A MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTORS

A MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTORS

Dear friends,

We are pleased to present the Fifth Corporate Citizenship Report of MMC Mexico 2015. In this report you will find the main activities we conducted throughout the year regarding the three pillars of sustainability: economic, social and environmental.

In Marsh & McLennan Companies we are committed in making a positive impact on the community and in making a difference with all the services we offer. Being a good corporate citizen implies working under strict ethical standards, while seeking the common good and respecting the environment.

As part of a global initiative to give back to our communities, this year we celebrated our first Global Volunteer Month with a successful participation from all our offices in Mexico—i.e. 25% of the total workforce.

Within the firm, we are committed to Diversity and Inclusion. This year we launched three courses to strengthen such concepts among our colleagues: “La Diversidad y Tú” (Diversity and You), “La Importancia de la Diversidad en la Nueva Cultura Laboral” (The Importance of Diversity in the New Work Culture), and “Entendiendo la Diversidad en la Oficina” (Understanding Diversity at the Office).

On the occasion of the World Environment Day, in June we organized various environmental education activities, including the “8 días, 8 ecoretos” (8 Days, 8 Eco-challenges) contest, which aim was to meet two different challenges each week relating to the care and protection of our resources: paper, energy and water.

We have reconfirmed our commitment to the United Nations Global Compact, of which we are members; its ten principles have been incorporated in this Report as part of the Communications on Progress for this period.

Likewise, we would like to thank all the people who make possible that Marsh & McLennan Companies Mexico can be a responsible corporate citizen; please share with us your thoughts and comments.

SCOPE OF THE REPORT

SCOPE OF THE REPORT

MMC's Fifth Corporate Citizenship Report 2015 is an annual publication by Marsh, Guy Carpenter, and Mercer in Mexico, reporting results obtained from January 1 through December 31, 2015 that are based on three focus areas: economic, social and environmental.

SCOPE OF APPLICATION

This report covers the data, initiatives and achievements of the four operating companies from Marsh & McLennan Companies (MMC) established in Mexico: Guy Carpenter México Intermediario de Reaseguro S.A. de C.V., Marsh, Brockman y Schuh Agente de Seguros y de Fianzas S.A. de C.V., Marsh & McLennan Servicios, S.A. de C.V. and Mercer Human Resource Consulting S.A. de C.V.

STANDARDS

This Report was prepared in accordance with the G4 Sustainability Reporting Guidelines of the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI)—Core option.

Likewise, we make reference to the UN Global Compact's ten principles, to which Marsh and Mercer are adhered since 2012.

METHODOLOGY

The information was gathered by Marsh and Mercer CSR Department, as well as by the Guy Carpenter CSR Coordinator; data was provided by the business units involved in its management and reviewed by experts in the field, to ensure that the contents sufficiently represent the activities and results of our companies.

CONTENTS

Our basis for defining the contents of the Report was the materiality study that we conducted this year, consulting three of our key stakeholders: employees, clients and communities, as well as the priorities set in our CSR strategy. We also based on the GRI's Principles of Quality and Content.

MATERIALIY AND STAKEHOLDERS

Marsh & McLennan Companies work together with and for our stakeholders: colleagues, clients, shareholders and communities.

With the purpose of having an increasingly strong relationship with them, we identify and prioritize them — based on the way they influence or are influenced by our business activities — and establish communication channels.

To find out what they think of us and take action on this basis we have several communication mechanisms, whereby we can improve every aspect.

MMC STAKEHOLDERS

Colleagues: Every day we make efforts to have a good work environment that allows our employees’ professional development.

Clients: We offer high-quality solutions with a spirit of service.

Shareholders: We perform our business tasks creating added value in a fair and transparent way.

Communities: We support and look for ways to increase the quality of life of vulnerable groups nationwide.

DIALOGUE AND COMMUNICATION MECHANISMS

Intranet, e-mail, internal meetings, mailbox, colleague engagement survey, internal communication boards, electronic boards, participation in corporate social responsibility activities, CSR opinion survey.

Service surveys, customer service interviews, meetings, e-mail, Marsh & McLennan Companies’ Annual Financial Report and Corporate Citizenship Report, website, press, social networks, on-site and online events.

Marsh & McLennan Companies’ Annual Financial Report and Corporate Citizenship Report.

Periodic meetings, on-site visits, joint projects and through specialized organizations.

