ARAB AFRICAN AMERICAN WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP COUNCIL (AAAWLC) UNITED NATIONS-ECOSOC & UN GLOBAL COMPACT

Period covered by this Communication on Engagement

From: March 28, 2017

To: March 28, 2019

Part 1. Statement of Continued Support by the Chief Executive of Equivalent

March 28, 2019

To our stakeholders:

I am pleased to confirm that Arab African American Women's Leadership Council (AAAWLC) reaffirms its support to the United Nations Global Compact and its Ten Principles in the areas of Human Rights, Labour, Environment and Anti-Corruption. This is our Communication on Engagement with the United Nations Global Compact. We welcome feedback on its contents.

In this Communication of Engagement, we describe the actions that our organization has taken to support the UN Global Compact and its Principles as suggested for an organization like ours. We also commit to sharing this information with our stakeholders using our primary channels of communication.

Sincerely yours,

Dr. Naima Remadi Nour

ARAB AFRICAN AMERICAN WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP COUNCIL
CEO

Part II. Description of Actions

Please use the box below to describe the actions your organization has taken in support of the Global Compact. It is strongly recommended that the actions taken are related to one or more of the specific activities suggested. Please refer to the complete list of suggested activities for your type of organization found here.

We have pledged to participate in and engage with the UN Global Compact in the following ways:

- Organize learning and dialogue events, workshops and training for their members on the UN Global Compact and specific topics relevant to corporate sustainability.
- Promote the Global Compact and its principles through delivering education on topics related to the Global Compact.
- Participate and Engage in Global Compact Local Network activities.
- Participate and Engage in Global Compact, global, regional, and local events.
- Join and/ or support special initiatives and work streams.
- Create opportunities to women painters from all over the world to showcase their art and empower them economically.

Part III. Measurement of Outcomes

Please use the box below to include the most relevant qualitative and/or quantitative indicators to measure the outcome of the activities described in Part II above.

- We created an opportunity for women painters from all over the world to showcase their art and empower them economically at the sixty-third session of the Commission on the Status of Women.
- Join and proposed partnership projects geared to promote intercultural exchanges between Arab, African, and American women from all around the world.
- We advocated for human rights, equal opportunity, and sustainable development goals.
- We promote young adults in becoming leaders in their community by involving them with civil society through activities and events that our organization holds.
- We have conducted many collaborative projects that enhance good leadership to bridge gaps of inequality and break the silence of women's voices while advocating for human rights and development.
