

COMMUNICATION ON ENGAGEMENT (COE)
Anglo-American University

Period covered by the Communication on Engagement

From: 2017-05-09 To: 2019-08-02

Part 1. Period of continued support by the Chief Executive or Equivalent

Date: 2019-08-02

To our stakeholders:

I am pleased to confirm that Anglo-American University reaffirms its support to the United Nations Global Compact and its Ten Principles in the areas of Human Rights, Labour, Environment and Anti-Corruption. This is our Communication on Engagement with the United Nations Global Compact. We welcome feedback on its contents.

In this Communication of Engagement, we describe the actions that our organization has taken to support the UN Global Compact and its Principles as suggested for an organization like ours. We also commit to sharing this information with our stakeholders using our primary channels of communication.

Yours sincerely,

doc. Ing. Lubomír Lízal, Ph.D.
President
Anglo-American University

Part II. Description of Actions

As a global and inclusive community, Anglo-American University prepares learners for success by cultivating critical thinking, effective communication and responsible action through personalized and transformative learning. Anglo-American University's vision is to be a leading intellectual hub connecting study programs, research and real-world experience while upholding core values.

Through memberships in various organizations such as the Association of Social Responsibility, which is the host entity of Czech Global Compact, and independently, Anglo-American University has hosted several educational and research oriented open to the public. For example, we organized Interdisciplinary Conference on Human Rights (March 2019) and a conference on the peaceful splitting of Czechoslovakia: Czechoslovak Velvet Divorce: 25 Years After What Lessons can be Learned for Today's Europe? (December 2017). We also organized a number of panel discussions on various topics, such as migration, technology and politics, climate change, and post truth society. We also organized several public exhibitions, thus widening the public outreach of our activities based on the principles and values of the UN Global Compact. Part III. Measurement of Outcomes

In 2017, Anglo-American University signed a memorandum of understanding with the Sustainability Management School in Switzerland, which is also a member of the UN Global Compact initiative.

Other activities organized by Anglo-American University based on the principles and values of the UN Global Compact have not yet led to partnerships with other organizations whose primary purpose would be to promote the UN Global Compact principles. However, the AAU core values correspond with these principles, and its key elements will be further promoted in upcoming collaborations with new partner institutions, of both academic and civil sector nature.

AAU Core Values:

- Academic excellence: Conduct quality programs based on the innovative strategies and practical skills of a qualified and diverse faculty.
- Personal attention to learners: Instruct in small, dynamic groups using real-world experience with seminar- and project-based education strategies to identify and satisfy individual learner needs, support their constant growth and development, and contribute to their personal success.
- Diversity, Inclusivity and Multiculturalism: Cultivate a multicultural campus environment; encourage diversity of the student body, faculty, and staff; and treat each person with dignity and respect.
- Flexibility and Critical Thinking: Promote open discussion and original thought from students, faculty, partner businesses and institutions to empower innovative approaches and increase flexibility to address new challenges.
- Social Consciousness: Foster an ethos of social responsibility through operating affordable education with a professional administration; employing qualified faculty, quality staff and as a not for profit organization continually invest in the betterment of our community and educational models.