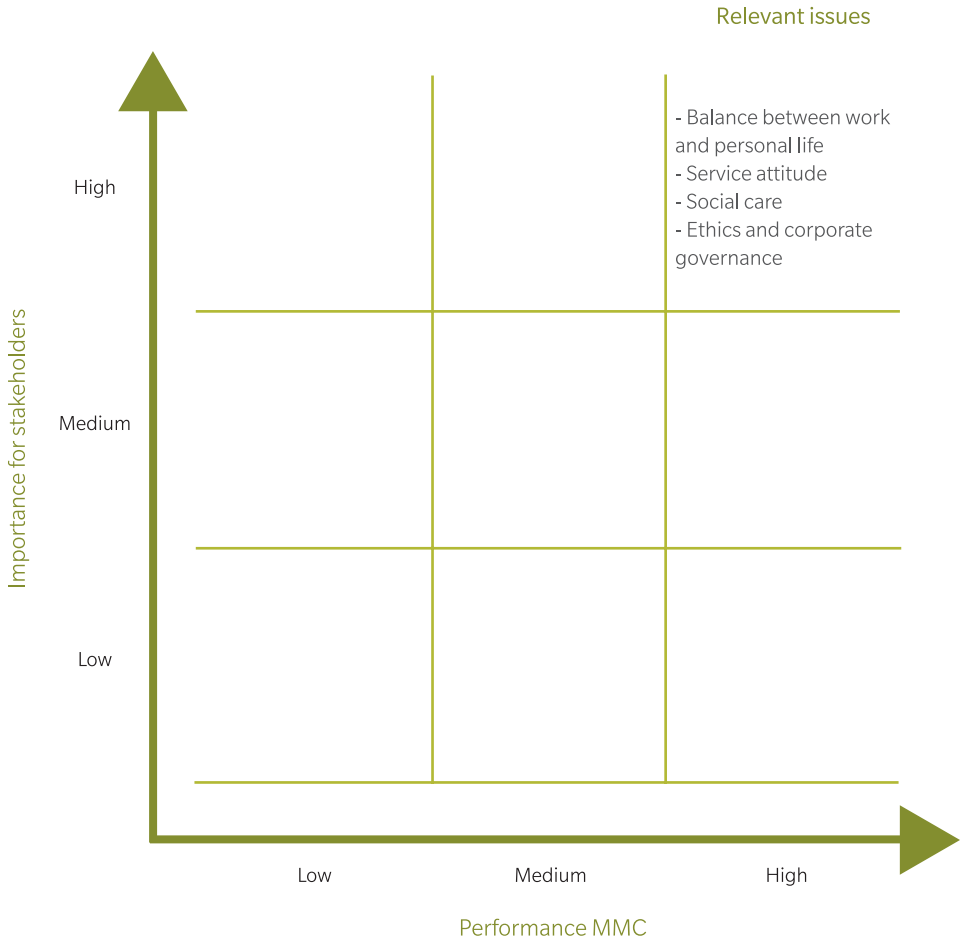

MATERIALITY AND RELEVANT ISSUES

This year we conducted a materiality study in order to know our main stakeholders' expectations. Therefore, we used our direct listening and dialogue tools, such as:

- Customers: Customer service evaluation
- Colleagues: Colleague Engagement Survey
- Community: Direct interviews with beneficiaries

We also conducted a benchmark study to learn about industry standards and public opinion on issues of sustainability.

This study produced a number of issues that our stakeholders consider relevant, which are contemplated in the management of the company; we reported the actions we have taken throughout the Report.

1.4 BUSINESS ETHICS

One of the pillars of Marsh & McLennan Companies is integrity in business. We always work in an ethical and transparent manner, among ourselves and with all stakeholders.

Our Code of Conduct, (“The Greater Good”), reflects that spirit. Each one of us must take individual responsibility and act with integrity at all times, even when making difficult decisions. This is the underlying principle to act for the greater good.

Its guidelines are in full accordance with human rights and include aspects relating to respect between colleagues, fair competition, anti-corruption practices, integrity in conflicts of interest and action as corporate citizens.

