Dear Mr. Secretary General,

I am pleased to confirm that the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania supports the ten principles of the UN Global Compact with respect to human rights, labor, environment and anti-corruption.

With this letter, we express our intent to support the Global Compact advancing these principles, and will make a statement of this commitment to our stakeholders.

We also pledge to participate in and engage with the UN Global Compact in the following way(s):

- Incorporate the Global Compact principles into internal operations and communicate progress following the requirements.
- Deliver education on topics related to the Global Compact. The Wharton School provides the following courses to our undergraduates on topics directly related to the Global Compact as follows:
 - BEPP261401: Risk Analysis and Environmental Management
 - LGST 21000x: Corporate Responsibility and Ethics
 - LGST 215401: Environmental Management Law and Policy
 - LGST 224401: Human Rights and Globalization
 - LGST 226001: Markets, Morality and Capital
 - LGST 230001: Social Impact & Responsibility
 - MGMT 208001: Global and International Politics
 - MGMT 241001: Knowledge for Social Impact
 - LGST 218401: Diversity and the Law
 - MGMT 890401: Managing Emerging Economies
 - OPIM 263401: Risk Analysis and Environmental Management

We recognize that a key requirement for participation in the Global Compact is the submission of a Communication on Engagement (COE) that describes our organization's efforts to support the implementation of the ten principles and to engage with the Global Compact. We support public accountability and transparency, and therefore commit to report on progress within two years of joining the Global Compact and every two years thereafter according to the Global Compact COE policy.

Sincerely yours,
