Ms Lise Kingo
Executive Director
United Nations Global Compact

Dear Lise Kingo

Statement of Commitment

We are happy to reaffirm that, Foundation for Ecological Diversity (FED) is committed to the Ten Principles of Global Compact and Social Responsibility, which is embedded in our program strategy and reflected in our activities and decision making, taking into account the; protection of Human Rights, Labour, Environment and Anti-Corruption.

With this commitment, we express our support and intent to advance Global Compact principles within our sphere of influence, and will make a clear statement of this commitment to our stakeholders and the general public.

We also pledge to take part in the activities of the UN Global Compact where appropriate and feasible – through participation in -

- ❖ Country and Local Networks, involvement in specialized initiatives and work streams;
- ❖ Engagement in partnership projects; reviewing and providing commentary to participants
- ❖ Support UN development objectives including, the Millennium Development Goals.

We acknowledge that key requirement for participation in the Global Compacts is the submission of a Communication of Engagement – (COE) to support the implementation of the ten principles and engage with the Global Compact. We support public accountability and transparency, and therefore commit to report on progress according to the Global Compact COE Policy.

We are happy to be working with the UNGC.

Sincerely,

Genevieve Akech Oluoch
Director
