Dear Secretary-General,

I am pleased to confirm that British Management University supports the Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact on human rights, labour, environment and anti-corruption. With this communication, we express our commitment to making the UN Global Compact and its principles part of the strategy, culture and day-to-day operations of our company, and to engaging in collaborative projects which advance the broader development goals of the United Nations, particularly the Sustainable Development Goals. British Management University will make a clear statement of this commitment to our stakeholders and the general public. We recognize that a key requirement for participation in the UN Global Compact is the annual submission of a Communication on Progress (CoP) that describes our company's efforts to implement the Ten Principles. We support public accountability and transparency, and therefore commit to report on progress starting the calendar year after joining the UN Global Compact, and annually thereafter according to the UN Global Compact CoP policy. This includes:

- A statement signed by the chief executive expressing continued support for the UN Global Compact and renewing our ongoing commitment to the initiative and its principles. This is separate from our initial letter of commitment to join the UN Global Compact.
- The completion of the online questionnaire of the Communication on Progress through which we will disclose our company's continuous efforts to integrate the Ten Principles into our business strategy, culture and daily operations, and contribute to United Nations goals, particularly the Sustainable Development Goals.

Sincerely yours,

Alexander Conrad Ozòg
Rector of

Dear Mr. Secretary General,

I am pleased to confirm that British Management University in Tashkent supports the ten principles of the UN Global Compact with respect to human rights, labor, environment and anti-corruption. With this commitment, we express our intent to support the Global Compact advancing these principles, and will make a clear statement of this commitment to our stakeholders and the general public.

We also pledge to participate in and engage with the UN Global Compact in the following way(s): to promote the UN Global Compact Ten Principles and educate a variety of audiences about sustainability; to join the Principles for responsible Management Education (PRME) (application has been sent); to conduct applied research and thought leadership to advance best practices. Moreover, we have opened a Centre for Corporate Social Responsibility where we will educate local businesses to employ an ethical strategy and observe ethical principles. Furthermore, we are planning to support community service endeavours and engage in broader philanthropic initiatives to make a difference in the lives of the disadvantaged and to provide an advice to business organisations in building a diverse workforce with respect to gender, race, national origin and other aspects that different people bring to the workplace.

We recognise that a key requirement for participation in the Global Compact is the submission of a Communication on Engagement (COE) that describes our organization's efforts to support the implementation of the ten principles and to engage with the Global Compact. We support public accountability and transparency, and therefore commit to report on progress within two years of joining the Global Compact and every two years thereafter according to the Global Compact COE policy.

Sincerely yours,

Alexander Conrad Kazimierz Ożóg
Rector