For further information about our Code of Conduct you can download a copy, in the following website: www.mmc.com/about/code.php

We hold multiple courses that reinforce the message of ethical behavior. On an annual and mandatory basis, our colleagues complete a Code of Conduct certification and may choose to take any of the following workshops available in our online system:

- The Greater Good Certification: The Greater Good
- Confidentiality of Information
- Email and Social Media Management
- Data Protection
- Trade Sanctions
- Promoting Respect in the Workplace
- Anti-corruption and Anti-bribery

- Antitrust and Trade Practice Compliance
- Conflicts of Interest
- Records Retention
- First Aid and Building Evacuation
- Fire Control and Fighting
- Search and Rescue
- Explosive Device Threat Training

On December 9, as every year, we celebrated — through the Ethics Committee — the International Anti-Corruption Day. In addition to a communication campaign, we distributed white badge lanyards with the legend “Break the corruption chain” to all our colleagues at Torre Mayor.

Also, through our Ethics Committee, we implemented the “Efficient use of our reporting mechanisms” campaign, with the objective of letting our colleagues know who to turn to in case of any question, concern or comment about the different dilemmas they face daily at work.

In MMC we take extra care to prevent, identify and, where applicable, penalize acts of corruption and bribery. We have implemented different options to raise concerns or seek guidance regarding ethics issues:

- Hotline: A secure service, provided free of charge, that operates 24 hours a day worldwide. All issues reported are referred to the appropriate areas within the organization for investigation and resolution. To access the system, it is only necessary to dial 01 800 288 28 72, then to select the language in the options menu, and a specialist will deal with the call by asking certain questions, and then will send a report to the area in charge.

There is also the option to visit the website: <https://mmceuhotline.alertline.com/gcs/welcome?locale=es> and complete the process there.

- DIME: This communication channel operates through an electronic mailbox found on our local Intranet page; through this tool the colleague can express proposals, concerns and/or suggestions. It is completely anonymous.
- Additionally, colleagues at MMC have the option of talking directly with our Compliance Officer and Legal Department, reporting securely and confidentially any concern about illegal or unethical behaviors that may be in violation of our policies.

During 2015, two complaints were filed through these channels. These complaints were resolved through institutional channels.

1.5. CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The Board of Directors of Marsh & McLennan Companies Mexico is committed to the highest standards of ethics, integrity and professionalism, which are included in the Corporate Governance Guidelines of the organization, which establish the Board's functions, structure, compensation, and other aspects. This committee has a nationwide scope only.

The Board is made up of managers and shareholders of our companies in Mexico, who in turn elect the Director and the members of the Executive Committee who manage the businesses and governance of the company. For the Directors' selection purposes, the terms and standards of independence must be upheld, thereby ensuring that the selected persons have no direct or indirect material bonds with the company.

Today, the Board is made up of 12 members, including the CEO.

The Executive Committee is responsible for the corporate governance of our organization. This committee is made up by at least three independent Managers and meets at least four times annually. Its role is to advise the Board of Directors, to periodically report on the performance of the company and to support the Annual Shareholders' Meeting.

In order to support their functions, the Board of Directors has four committees:

- Audit Committee
- Compensation Committee
- Managing and Governance Committee
- Corporate Responsibility Committee

Each of these committees has its own bylaws regulating their operations.

1.6. CORPORATE CITIZEN STRATEGY

The MMC Corporate Citizenship Policy comprises three core aspects that are our basis:

- a) Corporate Social Responsibility: our actions in the community and involvement of colleagues in these efforts.
- b) Diversity and Inclusion: our commitment to foster an inclusive and high-performance work environment based on excellence, respect and dignity.
- c) Sustainability: our commitment to friendly practices with the environment both in our operations and in our work with clients to advise them on their environmental challenges.

If you want to know more about the Marsh & McLennan Companies' Corporate Citizenship Policy, please visit: (<http://www.mmc.com/CorporateCitizenship/index.php>)

According to these three pillars, our corporate social responsibility strategy is based on the following six focus areas:

CSR Strategic Pillars

- 1 Business Ethics
- 2 Colleagues
- 3 Environment
- 4 Community Engagement
- 5 Communications
- 6 Diversity and Inclusion

At MMC Mexico, Marsh, Mercer and Guy Carpenter each has its own CSR Committee that is responsible for designing, implementing and evaluating the CSR strategy. They are made up of employees from all areas and companies.

There is also a CSR Coordinator, who is responsible for promoting the initiatives of each committee under the supervision of the Human Resources and Compliance Departments.

2. COMMUNITY

Globally, Marsh & McLennan Companies has a long tradition of commitment to the community. In Mexico, we focus our efforts on three main areas:

- Education
- Humanitarian Aid and Disaster Preparedness and Recovery
- Skill-based volunteering

In 2015, the OECD published the “How’s life?” report. This document affirms that a good education provides knowledge and tools needed to participate effectively in society and economy, as these are important requirements for obtaining a job and generate income.

