Pariwartna Sanchar Samuha (PSS)

Pariwartan Sanchar Samuha (literally Pariwartan Media Group) was established in 2074 B.S. by a group of seasoned journalists and respected social workers.

Located in Kapan, Budhanilkantha Municipality, Kathmandu, PSS has grown into a complete media company within a short span.

PSS immediately launched Pariwartankhabar.Com, a bi-lingual online news portal having both Nepali and English language editions. Today, the news portal is recognized for accuracy of its reporting and thought provoking articles. As a result, Pariwartankhabar.Com is now a top rated news portal of the country. It has become a trusted, respected, widely read and preferred source of news and views for Nepalese people everywhere, within and outside Nepal. PSS has an in-house studio for video services, from shoot to edit. We are pleased to inform you that in addition to the news portal, PSS also has an online TV service, namely Pariwartan TV. Videos and documentaries are produced in-house.

PSS has the required infrastructure, equipment and talented pool of staff members, which enables us to provide a range of media services like production of films and documentaries, videos, website designing, development of mobile apps and digital marketing.

You are cordially invited to visit and inspect our office, and tell us how we can best serve you.
