We do believe that collective actions as ICRio can make difference providing information regarding the 10 Principles and the SDG.

Part III. Measurement of Outcomes

We've had more than 25 meetings, seminars and events organized by ICRio during the last two years.

In all of them we disseminate the United Nations Global Compact and its Ten Principles. Specially the Anticorruption Principle (number 10), considering the ICRio's expertise.

We've received excellent feedback from the audience when the Ten Principles were mentioned.

Additionally, we use our social media to disseminate the Principles and SDG for the society in general.
