To Our Stakeholders,

I am pleased to confirm that African Institute of Corporate Citizenship reaffirms its support to the United Nations Global Compact and its Ten Principles in the areas of Human Rights, Labour, Environment and Anti-Corruption. This is our Communication on Engagement with the United Nations Global Compact. We welcome feedback on its contents.

In this Communication of Engagement, we describe the actions that our organization has taken to support the UN Global Compact and its Principles as suggested for an organization like ours. We also commit to sharing this information with our stakeholders using our primary channels of communication.

Sincerely yours,

Felix Lombe
Chief Executive Officer

ACTIONS UNDERTAKEN TO SUPPORT THE UN GLOBAL COMPACT

- For the Private sector: Attract new participants to the UN Global Compact through their Corporate Social Responsibility and policies.
- For Civil Society Organizations, public and private sector: Facilitated trainings that aims at equipping and impart knowledge on the 10 principles of global compact.

- For the business entities: door to door visits to raise awareness of the global compact local network and lobby many entities to join the movement
- For all players: launch of the UN global compact movement in Malawi.

OUTCOMES AND MEASUREMENTS

- Many players have shown interest of joining the UN global compact movement, 3 companies have shown interest while the follow ups are still being made with other companies.
- The trainings and conferences that were facilitated have highly helped most companies to understand the 10 principles as well as strategize their approach in order for their businesses to contribute in development.
- Collaborations between the Public and Private Sector have also highly increased
