

Letter of Commitment

The Foundation of Implementation of Social Programs hereby declares its full commitment to the Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact derived from the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Labour Organization's Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights for Work, the Rio Declaration on Environment and Development, and the United Nations Convention Against Corruption:

Human Rights

Principle 1: Businesses should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights; and

Principle 2: make sure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses.

Labour

Principle 3: Businesses should uphold the freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining;

Principle 4: the elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labour;

Principle 5: the effective abolition of child labour; and

Principle 6: the elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation.

Environment

Principle 7: Businesses should support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges;

Principle 8: undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility; and

Principle 9: encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies.

Anti-Corruption

Principle 10: Businesses should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.

Best regards,

Albert Zhukov

CEO of the Foundation of Implementation of Social Programs
