ORANA A/S

UN Global Compact Reporting on Communication on Progress (COP)

0. Period covered by our Communication on Progress (COP)

From 01.10.2018 to 30.09.2019

1. Statement of Continued Support by the Chief Executive Officer

17th December 2019

To our stakeholders:

We are pleased to confirm that Orana Denmark reaffirms its support of the Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact in the areas of Human Rights, Labour, Environment, and Anti-Corruption.

In this first annual Communication on Progress, we describe our actions to continually improve the integration of the Global Compact and its principles into our business strategy, culture and daily operations. We also commit to sharing this information with our stakeholders using our primary channels of communication.

Sincerely yours,

Birgitte Eilskov
General Manager
Orana Denmark A/S

2. Introduction

The Orana Group hereunder Orana Denmark is committed to sustainability in all business activities and aims to apply highest ethical standards in order to ensure the long-term success of the Orana Group and its stakeholders. In support of this goal, the Orana Group implemented a Supplier Code of Conduct in 2007 and since then all Orana Group companies hereunder Orana Denmark have subscribed to the UN Global Compact. Both specify minimum standards expected of Orana and its suppliers and based on principles for:

- a) Human Rights
- b) Labour
- c) Environment
- d) Anti-Corruption

In the Orana Group, all staff is committed to following these principles. The Orana Group further requires its suppliers to explicitly acknowledge and adhere to the principles embodied in the Code of Conduct to ensure that their own suppliers also will comply with these principles.

3. Human Rights

Description of Actions

All sites further ensure that hiring, remuneration, advancement, training and termination decisions are based on objective factors and not connected to gender, age, nationality, ethnicity, race, colour, creed, caste, language, mental or physical disability, or any other discriminating factors. Instead, this is determined by skills, qualifications, and experience required for the position in question.

All Orana sites do not tolerate workplace harassment, hereunder but not limited to words, signs, offensive jokes, e-mail statements, pranks, intimidation, sexual or physical harassment or violence. Policies are in place to protect all employees.

The Orana Group has implemented health and safety prevention policies, which comply with national, international, and Orana company rules. These policies are made available to employees in a language, which is understood by the employees.

All Orana sites document accidents and adjust its processes to prevent future accidents if any. At all sites, workers and managers are trained to respond to emergencies and emergency exits are free from obstruction. Fire extinguishers are available. Work environments are maintained and kept clean. All sites have sufficient and suitable ventilation, lighting, and availability of potable water, washing facilities and sanitary facilities and suitable eating areas. All employees are provided with protective equipment and training necessary to safely perform the functions of their positions.

Moreover, all sites have implemented rules about hygiene, alcohol, and smoking.

Measurement of Outcomes

Employee Turnover is measured for all Orana Group companies. For Orana Denmark, employee turnover in 2018-19 was 15 %.

Orana is harassment and discrimination free organization. In the companies CSR code, the freedom of association and non-discrimination policy are addressed. There is no any such kind of harassment or discrimination incidences reported in the period of communication.

In Denmark, all accidents shall be reported to the Danish Safety and Labor Inspectorate's electronic reporting system for occupational accidents.
