How we create value

We create value by developing and distributing a range of innovative and reliable communication products and services. We depend on various relationships and resources, known as the six capitals, to do this. To deliver on our strategy, as well as generate value for all stakeholders, we require inputs of each capital. When making decisions on capital allocation, we consider the trade-offs between the capitals, and seek to maximise positive outcomes and curb negative impacts.

Statement of Recommitment to the UNGC

Phuthuma Nhleko
Group executive chairman

To our stakeholders

There can be little doubt that the last 18 months have been the most difficult period in MTN's 22-year history. We faced unprecedented challenges, precipitated by regulatory, macro-economic, political and competitive forces in our two largest markets, and to varying degrees across our portfolio.

With deeper senior management capacity and skills in place, including the appointment of a Group CEO, the board conducted a deep and fundamental strategic review of the business and its processes. The review illuminated a number of issues in need of attention and affirmed the Group's unique strategic advantages on which we can continue to build a sustainable business for the future. This precipitated our business transformation initiative, IGNITE, which sets out a clear roadmap for the next 18 months. There is still much to be done to transform the Group and position it for the future, but also much to look forward to for the people and stakeholders of MTN.

I confirm that MTN Group Limited continues to support of the Ten Principles of the UNGC in the areas of Human Rights, Labour, Environment and Anti-Corruption.

In our 2016 annual Communication of Progress we describe our actions to continually improve the integration of the Global Compact and its principles into our business strategy, culture and daily operations. We also commit to share this information with our stakeholders using our primary channels of communication.

Phuthuma Nhleko

Chairman of the Board/
Acting Group President and CEO
MTN Group Limited

Sustainability context

Despite global uncertainty and the challenges faced by MTN, we are optimistic about enabling sustainable growth. By focusing on the organisational, system and process requirements needed to meet our strategic objectives, we have enhanced our ability to bring the benefits of the digital economy to our markets. Both MTN and our stakeholders have realised some of these benefits through ICT-enabled solutions that generate commissions, connect people, improve economic participation and enable social development. Cross-sectoral partnerships, catalysing local innovation and offering mobile technology solutions that address some of the service access and affordability constraints in our markets help us create shared societal value.

MTN improving sustainability in its markets in 2016

MTN's role in improving sustainability in its markets in 2016 saw us continuing to implement changes to our operating model in order to align ourselves with the growing demand for digital services and solutions in our markets. Our e-commerce partnerships are enabling our customers to enjoy access to products previously only available in more developed countries. Partnering with tower management companies, we are better able to focus on core business delivery. This also helps us and other mobile operators to reduce some of our environmental impact. By investing in the development of local content in our markets, we actively encourage mobile application developers of all ages to develop solutions that can potentially help people participate in economic opportunities and overcome constraints such as lack of access to information, health and education services, among others.

Challenges MTN faced in 2016

The challenges MTN faced in 2016 were narrowed down to those which impacted our top nine operations, ultimately affecting the Group:

- Challenging economic conditions
- Increased competition and disruption of traditional telecoms business
- Tough political environments and greater regulatory and compliance requirements
- Easing of sanctions in Iran
- Inconsistent execution of Group strategy and implementation of regulatory compliance and governance policies by operations

Actions taken to integrate sustainability into its core business activities in 2016

We continued to integrate sustainable business practices into our day-to-day activities. Institutionalisation of the Group's ethics management framework remained a priority. We are actively working to strengthen the culture of ethical and responsible practices across our business.

We continued to add sustainable economic value in the following ways:

- We offer mobile financial services, health, education and other digital products that help narrow the digital divide between our markets and other, more developed markets.
- MTN's mobile money services have evolved from basic transfers and micro-payment services to savings and loan products.
- We actively encourage the development of digital solutions that meet the specific needs of our markets, ensuring we create shared value with the communities in which we operate.

We further met our eco-responsibility imperatives by:

- Developing IoT-based solutions to reduce negative environmental impacts.
- As we outsource our network sites, we encourage our tower management partner companies to improve energy efficiency and help MTN manage Scope 3 GHG emissions.
- Continuing to make good progress in reducing our use of paper, water and other resources and are improving our waste management practices.

We contributed to sustainable societies by:

- Enhancing our ethics management programme across the Company through training, communications and ensuring the availability of additional certified ethics officers.
- Making some progress towards achieving our digital human rights management objectives.
- Introducing progressive employee wellness solutions including flexible work policies, greater access to health services and workplace-based day-care services for employees' children were implemented in some operations.

