Success comes through people. When companies are effective in satisfying their employees, employees stay longer, make a deeper commitment to the business, recommend ways to improve the company's products and services, and work harder to satisfy the customer.

ENVIRONMENT:

Today every business has a responsibility towards its stakeholders. Customers and society at large are more aware of the negative impacts of business as usual. They want cleaner and more ethical products and services. Business today also has a responsibility towards the environment – it cannot keep endlessly extracting resources without consequence. The social responsibility of business therefore is to protect the economic system and by implication the bigger socio-environmental system upon which it rests. We take this as our social responsibility and have developed policy how can we best help to save the environment. As previous, we continued our steps to improve environmental performance by preventing the activities having harmful and negative impact on environment.

Implementation :

As previous ;

- We encouraged and promoted the concept of going paperless by using electronic forms for billing statements, receipts, and payroll. We preferred transferring funds directly to a bank instead of issuing checks since this can save hundreds of sheets of paper a month
- Instructed workers to recycle paper and envelopes too