However, in Mexico, only 37% of adults between 25 and 64 years of age have completed junior high school; far below the 75% of the OECD average and one of the lowest among member countries (in addition to Russia and Brazil).

In MMC Mexico we are committed to contribute to the reduction of this gap by supporting education.

LA CASA DE LA ARTESANA (THE ARTISAN’S HOUSE)

We have already worked four years with Child Fund Mexico in The Artisan’s House project, through which we have built and enabled a work space for women from the Hñahñu Batsi community of San Andrés Daboxtha and for women from the surrounding communities of Cardonal, Hidalgo, so that they could develop productive activities in an orderly fashion.

In 2015, together with the Pro Empleo Foundation, the “Business Plan Development” workshop was given to the group of women from The Artisan’s House and other members of the community and of the Hñahñu Batsi non-profit organization. From this training six business plans emerged:

1. Biscuit distributor and bakery
2. Non-profit organization
3. Stimulation sessions for children and the elderly
4. Maguey honey production
5. Sheep farming for fattening
6. La Casa de la Artesana (The Artisan’s House)

Subsequently, 3 personalized advising sessions were given to each of these teams so that they could finish their business plan and Pro Empleo advisers could clarify specific doubts. The next step is to support them in the incubation of these projects.

FUNDRAISING

This year, in MMC Mexico we developed an innovative fundraising initiative called “Ponte en forma por una causa” (Get Fit for a Cause). The purpose of this program is to combine physical activity and volunteer work. The idea is to form teams of 5 or more colleagues and participate in any walk/run organized by or on behalf of any social cause. In return, the company donates to the non-profit organization the amount of MXN$450 for each participating colleague.

In 2015, we participated in 7 walks/runs with a cause where 74 colleagues ran the equivalent to 709 kilometers [440 miles] (distance between CDMX and Monterrey).

With this initiative we raised a total of MXN$46,500 that were donated to 7 charities, broken down as follows:

1. Aquí Nadie Se Rinde: MXN$10,000
2. Isla Urbana: MXN$2,500
3. Asociación Mexicana de Fibrosis Quística: MXN$6,500
4. Kardias, A.C.: MXN$12,000
5. Fundación Sin Recibir Nada a Cambio: MXN$4,500 (Reynosa)
6. Un Kilo de Ayuda: MXN$6,000
7. Alianza Anticáncer Infantil: MXN$5,000 (Monterrey)

As every year, the “Colaciones saludables” (Healthy Snack) program was launched at Guy Carpenter to raise funds among employees. This year, with the amount raised we bought chairs, paint, and teaching materials for El Espino elementary school of the Ri Xudi community, in Hidalgo.

Likewise, Guy Carpenter donated cleaning materials and a mini-bar to Asociación Hñahñu Batsi Ri Xudi A.C.

VOLUNTEERING

This year, volunteer activity took on special relevance for MMC. The Paid Day Off to Volunteer Policy was strengthened; this policy states that colleagues will have one paid work day off each calendar year to perform volunteer activities during working time.

In May, we celebrated Global Volunteer Month, a global initiative to promote volunteering among our colleagues and a chance to give back to the communities where we live and work. The first edition was in 2015 and more than 50 countries and 300 cities took part.

In Mexico, 100% all of our offices participated. During this month, we conducted a total of 18 volunteer initiatives and added 1,075 hours of community work.

Moreover, the MMC Volunteer Club was consolidated to create a community of volunteers and recognize Marsh, Guy Carpenter, Mercer, and Oliver Wyman colleagues, who devote time, talent, and effort to volunteering.

Finally, the “Voluntarios del Año” (Volunteers of the Year) program was created—a system of annual recognition for 10 volunteers who have achieved the greatest number of hours recorded in our Volunteer Match platform. The first 3 places also receive a grant of MXN$5,000 each, to donate to the non-profit organization of their choice.

In 2015, the three winners of this program decided to donate their MXN$5,000 to the following institutions:

- 1st Place: Susana Velázquez, Reynosa office, to Casa Hogar El Shaddai;
- 2nd Place: Teresita Hernandez, Mexico City office, to Asociación Mexicana de Ayuda a Niños con Cáncer, IAP;
- 3rd Place: Irma Soriano, Mexico City office, to Ministerios de Amor, A.C.

