Statement of Continued Support

I am pleased to confirm that Multiple Development Services Limited supports the Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact on human rights, labour, environment and anti-corruption. With this communication, we express our intent to implement those principles. We are committed to making the UN Global Compact and its principles part of the strategy, culture and day-to-day operations of our company, and to engaging in collaborative projects which advance the broader development goals of the United Nations, particularly the Sustainable Development Goals. Multiple Development Services Limited will make a clear statement of this commitment to our stakeholders and the general public.

We recognize that a key requirement for participation in the UN Global Compact is the annual submission of a Communication on Progress (COP) that describes our company's efforts to implement the Ten Principles. We support public accountability and transparency, and therefore commit to report on progress within one year of joining the UN Global Compact, and annually thereafter according to the UN Global Compact COP policy.

H

UMAN RIGHTS

UN Global Compact principles covered:

- Principle 1: Business should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights; and
- Principle 2: Business should ensure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses

Our Commitment

We remain committed to run an all-inclusive business environment where personnel are given the privilege and opportunity to thrive and be productive. Employees are driven to “own” the job responsibility. This strategy has given each employee equal opportunity to excel at work. Our employee training policy is applicable to all employees, regardless of contractual status, that is including employees on permanent and fixed term contracts and students working their in-service (intern) period.

A brief description of our Processes

Our training is organized around the following key focus areas:

- Optimizing individual and collective performance and supporting growth, by incorporating: - diversity of professional expertise; - the international dimension of the business;
- Ensuring the convergence of needs and skills between the various sectors of the company and employees' individual aptitudes;
- Preparing employees' development in their current and future assignments and thereby encouraging their mobility;
- Supporting or anticipating change, particularly in the following sectors: - technology; - organization, management, and circular economy
- Encouraging knowledge sharing within Multiple Development Services through: - the capitalization and dissemination of knowledge and expertise; - the sharing of methodologies.

Within Multiple Development Services, all managers are involved in ensuring the best definition of the training required by their teams. Similarly, employees are encouraged to suggest training to enable them to develop. The actions are organized locally, regionally or company-wide.

The pooling of training approaches within the company is a priority in order to optimize resources and be able to rely on proven initiatives, particularly in the field of management, training and process development for ALL employee.

Actions implemented in the last year/planned for next year

Employees are encouraged to further their education and is eligible to apply for financial assistance to meet the cost of the studies, which includes all fees and examination fees, and any materials required (for example for scientific courses).

Measurable Results

- Annual Safety Award, Safe Worker of the Month & Board of Directors Award planned for the end-of-the year retreat 2019
- Safety & Health Week to be conducted in the last quarter of the year 2019

ABOUT

UN Global Compact principles covered:

- Principle 3: Business should uphold the freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining
- Principle 4: Business should support the elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labour
- Principle 5: Business should support the effective abolition of child labour
- Principle 6: Business should support the elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation

Our Commitment

We have developed a functional policy for our operations, with both national and global inclination, for optimal support of our workforce. We adhere strictly with available laws and regulations against force labour and zero tolerance for gender, race, colour, political or religious discriminations. For health-related concerns, we also run a zero-tolerance discrimination for HIV status in relation to employment and promotion at work.

A brief description of our Processes

Our recruitment process is structured and has a documented policy which strives to maintain diversity through gender, skills, race, values, attributes, and characteristics while offering equal opportunity to all potential candidates. This is also evidence in our system as we do not recruit minors (under 18 years) - which is a violation of children rights - into our workforce. Our compensation policy ensures employees are entitled to additional benefits to their salary. Applicable allowances, relating to duties executed within the State and beyond are remunerated with outstation allowances/estacode as the case may be.

Our stride towards ensuring a holistic training and development opportunity among employees reflects in our process of providing equal opportunity for employee's continuous growth both professionally and academically. This has helped to provide the system with effective and efficient workforce, which relationally has created mutual benefits between employer and the employees

Our reward system, regardless of employment status, to encourage the entire workforce for more productive outcomes, has spurred employees to put in more individual drive to "own their roles", which is a benefit to all employees within the year in view.

Recognizing that training is an integral part of our services and that our employees are the most important element in the success of these trainings as well as other services rendered by our company and that they are also the source of sustainable competitive advantage, our Directors and Management have renewed their commitment to the training and development of all our employees.

Measurable Results

- We have maintained a balance in the gender percentage for the labour force over the year in view. This has subsequently improved healthy work relationship within the organization.
- We have improved the pay-pack of staff within the year in view by 50%
- Sustained staff welfare support at all levels

Target for Future Years

In a bid to encourage and reward our long-serving employees, THE LONG SERVICE AWARD is planned for year ending 2019, to reward our employees who have distinguished themselves in meritorious service in years and accomplishments.

Also, to ensure work balance life compulsory enforcement of leave shall be introduced.

E NVIRONMENT
