Environmental policy

Alfa Quality Moving & Relocation is an independent international removal, mobility and relocation company with offices in Sweden, Denmark, Norway and Finland. Our ambition is to be perceived as a serious company with firm growth and financial stability. With a view to achieve this we emphasize customer orientation, staying innovative and offer availability and personal service at a high level.

Alfa Quality Moving & Relocation is strongly committed to provide services in accordance with sustainable development. For us this means;

- Enhancing environmental awareness, commitment and environmental knowledge among employees, suppliers, agents and customers
- Improving in efficiency and environmental adaptation of transports and use of packaging materials in connection with production of removal services
- Minimize risks for accidents related to production of our services
- Minimize the amount of non-recycled waste generated from our business

Through systematic and proactive work with continuous improvements environmentally, we will secure that our business fulfills environmental requirements from legislation, customers and business standards.
