HUMAN RIGHTS

-Business should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights (P1); and make sure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses (P2).

Overview

Our Code of Conduct states that

- As a leader within this kind of security services, SRS has a responsibility towards the countries and communities in which we operate. We must practise responsible corporate citizenship and comply with the laws and regulations wherever we operate.
- SRS business is based on trust. To make sure that we earn the trust of our clients it is required that all SRS employees respect and protect our ethical standard and basic values as reflected in the Code of Conduct.

- In all of the operations in which SRS participate we respect the dignity of human beings and strictly adhere to all relevant international laws and protocols on human rights. We follow the rules of international humanitarian law that are applicable as well as all relevant international protocols and conventions.

Performance indicators and practical actions

Our employees are our main asset. During 2016, we have invested in our employees' health and training in the following ways;

- All full-time employees have been offered free gym membership.
- Yearly personal development meeting with superior.
- SRS is a member of the International Code of Conduct for Private Security Providers' Association (ICoCA) and has participated in the Annual General Assembly (AGA) on 29 Sept. 2016, in Geneva and at DCAF seminar in Belgrade on 8-9 Dec. 2016.

- SRS continues to collaborate with civil society organizations, a CSR project launched in 2014. The organization's support women that have been subjected to violence and Swedish citizens who need legal support in human rights related disputes with the government. Through these projects we contribute with our specific competences and learn and understand the needs of other parts of society that we would not normally come in contact with.

In addition to the above SRS has sponsored a learning development project "L:ara" aimed to support basic reading and mathematics in developing countries by modern technology. The project is an initiative by a former employee and PhD from KTH Royal Institute of Technology.

Outcome

The percentage of sick leave at SRS during 2016 was 2,1 % due to one long term leave but still places us below the national average in the private sector. 100% of the full-time employees enjoy permanent employment, and the average number of years spent at SRS is 3.0. The average number of years working with SRS is decreasing due to the current expansion phase.

SRS strictly adhere to the laws of Sweden pertaining to the freedom of association and labour practices and actively recruits for and promote equality in all aspects at the workplace.

During 2016 SRS has recruited an experienced head of SRS Human Resources Department in order to be able to fully support line managers.

One of the weaknesses we identified in our latest revision was the absence of an active work against workplace discrimination. That plan has been implemented in the organization as a part of the new law of working environment the employee has to implement proactive measures.

During 2016, SRS has continued to engaged in Q-net, a Swedish association for women in the security industry and have by now a representative in the board.

Outcome

At the end of 2016, 26% of SRS employees were women. 25% of those carrying staff liability at SRS were women. The male part of the workforce received 8% higher pay on an average which is a positive trend from previous years even though it is not a satisfying result.

ENVIRONMENT

- Business should support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges (P7).
- Undertake initiatives to greater environmental responsibility (P8).
- Encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies (P9).

Overview

Our environmental impact is assessed to be relatively small, considering being a services company. Therefore, the environmental issue is not our main focus within the UN Global Compact. Our main impact is probably our travel by flight.
