

Free Health & Wellness Camps in Hatikhali, Dima Hasao ,Assam

Overview of the Program:-Free medical, Health and wellness camp was initiated in Hatikahali under Langting constituency in Dima Hasao of Assam, India . The medical camps were organized by the Haflong based civil Society for Integrated Rural & Urban Development' (SIRUD) and supported by the Jt. Director Health Services ,Haflong ,Dima Hasao under National Health Mission (NHM) and assisted by the Local Youths of Hatikhali.

Objectives:- The health camp was organized in view of various ailment arises due to climatic changes and to treat degenerative disease like joint pain to mention few.

Overview:- The camp was attended by the doctors from Haflong and Maibang Civil Hospital namely M & H.O Dr. Ronald Bathari, Dr. Phiroi Harangkhol , Dr. S Dibragade ,Pharmacist ,GNM and ANM from Hatikhali and provided all the necessary treatment and medicine to the patient free of cost. Apart from that Sr Citizens, Executive Director of SIRUD, Dr Nirmal Singh, SPP and local youths were present to conduct the camp successfully.

On the said camp Dr. Ronald Bathari emphasized mainly on the pain management of the patient afflicted with the Knee, elbow and shoulder pain and administered the required medicine while the other doctors present treated patient with general illness like cough-fever, worm infestation, skin infection and malnutrition etc.

Out Come:- During the camp about two hundreds man, women and children's from Hatikhali and other nearby villages under the said constituency were treated by the doctors present and medicine.

Date Organized:- 2017

Conclusion:- The camp was concluded in the evening where local people of that area extended their gratitude for conducting the camp to the civil society, doctors and local youths. The locals also appeal for providing a doctor in Hatikhali Sub Center for better health care facility of that area.