

Physically Challenged Rahima Akter Get Proper Guidance on Social Issues from Participatory Human Rights Advancement Society & Get Free Legal Support from Bangladesh Mohila Parishad On The 20th September 2015

Rahima Akter, Husband Mr. Sohag Mia. Present address: house#60, Islambag, Holan Road, Dhakhinkhan, Dhaka-1230, Bangladesh. Mrs. Rahima Akter comes to Participatory Human Rights Advancement Office on 15 September 2015 for getting Legal Help to Divorce her husband and get her Money of Mohrana (Mahr). She is extreme poor and she has no money for going to lawyer. In that circumstances Participatory Human Rights Advancement Society carefully listen from her all the fact and decided to send her “Bangladesh Mohila Parishad” on 20 September 2015 for getting free legal assistance. Rahima get excellent support from Bangladesh Mohila Parishad. They send three (3) notices to her husband Mr. Shoag Mia but they did not get any answer from her husband. After few months Bangladesh Mohila Parishad decided to file a case against her husband. Now the case is continuing at “Dhaka Judge Court”.

Rahima Akter is a garments worker for the last 12 years. She earned money and she gives most of the money to his husband in good faith to build & furnish a house in her in-laws house at Mymensing. Their conjugal life is not more than 10 years and Rahima had an abortion after second year of her married life now they had no child. Her husband Shoag Mia tactfully takes money from Rahima & she gives money and all her effort to his husband in good faith. Shoag Mia is a day labour. Rahima is elder sister among 8 brothers and sisters. She helps her family to educate her sisters and brothers. Suddenly she had an accident with a truck and auto rickshaw on the 16 December 2014 when she was returning from her in –laws house from Mymensing. This accident seriously damaged her one leg and she was sickbed for the several months. She gets financial assistance for treatment from her garments colleagues and community neighbours. When Rahima experienced with this accident her husband Mr. Shoag Mia non communicating her. Rahima's husband Mr. Sohag Mia not take any necessary action for her treatment or not give any money to Rahima for her family expenditure. Physically challenged Rahima Akther passing hard time from the 16th December 2014. She lives hand to mouth her injured leg was infected for the several months but she was unable to take medicine regularly because she has no work now.