To: Our stakeholders

I am pleased to confirm that UNIPASS reaffirms its support to the United Nations Global Compact and its Ten Principles in the areas of Human Rights, Labour, Environment and Anti-Corruption. This is our Communication on Engagement with the United Nations Global Compact. We welcome feedback on its contents. In this Communication of Engagement, we describe the actions that our organization has taken to support the UN Global Compact and its Principles as suggested for an organization like ours. We also commit to sharing this information with our stakeholders using our primary channels of communication. Sincerely yours,

Dr. Sir Shamsul Hassan Syed Azeemi

To Incorporate the Global Compact Principles into Internal operations and communicate progress following the requirements of the COP, following actions were taken (amongst others):

1. Promote volunteering and cooperation between all levels of university administration and students both, to national and international levels.
2. Maintain the call for aid of cooperation.
3. Raising the awareness of the university community about Internal and External Social Responsibility together with the university administration, students and other units).

From Strategic Plan Management, an annual progress report that will allow you to know the degree of compliance with the Plan. The elaboration of this report is part of the Plan's follow-up and provides an overview of the state of development of strategic actions that compose it. The annual publication of the annual data will be carried out of the Plan for knowledge of the whole community of University.

To promote Global Compact and its Principles through one of the following activities:

1. Provide education on related issues with the Global Compact.
2. Disseminate the Global Compact Principles
3. Conduct applied research and leadership on Global Compact
4. Support local networks and the Office of the Global Compact
5. Provide support to the companies signing the Pact of United Nations in its own efforts to implement sustainability and divulgation.
