

COMMUNICATION OF ENGAGEMENT

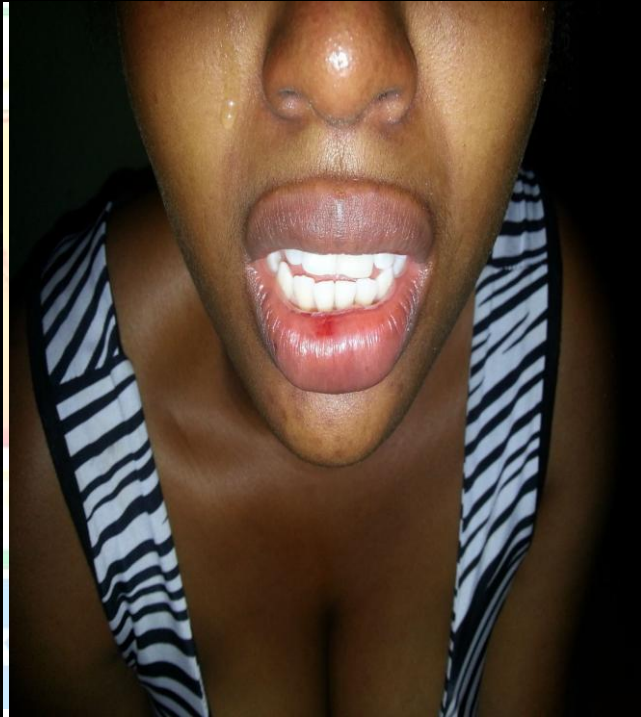

Overview of the organization

Forum for the Development of young people has been in existence for four (4) years, making their own contributions to the development of youths and children in our motherland. This development has been felt in our inter secondary school quiz and debate championships, which started in 2012, engaging student leaders in a student pilot project against maternal mortality called Mamaye which was done in partnership with Evidence for action International. Our organization further provided voluntary tutorials to pupils of St. Joseph's Convent and Dynamic International. Representatives of our organization have also participated in a series of international conferences and summits in Tunisia, Ethiopia, Ghana, England, Mozambique and Ivory Coast. We are also planning to host a business and educational empowerment summit in 2015.

	the advocacy against Early forced marriage and Rape. In January 2015, we became a part of the Girls not bride partnership in the United Kingdom, where we ensure that we carry out campaigns against early forced marriage. At the moment, we are working on establishing a skills acquisition center for victims of rape to learn a sustainable skill that might be beneficial to their livelihood as we believe that there is life after these violations.
Match with UN GLOBAL COMPACT	One of the priorities of the organization is to reduce tensions across cultural divides that threaten to inflame existing political conflicts or trigger new ones, which is militated by unemployment, poverty and social exclusion. Our organization engages young leaders as well as state and non-state actors to think of proactive measures of reasoning and inclusion in upholding the rights of women at all times
Outreach to Marginalized Youth	As a group that has been in existence for a significant period of time, we have come to understand that unemployed youths are the worst hit sector of people in our continent and we always try to incorporate them into our activities as much as we can.
