EC3 Global Code of Conduct

1. Introduction

This Code of Conduct sets out the standard which the Board, management, employees and independent contractors of EarthCheck Pty Ltd trading as EC3 Global (“EC3 Global”) are required to comply with when dealing with customers, clients, government authorities, creditors and the community as whole as well as other employees.

The Code applies equally to everyone whether based in a Queensland office, interstate or an international office.

The Code does not attempt to provide an exhaustive list of what to do in every possible situation. Nor does the Code replace Australian and State legislation. Instead the Code presents a broad framework of ethical conduct that you have an obligation to uphold.

2. Principles

EC3 Global is committed to embracing, respecting and supporting human rights wherever we operate. EC3 Global is also committed to maintaining a work environment which is free from discrimination as well as a healthy and safe workplace that is, so far is reasonably practicable, free from workplace harassment. EC3 Global complies with the Australian Federal Legislation relating to human rights and respects international human rights principles. EC3 Global also complies with the Australian Employment Law.

Employees of EC3 Global have an obligation to the business, its clients and themselves to observe high standards of integrity and fair dealing. Unlawful and unethical business practices undermine employee and Client trust and will not be tolerated.
