GRI Content Index

The Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) is an institution aimed at developing and disseminating globally applicable guidelines for sustainability reporting. In accordance with GRI, companies report on the principles and indicators they apply to their economic, environmental and social commitments and render them measureable.

Information about the GRI Content Index is made available to investors and analysts on our website www.deka.de. The Content Index is an overview of all reported GRI indicators and includes references to DekaBank's respective publications, where the relevant information is provided. In addition, the GRI Content Index comprises an annual presentation of the progress made in respect of the UN Global Compact principles.

The GRI Content Index indicates where (key) and in which publications DekaBank provides the standard disclosures under the current GRI Guidelines (G4) and the supplementary disclosures for financial service providers (Financial Services Sector Supplement – FSSS).

¹ It is not possible to accurately derive the number of hours per employee from the data currently available.

⁴ Additional information: DekaBank does not have any fully-owned companies in its portfolio; there are only equity holdings. When making any investment we consider a list of fundamental criteria in relation to requirements covering environmental and social aspects (see UN Global Compact). If these requirements are not met, no investment is made.
