Only those who take the lead in changing the world are called heroes. Heroes make history and create change in the world. So let us all become heroes of peace.

Group meeting of HWPL Bangladesh Chapter's event organizers

Let us all become heroes of peace and create a world of peace together. This work of peace is not only for today. We must not stop until a world of peace is complete. Let us use the Legislate Peace campaign, the Peace Letter campaign, and any other means possible to create a world of peace.

Participatory Human Rights Advancement Society actively joined and helps to organize the event successfully. Since we have the answer to peace, if we become united as one, we can achieve world peace. We are one!
