Message from the Managing Trustee

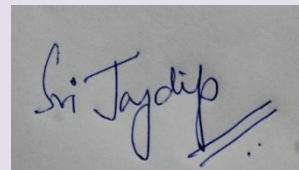

Sri Joydip Ashram Trust began operations in 27th March 2012, and I hope you will see from this annual report that, in a relatively short period of seven years, it has made considerable progress. There is still a long journey ahead, but I am confident that the talented team assembled by Sri Joydip Ashram Trust is more than up to the challenge to bring a new level of consciousness through blending Yoga with innovation and tradition and making it multidisciplinary and taking this innovative yoga education to the world in a most cost efficient by using technology to enable life education.

Sri Joydip Ashram Trust is a non-profit organization which believes that such a design is essential to deliver blending between Innovation and Tradition could make Yoga philosophy inclusive, which is the base of 'Sri Joydip's teachings' and implement it in diverse sectors like education , healthcare , disaster relief , cultural exchange , cultural research and uplift the consciousness of human being , with the imperatives of transformation. Further, the Trust believes such a new education design of yoga blending innovation with tradition is viable with the name and style of "Sri Joydip's teachings". Indeed, Sri Joydip Ashram Trust's efforts are focused on demonstrating the clause 6 of Trust Deed to take Sri Joydip's teaching into multiple platforms and each and every activities of Trustees , Teachers, Students , Partners of Sri Joydip Ashram Trust is geared towards that direction to use "Sri Joydip's teaching" in multiple platforms to bring broad transformation in multiple sectors.
