

OUR RESPONSIBILITY

MARTIN BENCHER GROUP COMMUNICATION ON PROGRESS REPORT 2017

Statement of continued support

August 30, 2017
To our stakeholders

I am pleased to confirm that Martin Bencher (Scandinavia) A/S reaffirms its support of the Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact and the UN Global Compact Sustainable development goals.

In this annual Communication on Progress, we describe our actions to continually improve the integration of the Global Compact and its principles into our business strategy, culture and daily operations. We also share this information with our identified stakeholders using our primary channels of communication.

Sincerely yours,

Peter Thorsoe Jensen
CEO, Martin Bencher Group

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

MARTIN BENCHER GROUP wants to provide first class freight forwarding services to customers worldwide. Martin Bencher Group is an active player in the communities in which the Group operates.

Our objective is to develop our business with respect for, and in harmony with, our surroundings.

MARTIN BENCHER GROUP operates with the following definition of Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR): CSR is defined as a set of activities undertaken by a company to operate in an economically, socially and environmentally sustainable manner.

In the case of MARTIN BENCHER GROUP, all principles, objectives and activities described in the Martin Bencher Standards are communicated and applied in all offices and followed by all employees at all times when at the workplace, jobsite or traveling on behalf of the Group.

MARTIN BENCHER GROUP has supported the UN Global Compact since 2013. The objective of this document is to communicate the progress made since then. We see this document continually developing as we acquire more knowledge and experience.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY

MARTIN BENCHER GROUP is committed to demonstrating a high standard of integrity and corporate social responsibility worldwide.

We commit to behave ethically and contribute to economic and environmental development globally and locally by implementing and communicating ethical standards at our workplace and complying with international norms, the UN Global Compact and universal principles of human rights, labor, environment and anti-corruption.

MARTIN BENCHER has integrated the UN Global Compact's ten principles into the Martin Bencher Standards. MARTIN BENCHER is part of UN Global Compact's vision of a sustainable and inclusive global economy, which delivers lasting benefits to people, communities, and markets. This CSR Report includes our third annual Communication on Progress (COP) and is shared with our stakeholders using our primary channels of communication.

Our CSR Policy as well as our Martin Bencher Standards are valid for all MARTIN BENCHER GROUP offices worldwide and are reviewed continuously and, if necessary, revised in the light of legislative or organizational changes.

We work in a competitive and challenging environment, and even more so as we expand into new markets. As a company and as individuals we are faced with financial, technical, commercial, and human challenges every single day.

In order to ensure lasting success, we must respond to these challenges by acting with integrity in our dealings with our customers, suppliers, colleagues, and other stakeholders.

I am making this commitment, and I am confident that Martin Bencher employees and other stakeholders will do the same - based on our values of being result-oriented, responsible and responsive.

Sincerely yours,

Peter Thorsoe Jensen
CEO, Martin Bencher Group

CODE OF CONDUCT

MARTIN BENCHER GROUP is committed to carrying out its business in a sustainable way, through conducting business with integrity and in compliance with the local laws and regulations governing its business. MARTIN BENCHER GROUP is committed to respect human rights, promote fair employment practices, work to protect the environment and to oppose corruption.

MARTIN BENCHER GROUP Code of Conduct is named Good Business Behaviour, and is part of the Martin Bencher Standards. It has been adopted to emphasize the above principles by which the Group conducts its relations with employees, business partners and other stakeholders. It applies to all members of the Board of Directors, and all employed by the MARTIN BENCHER GROUP.

CSR OBJECTIVES

MARTIN BENCHER GROUP sets to follow and work within its sphere of influence to uphold the Universal Declaration Say on Human Rights Principles to promote equality; life and security; personal freedom; and economic, social and cultural freedoms.

MARTIN BENCHER GROUP follows local labour legislation. It is incorporated into the Martin Bencher Standards and is applied at all office locations.

