

COMMUNICATION ON ENGAGEMENT 2017
JM Empowerment Foundation

Part I: Statement of Continued by the Chief Executive

To our stakeholders:

I am pleased to confirm that JM Empowerment Foundation reaffirms its support to the United Nations Global Compact and its Ten Principles in the areas of Human Rights, Labour, Environment and Anti-Corruption. This is our Communication on Engagement with the United Nations Global Compact. We welcome feedback on its contents.

In this Communication of Engagement, we describe the actions that our organization has taken to support the UN Global Compact and its Principles as suggested for an organization like ours. We also commit to sharing this information with our stakeholders using our primary channels of communication.

Sincerely Yours
Ms Lucky Joyce Mahlangu
Founder and Executive chairperson

A report back on work that has been done by JM Empowerment Foundation to support the UN the Global Compact.

Part II. Description of Actions

1. Engage with Global Compact Local Networks - Our Executive Chairperson and other members of the JM Empowerment Foundation attended all the local meetings hosted by the local UN Global Compact with the aim to build relationships for future collaboration and partnership projects in support of UN Global Compact

2. Join and/or support special initiatives and work streams - Our Executive Chairperson joined the South African Presidential CEO Initiative with the intended outcome to build confidence in the economy and reignite growth ensuring that it is also inclusive and to help the country avert a downgrade in the country's sovereign credit rating. The initiative consist of the companies that are also signatory to the UN Global Compact.

Measurement of outcomes and Our way forward

Our goal of building relationship has been achieved

Consultative processes among relevant stakeholders in business and civil society will begin in 2017 and further details will be communicated in our next communication on engagement report

We are encouraged by the work done thus far. It is encouraging that we are working together with business and civil society

We will continue to urge all sectors of society to ensure that together, we focus on initiatives that will advance UN Global Compact
