H.E. António Guterres
Secretary-General
United Nations
New York, NY 10017 USA

Respected Mr. Secretary General,

I am pleased to confirm that SR Capital Public School, Delhi supports the ten principles of the UN Global Compact with respect to human rights, labour, environment and anti-corruption. With this commitment, we express our intent to support the Global Compact advancing these principles and will make a clear statement of this commitment to our stakeholders and the general public.

Part I:

We also pledge to participate in and engage with the UN Global Compact in the following way(s):

1. Promote the UN Global Compact Ten Principles and educate a variety of audiences like students, teachers and parents about sustainability.
2. Support UN Global Compact business participants in implementing and reporting on their sustainability efforts.
3. Learn and research the best practices of the UN Global Compact Network and/or the UN Global Compact in New York to adopt sustainable principles.
4. Promote and implement the Principles of Responsible Management Education (PRME) within the school and community.
5. Develop leadership skills of the students to inculcate UN Global Compact Ten Principles within the Community.

PART II:

The SR Capital Public School (SRCPS) has taken various actions to support Global Compact. I am sharing the list of the activities done by us.

1. Participation in the Global Compact Conferences at Global and Local Network

- a. The 40 students and 4 faculties of SRCPS participated in the special lecture on "How can corporate organizations help to achieve Sustainable Development Goals" by Padma Bhushan Dr. Kirit S Parikh at ONCG, Delhi held on 5th July 2019. The event was organised by UN Global Compact India.
  - b. The Managing Director of SRCPS, Lakshya Kumar participated in the Virtual Leaders Summit on 15th-16th June 2020 being organised by UN Global Compact
2. The SRCPS has incorporated the Global Compact Principles into internal operations and communication. We are promoting the Global Compact principles in our classroom. The students are learning the 10 principles of GC and how they can act to inculcate these principles in their life.
- a. The SRCPS is remembering and celebrating various important days such as Human Rights Day, Constitution Day of India, UN Day, World Literacy Day, World Population Day, World Environment Day, International Workers Day, Earth Day, World Health Day, and many more.
  - b. All the activities organised by the school has been shared with everyone on Facebook.com. The link of the School's Facebook Page is www.facebook.com/SRCPSDelhi
  - c. We use hashtags such as #UNGC and #UNGlobalCompact whenever the school conduct any activities related to the principles of UNGC
3. The SRCPS is organising various awareness activities through which students are learning the principles of GC by doing such activities. Like Celebration of Cracker Free Diwali to save the environment, Integrity Pledge by the students to uphold the Integrity, highest standard of good governance and to follow ethical practices in their lives. This effort was appreciated by the Central Vigilance Commission of India.
4. The SRCPS has organised multiple tree plantation drives to increase the greenery within the school campus and surrounding areas.
5. The school is promoting environment-friendly technologies within the school campus. The school has reduced the use of plastic bags and bottles. Also, the school has installed rainwater harvesting to recharge the groundwater.

Part III:

1. We are happy to share that our children become aware of the UN Global Compact and its 10 principles with respect to human rights, labour, environment and anti-corruption.
2. The students of SRCPS have become more sensitive towards 17 SDGs of UN and making these principles the way of life. The students have become more compassionate towards humanity, environment, and the UN Global Compact.
3. The students are well informed with child rights, labour equality, laws related to corruption-free governance.
4. We are glad to be part of the UN Global Compact which shows the path to us and our children to become a global citizen.

We recognize that a key requirement for participation in the Global Compact is the submission of a Communication on Engagement (COE) that describes our organization's efforts to support the implementation of the ten principles and to engage with the Global Compact. We support public accountability and transparency and therefore commit to report on progress within two years of joining the Global Compact and every two years thereafter according to the Global Compact COE policy.

Yours Sincerely,

Lakshya Chhabaria