MARTIN BENCHER GROUP encourages responsible entrepreneurship to promote policies and operations of business and industry in reducing impacts on resource use and the environment.

MARTIN BENCHER GROUP will actively support transparency and anti-corruption to ensure that it does not engage in corrupt practices.

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

MARTIN BENCHER GROUP acknowledges the need for a responsible policy towards the environment. By applying our values, we strive to contribute to reducing the negative environmental impact on our local as well as global community. Martin Bencher works to influence our environmental impact through choice of suppliers used as well as modes of transport chosen.

Martin Bencher considers itself as part of both the local and the global community and wherever we trade we shall always comply to local legislation and we shall behave in an environmentally conscious manner.

Martin Bencher works proactively and continuously on environmental improvements and keeps staff and suppliers updated and motivated.

The environmental policy is part of the Martin Bencher QHSE Policy. It is valid for all the Martin Bencher offices worldwide and will be regularly monitored to ensure that the objectives are achieved. It will be reviewed and, if necessary, revised in the light of client expectations, legislative or organizational changes.

“Martin Bencher is a company that makes you feel like being part of a family, both at the office and across borders. People listen to the opinion and suggestions of each other in order to find new alternatives and create good business. New ideas are always welcome”

- GPTW Survey

WORKING ENVIRONMENT

MARTIN BENCHER GROUP is a company in constant development and growth. We are a young, dynamic and enthusiastic team with a company culture we are proud of. The last few years we have grown significantly and with our current strategy we expect this to continue. This also means that we need to take extra care to maintain our good working environment.

An important part of the Martin Bencher culture is how we treat people. We are a service provider so relationships with people are paramount for our business and day-to-day operations. We make sure to address everybody in a professional, timely, and decent manner – both colleagues, clients and others that we meet.

We acknowledge differences and treat everybody courteously, decently and professionally. The international environment that Martin Bencher operates within makes it important to consider cultural differences between colleagues, clients, suppliers, agents, etc.

As written in the Martin Bencher Standards for Good Business Behaviour, MARTIN BENCHER GROUP is committed to carrying out its business in a sustainable way, through conducting business with integrity and in compliance with the local laws and regulations governing its business.

SPONSORSHIPS

MARTIN BENCHER GROUP sponsors various organizations, projects and events.

In general, the main sponsorships are divided into three areas: environment -, humanity -, and health - related.

Environment - MARTIN BENCHER GROUP sponsors WWF (Denmark) each year. As a WWF partner, we help to take care of nature and endangered species, and slow down climate change.

Humanity - we sponsor Børnefonden, Children's Welfare in Denmark (Børns Vilkår), BuyAid and we are a 365-partner for DanChurchAid, who fight for human rights, equality and anti-corruption.

Health - We are an official corporate sponsor for the Danish Cancer Society and Team Rynkeby, who supports Child Cancer Foundation.

MARTIN BENCHER GROUP also sponsors local initiatives and organizations; for example 'Vaajakosten Tera', an orienteering organisation in Finland promoting a healthy and active lifestyle as well as some sporting institutions, such as Skanderborg Golfklub in Denmark, National Multiple Sclerosis Society in the USA, and the local football team in Aarhus, Denmark.

MARTIN BENCHER GROUP asks all local Martin Bencher offices to support and sponsor local organizations/projects in relation to shipping and/or being a responsible business in the local environment and community.

ANTI-CORRUPTION

PRINCIPLE 10

Businesses should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.

UN GLOBAL COMPACT

MARTIN BENCHER GROUP has supported the United Nations Global Compact since 2013. The UN Global Compact is a strategic policy initiative for businesses that are committed to aligning their operations and strategies with ten universally accepted principles in the areas of human rights, labor, environment and anti-corruption.

In September 2015, the UN adopted 17 new Sustainable Development Goals to replace the previous Millennium Goals. The Sustainable Development Goals take a broad perspective and are relevant for all countries, rich as well as poor. For these goals to become reality, all countries, businesses and organizations should embrace whatever change is necessary. For Martin Bencher, the journey has already begun. While Martin Bencher supports all the Sustainable Development Goals, we focus our efforts towards the three goals, on which we can have the biggest positive impact: goals no. 3, 8 and 17.

