Dear Mr. Secretary General,

Réttur - Aðalsteinsson & Partners has been a participant to the UN Global Compact since 26 August 2014. I am pleased to reaffirm our firm's commitment to supporting the Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact on human rights, labour, environment and anti-corruption. Using our primary channels of communication, Réttur - Aðalsteinsson & Partners furthermore reaffirms our commitment to make known to our clients and the community as a whole this information.

Réttur - Aðalsteinsson & Partners traces its origins back to 1969 and today it is ranked as a top-tier law firm by the Legal500 and has garnered international recognition for professionalism and the provision of excellent quality of service. At the core of the firm's operation is the respect and protection of human rights and dignity. As a global citizen, Réttur - Aðalsteinsson & Partners firmly believes that advancing on our sustainability practices is essential to our growth and longevity. We have therefore taken various steps throughout the fiscal year of 2015-2016, aimed at further integrating the Global Compact and its principles into our business strategy, culture and operations.

Enclosed is our second annual Communication on Progress which describes in detail our sustainability activities and progress throughout the year 2015, with respect to our clients, stakeholders and internal operations.

Yours sincerely,

Ragnar Aðalsteinsson