In 2015, the “Volunteers of the Year” decided to donate their prize to the Casa Hogar El Shaddai, the Asociación Mexicana de Ayuda a Niños con Cáncer, IAP, and to Ministerios de Amor, A.C.

2015 MEXICO ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- 2,820 volunteer hours
- 308 volunteers
- 9 average hours per volunteer
- 25% of the total headcount
- 15 participating cities
- More than MXN$60,000 in donations

3. ENVIRONMENT

Marsh & McLennan Companies commitment with the environment is established in our Environmental Policy. We aim to reduce CO₂ emissions and promote a culture of preservation of the environment among our colleagues and other stakeholders.

MEASURING OF CO₂ EMISSIONS

Since MMC is a service company, the most significant sources of CO₂ emissions for us are:

- Direct emissions: Vehicles owned by the company
- Indirect emissions: Electricity and air travel

In 2015, we reduced 6.06% our CO₂ emissions compared to last year.

ECO-EFFICIENCY PROGRAMS

This year, our consumption reduction strategy focused on two main areas: electricity and transport.

ELECTRICITY SAVING

Since the renovation of our corporate offices two years ago we have reduced our electricity consumption by 30%.

This year we held the 2x1 campaign to promote the use of internal stairs instead of the elevator, when colleagues need to go down two floors or go up one.

With these initiatives, in 2015, Guy Carpenter reduced 7.17% of its energy consumption compared to the base year (2013) and Marsh and Mercer 38.8% compared to the same year.

TRANSPORT

We kept using our MMCo Ride tool, which seeks to facilitate safe carpooling among colleagues. The tool is installed on our Intranet.

During April, we promoted the “A la chamba en bici” (Bike to Work) campaign with the purpose of inviting colleagues to use this means of transport to get to work.

REFORESTATION

This year we held our third MMC 2015 Tree-planting activity together with the Mexico City’s Secretariat of Environment. A total of 80 employees and their families went to the Ajusco volcano, where we planted 600 Moctezumae pine trees.

ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION

Our environmental education program consists of conferences, , workshops, and media campaigns aimed at changing the behavior of our colleagues and their families for the preservation of our natural resources.

In 2015 the following activities were carried out:

- Photo contest on the occasion of World Water Day, entitled “De generación en generación” (From Generation to Generation). We could see from the photos received how humans relate to water, as well as our responsibility in the sustainable management of this resource for future generations.
- Water footprint: our colleagues were provided with a link where they could calculate, according to their habits and activities, their annual consumption of water.
- “Reduciendo mi consumo de agua en casa” (Reducing my Consumption of Water at Home) conference: given by Fondo para la Comunicación y la Educación Ambiental, A.C.
- “8 días, 8 retos” (8 Days, 8 Eco-challenges) contest: Throughout the month of June we carried out this initiative that consisted of meeting two different challenges each week regarding the preservation of our resources, such as the use of paper, energy, water, recycling, etc.
- -“Que el consumo no te consuma” (May Consumption does not Consume You) conference: how to make small changes in your habits and lifestyle in order to reduce the impact of your environmental footprint in the city.

Plantamos 600 pinos de la especie Moctezumae.

- In Christmas we launched a campaign to discourage buying natural pine trees and instead adopt a tree that can be returned to its habitat.

RECYCLING

WELLNESS

Based on the best practices of compensation, we offer all MMC colleagues the Beneflex benefits plan. It is a tailor-made model of services and benefits offering the possibility to put together a benefits package according to the specific needs of each colleague including prevention plans (medical check-ups, dental or vision care plans, etc.) and constant medical care (first-contact care consultations, discounts on tests and medicines, etc.) for them and their families.

Marsh and Mercer also have implemented the “Vive Más” (Live More) wellness program for those colleagues who want to keep a healthy lifestyle. It is focused on four areas: emotional balance, work-life balance, financial balance, and physical activity. This program includes, among other things, the “Conoce tus números” (Know Your Numbers) campaign, nutritionist service, physical activity classes, employees’ emotional care, and a series of conferences on different changing habits topics.

The activities are carried out both inside and outside the office, during and outside working hours.

This year the plan included clinical tests to diagnose health risks of employees—a general diagnosis of the health status of participants in the program (number of smokers, percentage of employees with obesity, hypertension, high blood sugar, etc.) to define a plan of action.

In our offices we have an Employee Medical Service providing free first-contact medical advice. We also have a well-equipped lactation room.

In 2015 we conducted the following activities to promote our colleagues’ health and hygiene:
