"Isiziba Community Based Organizations of South Africa is pleased to confirm its support of the Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact in the areas of Human Rights, Labour, Environment and Anti-Corruption.

This is our first annual Communication on Progress, whereas, Isiziba describes its actions of integrating the Global Compact and its principles into its community development, culture, advocacy, and lobby, through the legal framework that enable communities to participate in their own development.

Isiziba is committed to share this information with its stakeholders using its primary channels of communication."

Sincerely,

“Organization granted UN ECOSOC Special consultative status, 1 August 2013”

Isiziba as civil society organization, participate in global, regional, and local events, from 9 to 20 March 2015, facilitated attendance and participation of the Eastern Cape provincial legislature women caucus, Social Development, and various Eastern Cape women NGOs, in CSW59 Beijing Declaration, Platform for Action, UN Headquarters, in New York.

Engaged with UN Global Compact in New York, including South Africa NBI Global Compact Local Networks, and Support the Eastern Cape Provincial Government, Amathole and Sarah Baartman District Municipalities, Buffalo City Municipality, and Nelson Mandela Bay Municipality, Nelson Mandela Bay Business Chamber, SANGOCO, SANCO and other stakeholders in establishing and implementing environmental sustainability initiatives that are transparent and beneficial to the city, districts, municipalities, Eastern Cape province and/or greater community;

Because of past apartheid laws, there is a general tendency of complicit in human rights abuses. The apartheid system benefited from discriminatory labour laws, resulting in limited elimination of labour discrimination in respect of employment and occupation. Isiziba engages the department of Water and Sanitation, for cleaning and initiate on streets rubbish dumps sites waste recycling facilities, to promote community cleanness conscience campaign. Isiziba participates in country protests marches taking place in South Africa against corruption campaigns.
