

Part II. Description of Actions

Over the last two years Indian Mountain School has taken a number of actions that reflect the spirit of the principles of the Global Compact.

Curricular

- Have added a Global Citizenship class
- Have established the annual Poquonook Solutions Symposium - a SDG student generated solution showcase
- Have added a Sustainability Science as the 9th grade science course
- Diversifying curriculum
  - Expanding works and geographic areas studied (i.e. broader array of authors of, characters represented in, settings, and themes in literature read, etc.)

Infrastructure

- Environmental Studies classroom (due to be completed in 2019)
- On campus Solar array (due to be completed in 2019)
- Have committed to environmentally responsible building for all future construction projects
- Converted most public restrooms to gender neutral bathrooms

Other

- In its hiring practices Indian Mountain seeks to increase the diversity of its faculty and staff. Administrator
- Conferences attended: Faculty participate in the SEEDs Program, Student attend the CAIS Student Diversity Leadership Conference
- IMS has joined Coalition 2030 (SDG focused group of schools)
- IMS is actively engaged with SDSN Youth and their Global Schools initiative in developing SDG related curriculum and educator training programs

Part III. Measurement of Outcomes

Curricular

- 90 students have completed the Global Citizenship and Sustainability Science courses, and have participated in the Solutions Symposium
- 33 separate solutions have been presented during the annual Symposium

Infrastructure

- 1 building incorporating green technologies (Environmental Studies classroom) is currently in late planning stages and is due to be completed in 2019
- 1 on campus Solar array is due to be completed in 2019
- 6 public restrooms have been converted to gender neutral bathrooms