Dear Mr. Secretary General,

I am pleased to express Baker Hughes' continued support and renewed commitment to the Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact on human rights, labour, environment, and anti-corruption. This letter confirms our intent to advance these principles in our strategy, culture, and business practices.

Since joining the Global Compact in 2019, we have embraced the opportunity to be part of a global community helping accelerate the UN's Sustainable Development Goals. As a global energy technology company, we have the purpose of taking energy forward, making it safer, cleaner, and more efficient for people and the planet. We have identified many ways that we can contribute to the advancement of the Sustainable Development Goals through our operations, supply chain, products, and services.

For our first annual Communication on Progress (COP), we are submitting our 2019 Corporate Responsibility Report. In this document, we provide a description of the practical actions we have taken, and the plans we have, to implement the UN Global Compact principles. The report includes specific performance targets and measurements of outcomes across the issue areas of human rights, labour, environment, anti-corruption, and others.

At Baker Hughes, we are making progress in the fulfillment of our commitment to the Ten Principles, and we are proud to be a part of this essential global effort.

Respectfully,
