Part II. Description of Actions

- Promote fundamental right to health prioritizing on children and marginalized people
- Spread out awareness about HIV/AIDS and drug abuse among school going adult children
- Dissemination of health information, a need for a comprehensive and portable directory on the public health facilities.
- In 2009 friendship Nepal had conducted an information programs in 75 schools about HIV/AIDS and drug abuse in Kathmandu valley including three district Kathmandu, Bhaktapur and Lalitpur.
- The organization is planning to carry out the information program about HIV/AIDS and drug abuse in the school of rural areas.

These are some of the activities conducted, collaborating with Janata Media Network, a research-based development media. It also has a radio station in Kathmandu and has an effective network with over 100 radio stations all over the country. We have been collectively working on policy advocacy, information dissemination on core development sectors, including health sector for the past few years.