MTN's sustainability focus for 2016

In 2016 we hope to continue to enable digital dividends for our stakeholders by harnessing the spirit of innovation and collaboratively developing solutions to opportunities and real-life challenges in our markets. We will continue to value good governance within MTN, and are committed to continue to implement the Fourth King Code of Corporate Governance, the United Nations Global Reporting Initiative (GRI 4) and Global Compact, carbon and climate impact reporting and the principles set out in the United Nations Protect, Respect and Remedy Framework.

Like all businesses, we face challenges from time to time, yet we are not deterred in our sustainability journey. As a major ICT player in emerging markets, we are acutely aware that our resources can make a meaningful difference to the lives of our customers and communities.

However, as part of the maintaining the ISO 14001 and LEED certifications for MTN South Africa, responsible water management and use is addressed. In 2015, MTN Cyprus also attained ISO 14001 certification. MTN Nigeria is currently in the process of implementing the requirements necessary to achieve ISO 14001 certification. Other operations, while not ISO 14001-certified, maintain safety health and environmental policies, and as part of business plans, all MTN countries of operation are reviewing environmental risks as a focus area in terms of the Group's principal risks. A number of MTN operations are currently implementing the Group Green Office toolkit, for water saving opportunities at offices and similar premises. SR: Environmental management

a. Report the internal and external mechanisms for seeking advice on ethical and lawful behavior, and matters related to organizational integrity, such as helplines or advice lines.

- An internal ethics discussion platform exists on the MTN intranet, "MTNConnect"
- A closed group discussion platform exists on the intranet ("MTN Connect") specifically for use by ethics champions at Group and Opco level
- An ethics advice line (not anonymous) exists: MTNGroupEthics@mtn.com
- An anonymous fraud reporting line exists (anonymous@tip-offs.net)
- At organisational level MTN has a strategic partnership with The Ethics Institute with whom the company has organisational membership; this partnership is crucial for ethics advice required at a systemic level.
- Annually a perception-based, anonymous organisation climate / culture survey is conducted across the group of companies, with Values and Corporate Integrity being two of the 16 dimensions probed.
- Ethics task teams at Group and operations level consisting of trained ethics champions from various disciplines (e.g. Finance, HR, Procurement, Business Risk Management, Corporate Affairs, etc.) who are available to field ethics enquiries.
- The MTN Group has 19 certified Ethics Officers (registered with the Ethics Institute of South Africa) from across various organisational disciplines, e.g. Procurement, Business Risk Management, Finance (Group Tax), Legal and HR who provide assistance and advice at both personal level and systemic level to all OPCOs in terms of ethics management practice.
- Ethics related priority policies as well as the Codes (Code of Ethics, Social and Ethics Statement and Employee Conduct Pledge) direct behaviour and practice, and contain directives on routes to follow for the reporting of ethical breaches.
- An Issue Management Council exists at head office as well as in most Opcos.

G4-58

a. Report the internal and external mechanisms for reporting concerns about unethical or unlawful behavior, and matters related to organizational integrity, such as escalation through line management, whistleblowing mechanisms or hotlines.

- All Ethics related policies indicate the appropriate route to follow with regard to reporting of ethics policy breaches, i.e. line manager / head of function / Group Chief Officer (HR and Corporate Affairs or Group Chief Officer Business Risk Management), or the whistleblowing line (Tip-offs Anonymous (anonymous@tip-offs.net)).
- An ethics advice line exists on the intranet (MTNConnect) – a social platform where employees may raise issues for purposes of gaining advice.
- A dedicated mailbox (MTNGroupEthics@mtn.com) in in use for all staff to raise issues of concern or ask advice privately.

Aspect Anti-Corruption

G4-SO3: TOTAL NUMBER AND PERCENTAGE OF OPERATIONS ASSESSED FOR RISKS RELATED TO CORRUPTION AND THE SIGNIFICANT RISKS IDENTIFIED

- The annual Group Culture Audit contains a Corporate Integrity Index the results of which indicate employee perceptions of corporate integrity from across all operations.
- A Group-wide corporate integrity survey (ethics risk assessment) conducted across all MTN operations which specifically includes the probing of the prevalence of instances of corruption was conducted from 1 to 19 June 2016, with each of the operations receiving their specific integrity risk profile indicating high, moderate and low ethical CULTURE risks, ethical BEHAVIOUR risks and ethics management risks. These are being analysed for incorporation into the company's corporate risk register.
