To our stakeholders:

I am pleased to confirm that RahGor reaffirms its support to the United Nations Global Compact and its Ten Principles in the areas of Human Rights, Labour, Environment and Anti-Corruption. This is our Communication on Engagement with the United Nations Global Compact. We welcome feedback on its contents.

In this Communication of Engagement, we describe the actions that our organization has taken to support the UN Global Compact and its Principles as suggested for an organization like ours. We also commit to sharing this information with our stakeholders using our primary channels of communication.

Sincerely yours,

Rahfeal Gordon – Chief Executive Officer

Part II. Description of Actions

- For academic organizations: We conducted applied research and thought leadership to advance best practices. We were able to develop a curriculum to be implemented into various school systems. This helped promote the UN Global Compact Ten Principles and educated a variety of audiences about sustainability.
- For business associations: We were able to establish global learning and dialogue events, workshops and training for organization's leadership committees and members on the UN Global Compact and specific topics relevant to corporate sustainability.
- For cities: We have established sustainability plan(s) that incorporates the political and cultural dimensions of the region's sustainability.

Part III. Measurement of Outcomes

- Our expertise provided by my organization to further the aims of Global Compact Local Network in your country
- Concrete actions taken by UN Global Compact business participants with whom my organization engaged regarding their COP
- Partnerships formalized with mutual aims to advance the UN Global Compact principles. We were able to do this on our global platform.
