UN Global Compact / eBay Inc. – Communication on Progress

To Our Stakeholders:

eBay Inc. is proud to be a member of the UN Global Compact, and we take our corporate citizenship responsibilities, as outlined in the Global Compact principles, seriously.

In the summer of 2007, we consolidated our corporate citizenship efforts into a single group, under my leadership, reporting to our CEO. We are currently refining and evolving our citizenship strategy and activities, and look forward to sharing the results of our activities with you by June 30, 2009, which is our next COP reporting cycle.

Sincerely,