ANTI-CORRUPTION

PRINCIPLE 10

Businesses should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.

ANTI-CORRUPTION

MARTIN BENCHER GROUP adheres to a zero-tolerance policy on corruption. At Martin Bencher we will not tolerate any form of corruption or bribery.

The legal definition varies by legal jurisdiction, so Martin Bencher Group has adopted the following definitions in order to be clear with what it means in our organization.

Martin Bencher Group bribery definition: The offering, giving, soliciting, or acceptance of an inducement or reward which may influence any person to act morally or legally inappropriate.

Martin Bencher Group anti-corruption definition: the abuse of entrusted power for private gain. This definition captures three elements of corruption. One, corruption occurs in both the public and private sectors (and media and civil society actors are not exempt). Two, it involves abusing power held in a state institution or a private organization. Three, the bribe-taker (or a third party or, for example, an organization such as a political party) as well as the bribe-giver benefit, whether it be in terms of money or an undue advantage.

All employees are encouraged and obliged to raise concerns at the earliest possible stage about any indications of bribery and / or corruption. To report issues or concerns, please contact the CEO of Martin Bencher Group.

Any employee of Martin Bencher Group involved in corruption or bribery activities will be subject to sanctions and penalties aligned to the gravity of the offence. The strictest disciplinary measures will include termination of employment and reporting to the authorities for criminal investigation.

Martin Bencher's Anti-Corruption / Bribery Policy is valid for all Martin Bencher offices worldwide and will be regularly monitored to ensure that the objectives are achieved. It will be reviewed and, if necessary, revised in the light of legislative or organizational changes.

"Martin Bencher Group adheres to a zero-tolerance policy on corruption. In many parts of the world, corruption and bribery is unfortunately both accepted and expected in business. However, Martin Bencher Group will not tolerate corruption or bribery in any form."

- Peter Thorsoe Jensen
CEO at Martin Bencher Group

WHAT WE HAVE DONE...

MARTIN BENCHER GROUP has trained staff in the Martin Bencher Standards, which includes policies, procedures, and Good business behavior. In the Good business behaviour, we have identified several scenarios for all employees to identify where the critical areas of corruption and bribery exist.

...WHAT WE AIM TO ACHIEVE

MARTIN BENCHER GROUP will have a continuous focus on our zero-tolerance policy for corruption, bribery and extortion.

Martin Bencher Group will, on a continuous basis, evaluate its suppliers to make sure all our suppliers adhere to the Martin Bencher Standards and will immediately be blacklisted by Martin Bencher if any reference to corruption, bribery or extortion is discovered.

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

UNITED NATIONS SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

WHILE MARTIN BENCHER GROUP supports all the Sustainable Development Goals, we focus our efforts towards the three goals, on which we can have the biggest positive impact: goals no. 3, 8 and 17.

Goal 3: Good health and well-being

Through our ISO 14001 certification, we ensure the health and wellbeing of staff and stakeholders. Locally all offices identifies relevant health initiatives to implement, such as health checks, fruit at the office, health insurance, adjustable office furniture, and air-improvement devices at the office.

We have just received our Great Place to Work certificate based on an audit of our culture and an employee satisfaction survey.

Goal 8: Decent work and economic growth

We have our MB standards and quarterly QHSE report to follow up on performance.

We have employee satisfaction surveys and performance reviews with all employees. Here we identify the need for new competences for the individual employees as well as to develop the business.

Goal 17: Partnerships for the goal

We have two strategic partnerships which enable us to contribute to sustainable global development.

First, our partnership with BØRNEfonden (member of Child Funds Alliances) gives us the possibility to support children and families in creating a better future through education.

Second, our support of WWF has guided our environmental responsibility commitments.
