INTRODUCTION

TRAYTON GROUP

特 雷 通 集 团

Founded by Danish entrepreneur Mr. Simon Lichtenberg in 1995, Trayton Group is a multinational company and one of the largest furniture manufactures and retailers in China.

Our main business is design, branding, manufacturing and distribution of upholstery furniture, retailing of furniture and lifestyle products and trading businesses and service. With 20 years development, the Group has grown to a multinational furnishing company. Registered at Hong Kong, the Group is globally headquartered in Hong Kong and Shanghai, and set up offices and owns subsidiaries in the U.S., Hong Kong and China mainland. The Group produces upholstery products in China and distributes products all over the world. Being one of the largest furniture manufacturers in China, the Group has 3 factories in Shanghai and Zhejiang with 93,000 m² production space and 2000 employees.

In 2004 the brand “Simon Li” was born, the name itself came from the shortened form of Simon Lichtenberg, Trayton Group CEO. The company had been producing upholstery furniture since 1997 for other brands - the business was growing, it was time to create our own brand. In 2016 Simon Li was started in China with establishment of online stores. In September of 2018, the first retail store of Simon Li Brand in China was opened.

Trayton also acts as the exclusive agent of Kvadrat. The business of Kvadrat started in Chinese market in the spring of 2010, the product – fashion design- oriented textiles has been introduced into China’s architectural and interior design industry.

CEO's MESSAGE

We believe that our success is partly due to the way in which we integrated social responsibility and respecting for human rights into our business. Besides unwavering business efforts to develop, produce and promote quality products for a better way of living, we always show our commitment to create best living environment for all people through helping the disadvantaged community, protecting the environment and fostering the youth generation. To ensure safe working conditions for the employees with respect and dignity, the Group conducts regular internal audits to ensure all standards to be executed properly. Continuous attention on improving labor's working conditions has won globally recognized reputation and respect for the Group from its customers.

Trayton Group believes that people make the ultimate difference in success of business. People's development is the focus of the Group's human resource management approaches. We encourage an open, healthy, vigilant and creative corporate culture. Trayton introduced RICE –Responsibility, Innovation, Engagement, and Care as our corporate values. These have been embraced well by all of our employees and will have a lot of positive influence on our actions and performance in the years to come. In addition, multiple communication channels have been set up for more transparent and accurate information revealing and efficient communication between front-line employees and supervisors as well as the top management, such as Open Day, Workshop Communication Committee, and Employee Representative Committee etc.

We have committed ourselves to observe all principles of the United Nation's Global Compact. We will continue to incorporate the basic principles and elements of sustainable development into our strategies, business flow and corporate culture. We will work hard and join hands with our stakeholders to promote sustainable development and advance ourselves to be responsible corporate citizenship.
