

Appendix A: Environmental Policy Statement

SBE (UK) Limited (hereafter known as SBE) recognises the importance of environmental protection and is committed to operating its business responsibly and in compliance with all legal requirements relating to the after sales repair and servicing of electronic equipment. It is SBE's declared policy to operate with and to maintain good relations with all regulatory bodies.

SBE operates an Environmental Management System that has gained ISO 14001:2004 certification including aspects specific to the provision of communications equipment maintenance and repair services.

It is SBE's objective to carry out all measures reasonably practicable to meet, exceed or develop all necessary or desirable requirements and to continually improve environmental performance through the implementation of the following:

- a) Assess and regularly re-assess the environmental effects of SBE's activities
- b) Training of employees in environmental issues
- c) Minimise the production of waste
- d) Minimise material wastage
- e) Minimise energy wastage
- f) Promote the use of recyclable and renewable materials
- g) Reduce and/or limit the production of pollutants to water, land and air
- h) Control noise emissions from operations
- i) Minimise the risk to the general public and employees from operations and activities undertaken by the Organisation

SBE will, so far as is reasonably practicable, continually improve its overall health and safety performance consistent with the aims of this Policy.

Furthermore, this organisation shall comply with the 10 principles of the United Nations Global Compact. Specifically principles 7, 8 & 9, as listed by the UN below.

Environment

- Principle 7: Businesses should support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges;
- Principle 8: Undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility; and
- Principle 9: encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies

SBE will communicate this Policy to its employees, visitors, contractors and others who may be affected by this undertaking.

This Policy will be reviewed on an annual basis.
