesses should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights; and Principle 2: make sure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses (For more information on the principles, click here)

Assessment, Policy and Goals

Description of the relevance of human rights for the company (i.e. human rights risk-assessment). Description of policies, public commitments and company goals on Human Rights.

In 2013, we continue our effort to understand human rights and their protection within the Company. We assessed what human rights are within the sphere of our influence and relevant to our business operations.

The following human rights are identified:

- Labour rights
- Freedom of expression and opinion

We presented the results of our assessment at the internal annual meeting. Through a one day meeting with all the employees, we had the opportunity to share company goals including the respect of human rights. The presentation, all the annual results and future objectives, were also uploaded on Yammer (our internal social network), a common sharing virtual space aimed to improve, also, continuous re-evaluation of possible risks pertaining to human rights in our sphere of influence.

Examples

- Reference to (statement of support for) the Universal Declaration of Human Rights or other international standards
- Written company policy on respecting Human Rights and preventing potential abuses (e.g. in code of conduct)
- Policy requiring business partners and suppliers to adhere to the principles on Human Rights?
- Assessment of Human Rights related risks and impact in industry sector and country(ies) of operation (see Risk Assessment Report at www.humanrightsbusiness.org)
- Specific goals in the area of Human Rights for the upcoming year

Implementation

Description of concrete actions to implement Human Rights policies, reduce Human Rights risks and respond to Human Rights violations.

eFM supports and respects human rights as a core ethical value. Through its high ethical conduct, eFM upholds that human rights protection is applied in every aspect of its business. Human rights and labor rights are closely related. The description below reflects eFM's approach on the following areas of human rights: right to decent standard of living, right to education and training, right to family life (parenthood charter).

The two Global Compact principles on human rights are included:

Principle 1: Businesses should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights

Principle 2: ...and make sure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses.

eFM recognizes that human rights are an integral part of corporate citizenship and respects and supports the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the 'Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights: Implementing the United Nations Protect, Respect and Remedy Framework'.

eFM during 2013 integrated and upgraded the internal Human Rights Statement, in line with international best practice through a revision of existing policies and procedures against its requirements. The revision includes an undertaking to avoid causing or contributing to adverse human rights impacts and to address such impacts when they occur, and to seek to prevent or mitigate adverse human rights impacts that are directly related to our operations, services and business relationships. We have also approved a statement outlining our position to protect and respect human rights through our operations and in our sphere of activity. This statement is aligned to the Guiding Principles as well as the International Labor Organization's Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work and the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development's (OECD) Guidelines for International Enterprises.

HEALTH & SAFETY

Health and safety are core business activities in eFM. We cannot operate successfully and deliver quality products without ensuring the health and wellbeing of our employees. We are committed to continuous improvements in health and safety. Our policy involves the appointment of an HSE supervisor in each business unit and health and safety training is offered to all employees across the Group. Promoting the health and safety of our employees is clearly aligned with our key business objectives – to deliver better health to the markets we serve.

TRAINING

eFM is committed to on-going training of all employees and consistent delivery of 'world class' service. This quality can be achieved only through a proactive, managed training and development program. Our induction program for all staff regardless of grade covers the following key areas:

- Health and safety training and procedures
- The quality program and their policies
- HR issues – including discrimination, corruption and data security

- Describe how the health and safety of all employees is ensured
- Describe how your company prevents discrimination of all kinds and ensures comparable pay for comparable work
- Consultation with employees and other stakeholders
- Allocation of responsibilities for the protection of labour rights within your organization
- Human Resource policies and procedures supporting the Labour principles
- Participation in international framework agreements and other agreements with labour unions

Measurement of outcomes
