

Nykredit's approach to corporate responsibility traces its roots to our history, ownership and size. To us, corporate responsibility is not just a new trend, it simply lies at the core of the way we operate.

In 2018 we integrated the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) into our strategic corporate responsibility efforts. We have analysed the connection between Nykredit's business and the 17 SDGs and the risk of exerting a negative impact. Using the analysis as our basis, we have picked the five SDGs most central to Nykredit's work. We will continue this process in 2019 and re-evaluate the way we prioritise the SDGs, develop better indicators and calibrate measures across the organisation to bring them in line with the SDGs.

Nykredit has been a signatory to the UN Global Compact since 2008. For ten years, we have been committed to the Ten Principles for responsible business practices, which include a commitment to promoting human rights, labour standards, the environment and anti-corruption. We have also signed the UN's Principles for Responsible Investment (UN PRI) with a view to ensuring that environmental, social and corporate governance (ESG) issues are incorporated into our investment practice. Nykredit will continue to be committed to the Ten Principles for responsible business practices. We also commit to sharing this information with our stakeholders using our primary channels of communication.
